LOCAL INTELLIGENCE

Latest Happenings In and Around Monroe.

The ladies aid society will give an ice cream supper at Hebron church Saturday night.

Elder W. C. Edwards will preach at Union Grove next Sunday at three o'clock.

Mr. H. G. Bass of Marshville township and Miss Lois Davis were married by Rev. E. C. Snyder at his residence in Monroe Sunday afternoon.

The ladies aid society of Stallings will give an ice cream supper at the church Saturday night, Sept. 25th. Everybody cordially invited.

Stockholders of the Peoples Building and Loan Association are requested to meet in the Chamber of Commerce rooms Wednesday evening at 7:30. Important business is to be transacted.

Messrs. Eugene Ashcraft and William Copenhagen, who have the contract for the construction of the cotton platform, hope to have it ready for the reception of cotton within a few days. The platform is said to be one of the best arranged in the state.

Rev. Richard Allen, a colored minister and farmer, was the first man to join the cotton association yesterday. He handed his dollar to Mr. Blakeney before the meeting came to a close, and received a round of applause from the audience.

Mr. Whitton Crowell, the young man who was shot in the Strand Theatre Saturday afternoon, is reported to be rapidly recovering. His injuries, it is said, will not prove fatal unless pneumonia sets in. Mr. E. B. Garwood, who shot him, is out under a $1500 bond.

Miss Lura Heath, in charge of community service work in this county, announces the following appointments for this week: Shiloh, Wednesday; Unionville, Thursday; Prospect, Friday; Faulk's Monday, Sept. 27; and Indian Trail, Tuesday, Sept. 28. The pictures begin promptly at 7:45 p. m.

There will be a public meeting at the Carriger school house next Saturday afternoon at four o'clock. Every man and woman in the district is asked to be present. The purpose of the meeting is to select a school committee and to make arrangements to build. County Superintendent Funderburk will be present and all matters pertaining to district school interests will be discussed.

Johnie aged six, and Mary Elizabeth aged ten, the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jordan who live on the farm of Mr. W. M. Hilton in Lanes Creek township, died Friday afternoon of typhoid fever. There was only three hours difference in the deaths of the two children. They were buried in the same grave Saturday afternoon at Philadelphia church. The service was conducted by Rev. R. M. Haigler. This is a severe loss to the bereaved family who have the sympathy of their friends and neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Melton of Buford township, and their one-year-old baby, had a severe attack of arsenic poisoning, believed to have been caused by eating spoiled or poisoned food, yesterday morning. For a time it was thought that their illness might prove serious, if not fatal, but Dr. G. B. Nance, who was called in, gave them an antidote which successfully counteracted the effects of the poison. Many theories as to the cause of the poisoning were advanced, but the most plausible is that it was caused by fly poisoning dropping on some rice, which Mr. and Mrs. Melton had eaten that morning.

Mr. O. B. Doster, aged 24 years, died at the state sanitarium yesterday morning of tuberculosis, with which he had been suffering for about two years, having contracted the disease while in service overseas during the war. The deceased is a son of the late O. B. Doster of Buford township. He is survived by his mother, who is an inmate of the state hospital, one half brother, and step-father, Mr. Coleman Helms, of Monroe. Mr. Doster was a good soldier. When he entered the service he was the very picture of health, and it is said that he made one of the best examinations of all the drafted men inducted into the army from this county. He was a good citizen, and possessed fine business qualifications. He was a member of the Bethlehem Methodist church, and died in the faith. Mr. Doster was also a loyal member of the Junior order, having held his membership with the Roughedge council. The deceased will be buried with military honors at Bethlehem church tomorrow morning.

SOCIAL

Rev. and Mrs. Hoyle Love, who have been visiting their parents at Unionville, left Friday for Louisville, Ky., where Mr. Love will enter the Baptist Theological Seminary.

Dr. and Mrs. Heath Nisbet of Charlotte were the guests of Misses Adeline and Mary Crow on Sunday.

Mrs. E. M. Griffin delightfully entertained at an informal reception last Friday evening, honoring Mrs. F. F. Shores of Memphis, the guest of Mrs. Joel Griffin. Delicious ice cream and cake were served and an enjoyable evening was spent.

Mr. Frank Lee of Wilson spent the week-end with relatives.

Mr. M. K. Lee and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, spent last week in New York.

One of the most enjoyable social happenings of the past week was the lovely bridge party given by Miss Maude Boyte Saturday afternoon complimentary to Miss Mary B. Flowers of Mooresville, the guest of Miss Frankie Mundy, and Mrs. R. G. Lytton, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Vann Funderburk. Prior to her marriage a few weeks ago Mrs. Lytton was Miss Agnes Council of Lake Waccamaw, and she is one of the season's most charming brides. Mrs. S. J. Helms and Miss Hazel Boyte assisted in serving tempting refreshments consisting of frozen salad with accessories, cream and cake. The guests were: Mrs. Lytton, Miss Flowers, Miss Maud Nixon and guest, Miss Glover, Miss Mary G. Tyson, Miss McIntyre, Misses Pat and Pauline Benton, Mrs. Vann Funderburk, Miss Ollie Alexander, Miss Frankie Mundy and Miss Julia Fitzwater.

Mrs. G. F. Rutzler, Jr., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Long. Mr. Rutzler spent Sunday here.

Misses Rebecca Norwood, Rachel Amyfield, Sarah Presson and Elizabeth Lee leave this week for the State College for Women in Greensboro.

Mrs. Fred Huntley spent Friday and Saturday in Wadesboro with relatives.

Mr. Archie Fairley, who has a position in Albemarle, spent a few days last week with his mother, Mrs. Kitty Fairley.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Post of Baltimore are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Clontz.

Mrs. W. B. Houston, Misses Mollie and Bob Iceman, Elizabeth Hudson, Evelyn Smith and Elizabeth Houston will leave this week for New York city where they have an apartment and will spend the winter. The young ladies will enroll at Columbia University for special work and Mrs. Houston will act as chaperone.

Dr. J. W. Neal is spending a few days with his sons, Drs. Kemp and Paul Neal in Raleigh.

Miss Mary Porter and Mr. Warren Helms were married very quietly last Saturday evening at eight o'clock at the home of the bride, Rev. John W. Moore officiating. Only the intimate friends and immediate family of the bride and groom witnessed the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Pattie Porter and is an educated and cultured young woman. She is handsome and possesses quite an attractive personality. Mr. Helms is the son of Mr. R. L. Helms of the Carmel community and a grand-son of Sheriff John Griffith. He is a capable and energetic young man, Mr. and Mrs. Helms will make their home with Mr. Helms' parents and Mr. Helms will be principal of the Carmel school.

Charles Iceman, Jr., Worth Redwine, Dwight Plyler, Emsey Lane, Earl Hinson and Jo McEwen left Sunday morning to enter the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

In honor of Mrs. Heath Lee, who leaves October the first for her new home, Mrs. Frank Rose and Mrs. Alton Heath entertained with five tables of bridge Saturday afternoon at the lovely bungalow of Mrs. Heath on Church street. The beauty of the home was enhanced by the bright colors of quantities of dahlias, zinnias and golden glow. Mrs. N. M. Redfern won the top score prize, an exquisite bottle of perfume. The guest of honor prize was also a bottle of perfume. After a number of interesting games the hostess served tomatoes stuffed with chicken salad, sandwiches, cheese straws, tea, cream and cake. The guests included Mrs. Lee, Mrs. N. M. Redfern, Miss Ruth Russell, Mrs. G. B. Caldwell, Mrs. John Fairley, Jr., Mrs. Ella Houston, Mrs. W. C. Sanders, Mrs. C. E. Houston, Mrs. John Sikes, Mrs. R. S. Houston, Mrs. R. L. Payne, Mrs. Albert Redfern, Mrs. W. S. Baskerville, Mrs. D. L. Middleton, Mrs. C. M. Redfern, Mrs. Gus Henderson, Miss Mabel Lane, Miss Ruth Green and Miss Adeline Crow.

Mrs. Charles Iceman charmingly entertained her Sunday school class of the Central Methodist church and a number of invited guests at an old fashioned tucky party last Friday evening. Every phase of the party was most enjoyable, though the most interesting feature to the little
