SOCIAL

The engagement of Miss Carson Yates to Mr. Grier Hudson was announced Tuesday afternoon at a beautiful party given by Mrs. Wriston Lee. After the guests enjoyed several games of bridge they were invited into the dining room where they were met by Miss Yates. Of the attractive brunette type, she was more beautiful than usual, wearing a peach colored taffeta with picture hat and carrying an armful of pink roses. The elegantly appointed table was centered with a bowl of golden rod. A delicious four course luncheon was served. The announcement appeared with the dessert in the form of tiny cards attached to angel cake with a tiny bow and arrow. On each was written "C. Y.—G. H.—Oct. 27." The guests were: Miss Yates, Mrs. J. W. Yates, Miss Wilma Green, Miss Julia Fitzwater, Miss Pauline Benton, Miss Mabel Shannon, Mrs. G. S. Pruitt, Mrs. W. H. Crow, Mrs. N. M. Redfern and Miss Claudia Sanders. The bride-elect is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Yates, and is a most charming young woman. She is a talented musician, having received her training at the State College. Mr. Hudson is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hudson. He is a most polished gentleman and a fine business man, being a member of the firm of Hudson-Belk Co. of Raleigh. The wedding of this popular young couple is of unusual interest to Monroe people, as both have many friends here and over the state.

Mrs. Heath Lee, who leaves this week for Danville, Va., was the honoree guest at one of the loveliest social events of the fall given Wednesday afternoon by Misses Mary and Adeline Crow. The spacious home, just west of Monroe, was never more attractive than on this occasion. Twenty tables were used for rook and bridge, a bowl of bright colored dahlias being placed on each. The honoree was presented a handsome embroidered bridge set, while Mrs. N. M. Redfern, making the top score in bridge, received a deck of cards. The highest rook score was made by Mrs. W. C. Crowell and she received a hand-painted measuring tape. In a general cut Mrs. V. D. Sikes won the consolation prize, an attractive single light shade. Creamed mints, frozen salad, rolled pimento sandwiches, wafers and tea were served by the hostesses.

Elizabeth Miller Caldwell, the charming little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Caldwell, entertained a number of friends Thursday afternoon at a moving picture party in celebration of her eleventh birthday. After the show refreshments were served at Simpson's, each guest receiving a box containing eleven mints, as a favor. The hostess was presented attractive gifts by the following little friends: Mary Myers Faulkner, Margaret Henderson, Sarah Faulkner, Frances Greene, Eleanor Stevens, Virginia Reid Baskerville, Freda McRorie, Jane Sikes, Martha Ruth Kendall, Helen Douglass, Annie L. Caldwell, Virginia Laney, Laura and Lydia Stewart.

Miss Connie Medlin left last night for Baltimore where she will enter the Peabody conservatory.

The Chautauqua Circle held the first meeting of the season Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. B. Love. Mrs. John W. Moore was elected president for the incoming year and Mrs.

E. C. Ingram was chosen secretary. The club will study the regular chautauqua program with citizenship as a side line. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Miss Guerdin Stack left yesterday morning for Baltimore to enter Peabody conservatory. She spent yesterday in Raleigh with her brother, Mr. Morehead Stack, a student at A. & E.

Mrs. J. J. Parker delightfully entertained the Tuesday Afternoon Pleasure Club with her sister, Miss Sarah Maffitt of Wilmington, as honor guest. Rook was played, and a tempting salad course with tea and sandwiches was served.

Mrs. E. W. Crow is spending several days with relatives in Mocksville.

Misses Ada Crowell and Kate Morris left on the 28th inst. for Greenville where they will enter school.

Misses Jean and Pat Ashcraft left Wednesday for New York city where Miss Pat Ashcraft will enter Columbia University. Miss Jean Ashcraft will spend two weeks in the city.
