SOCIAL

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Yates, Miss Carson Yates, Mr. Ogburn Yates, Mrs. Henry Laney and sons, Rector and Yates, and Rev. John W. Moore will attend the marriage of Miss Maude S. Hoyle to Rev. N. S. Ogburn which will be solemnized tomorrow morning at 10:30 at Trinity Methodist church in Charlotte. Mr. Moore, a former pastor of Trinity, and Rev. W. A. Jenkins, present pastor, will officiate. Miss Hoyle's sister, Miss Helen Hoyle, will be her maid of honor and Miss Bleeka Rich of Charlotte and Miss Mary Louise Brown, the last of Washington, will be bridesmaids. Bright Ogburn Hoyle, tiny daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hoyle and a niece of both bride and bridegroom, will be ring bearer. Mr. Ogburn's brother, Mr. Frank Ogburn, of High Point, will be his best man. Messrs. Flynn Wolfe and C. Gault Falls, the latter of Columbia, S. C., will be groomsmen. Mr. J. Henry Thiell will preside at the organ, accompanying Mrs. Bruce Fudger in a song just prior to the ceremony and Mrs. J. L. Hoyle in the singing of the benediction. Miss Hoyle has been the honoree at many attractive social events since the announcement of her engagement. The Charlotte News describes as follows two attractive parties given for her last week: "Miss Bleeka Rich entertained at luncheon at the Selwyn hotel yesterday at two o'clock for Miss Maude S. Hoyle, bride elect of next week. A big basket tied with pink tulle and filled with pink sweetpeas was in the center of the table. At each place was a bride place card, a pink basket filled with nuts topped by a tiny cupid and a Colonial bouquet of sweetpeas, the honor guest's bouquet larger than the others. At the conclusion of the elaborate seven course luncheon which was served Miss Hoyle was presented a handsome mahogany tray banked with pink sweetpeas and filled with packages containing a dozen pairs of silk hose. Mrs. John A. Porter entertained Friday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock at her home on Louise avenue for Miss Maude S. Hoyle, bride-elect of next week. Daisies and ragged robins were used throughout the house, the daisy motif being further carried out in the hand-painted score cards for the game of progressive forty-two, which was played, and in the buttonholes which were placed on the salad plates which preceded an ice course. Miss Mary Louise Brown won the prize, a silver pencil. Miss Hoyle was presented a bit of lingerie for her trousseau." The younger set enjoyed a delightful party Friday evening when Miss Pauline Johnson entertained at her home on Hayne street. Cream and cake were served. The guests were Misses Marion Lee, Mary Deane Laney, Nora Lee, Rebecca Norwood, Eleanor Armfield, Anna Frances Redfern, Lucy Lee, Berta Allen Houston, Mary Irene Boute, Christine Gordon, Caroline Coble, Elizabeth Lee, Ruth Garren, Margaret Helms, Martha Adams, Fannie Person Rudge, Janie Shannon, Sarah Hudson, Jocelyn Sikes, Mabel Hamilton, Lila Sharp, Mildred Plyler, Hilda Simpson, Lucille Watkins, Mary Austin, Caroline Carson, Rachel and Eleanor Armfield, Messrs. William Morrow, John Wray, Everette English, William Rudge, Garrah Caldwell, Louis Carpenter, Henry Adams, Dwight Plyler, Pete Russell, Bivens Helms, Emmett Griffin, Fred Benton, Roland Beasley, Bill Canon, Henry Browning, Hoyle Griffin, Covington Ashcraft, Francis Taylor, Robert Browning and Worth Plyler. Miss Annie Pearl Gaffney was married to Mr. Louis J. Altire of New York last Saturday afternoon. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride in Harris, Rutherford county, N. C., Rev. John A. Wray officiating. It was a simple but beautiful wedding, only the near relatives and friends being present. Mr. Altire's sister and his best man, Mr. G. D. Dose, both from New York, attended the wedding. The bride and groom left immediately for New York where they will make their home in the future. Mrs. Altire was for several years stenographer for the Heath-Morrow Co., and is known and loved here for her beautiful and kindly spirit and attractive personality.

Miss Maude Sikes, daughter of Mr. Vann Sikes, and Mr. Fred Blanton were married Saturday afternoon in Hendersonville where Miss Sikes was visiting a sister of Mr. Blanton. Mr. and Mrs. Blanton are spending this week in Asheville, after which they will be at home in Columbus, N. C., where Mr. Blanton is cashier of a bank. Mrs. Blanton is a graduate of Coker College, and last year taught very successfully in McColl, S. C. She is an energetic young woman of much character and ability. Mr. Blanton was the first manager of the former Monroe Creamery and is widely known here. He comes from one of Cleveland county's most prominent families.

Mrs. R. F. Kirkpatrick and children of Atlanta are spending some time with Mrs. F. G. Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Kelly and son of Wilmington, N. C., will arrive Wednesday to spend some time with Mr. and Mrs. John Futenwider.

Mrs. E. B. Stack was hostess to the Pleasure Club last Friday evening. A delightful afternoon was spent in playing rook, after which Mrs. Stack assisted by Mrs. Gilmer Joyce and Miss Rebecca Stack served delicious chicken salad, sandwiches and tea.

Miss Beulah Bailey of Keny, N. C., is spending several days with Miss Jo Neal.

Mr. Barney Bishop of Inman, S. C., is the guest of Mr. Bill Canon.

Mrs. Janie Halgler of Waxhaw and Mrs. J. H. Starnes of Rock Hill spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. W. T. McGuirt.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred West are visiting in Atlanta.

Miss Lucile Jeffreys of Greensboro is visiting her cousin, Miss Evelyn Moore. Miss Martha Severt ofakers spent the week end with Miss Katherine Moore.

Dr. R. H. Howell of Atlanta spent Saturday with his sister, Mrs. Raymond Outen. Dr. Howell graduated from Atlanta Dental College last week. Another brother of Mrs. Outen graduated from Tulane University in St. Louis this year.

Miss Ethel Boyte left today for Badiu, where she will have charge of the school there.

Mrs. A. J. Price of Charlotte is visiting her daughter, Mrs. F. H. Wolfe.

Miss Verla May Walters and Miss Nancy Helms left Monday to enroll at the summer school at the State College in Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Gambates of Petersburg, Fla., are the guests of Mrs. C. N. Simpson, Jr.

Mrs. J. E. Clary is visiting in Cornelia, Ga.
