Mrs. W. A. Lane requests all the workers in the woman's department of the Red Cross, both in town and country, to meet Thursday to take part in the Armistice day parade.

Mrs. Albert Redfern entertained Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Clyde Skidmore of Albemarle and Mrs. Robert Lawrence of Charlotte. Bridge was played at two tables. A delicious fruit salad with sweet toast and sandwiches was served with tea.

One of the most charming affairs of the autumn was the rook party given by Mrs. B. C. Redfern and Mrs. Craven Gordon on last Friday morning and afternoon at the beautiful suburban home of Mrs. Gordon. Delicious fruit salad, iced nuts, sandwiches and coffee were served.

Sociosis was delightfully entertained last Friday afternoon by Mrs. W. A. Lane at her lovely home on Washington st. Current events opened the program followed by a very fine paper by Mrs. J. D. Warren on "Progress in Democracy and Government." This called forth quite a breezy discussion among the members and visitors on "Constructive Ventures in Government," which is the subject the club will study this winter. Mrs. B. C. Ashcraft read an instructive and interesting article on "The New Citizenship." A very sweet and touching note from Mrs. D. A. Houston was read thanking the club for flowers sent during her illness in a hospital in Charlotte. She has been greatly missed and her many friends are happy to know she has returned home much improved in health. The club is glad to welcome Mrs. A. M. Stack into their circle as a new member. Visitors for the afternoon were Mesdames E. C. Williams of San Antonio, Texas, and W. J. Hoylin of Nashville, Tenn., aunt of the hostess. A delicious salad course with hot coffee and California cake, was served by Miss Ache Atkinson Lane.

Mrs. P. H. Haynes of Henrietta is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. E. C. Carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Dougett and Mr. Perry H. Wiseman of Charlotte spent Sunday with Mrs. E. C. Carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. Grier Hudson have returned from their bridal trip to New York and are spending a few days here with relatives before going to their home in Raleigh.

The Merry Girl and the Parson.
Edith was light-hearted and merry over everything. Nothing appealed to her seriously. So one day her mother decided to invite a very serious young parson to dinner and he was placed next to the light-hearted girl. The Canadian Magazine relates that everything went well until she asked him: "You speak of everyone having a mission. What is yours?"

"My mission," said the parson, "is to save young men." "Good!" replied the girl. "I'm glad to meet you. I wish you'd save one for me."

"I despaired of my life when I felt my engine leaving the track," declared Engineer Sam Howie to The Journal yesterday afternoon, in speaking of his miraculous escape from death when his engine turned over after splitting a switch near Apex early Saturday morning, "and in a brief second it seemed that all of the events of my life passed through my mind. Then I lost consciousness. When I came to I found myself lying under my engine, but still it did not cross my mind that I was uninjured. I lifted my right foot. It seemed perfectly sound. Then I felt of my arms, still no pain. Escaping steam was clouding the air, and I came to the realization that unless I got out from under the debris I would be scalded to death. I stood upright, pushed my way through, and stood upon the ground with hardly a scratch." Mr. Howie attributes his escape to the steel cab, and the fact that the coaches fell in an opposite direction. Had he been riding in a wooden cab he is of the opinion that he would literally have been crushed to death, as the rear of the cab was struck with such force, evidently having been glanced by one of the passing coaches, that some of the bolts on the outside frame were knocked loose.

Oui, Oui Johnson.
Private Johnson was on lonely outpost duty in the danger zone. To him came Lieutenant Jones, officer of the day.

The general and special orders were duly recited.

"Suppose now, Johnson, that a squad of Germans were to emerge suddenly from that clump of bushes and advance toward you. What would you do?"

"Well, sir, Ah would snap to tension and fo'm a line."

"Form a line?" One man form a line?"

"Yas, sah. A bee-line for camp, sah."

EVERY HOME A HOSPITAL.

With 25,000 active cases of tuberculosis in North Carolina and only 662 sanatorium beds including public and private for both white and colored, many victims of the White Plague must be cared for at home.

The tuberculosis nurse converts the home into a hospital, showing the patient how to care for himself and the family how to ward off the disease. We need more tuberculosis nurses. Tuberculosis Christmas Seals furnish the means to get them.
