JESSE L. LASKY Presents
Wallace Reid
 —in—
"What's Your Hurry?"
 With Lovely LOIS WILSON.

For the sake of a girl whose dad despised racers, he "swore off" speed cars and went to boosting trucks. Only to get himself and Dad arrested!

But when the great Cabrillo dam broke—you'll say the trucks and "Dusty" did a real day's work!

A STORY THAT GOES LIKE BLUE BLAZES!

SOCIAL

Mrs. C. D. Meacham left today to visit friends in Union, S. C.

Mrs. George Heath was hostess at a delightful bridge and rook party Thursday afternoon complimentary to her sister, Mrs. Sapp of Columbia. The home was beautiful with its quantities of roses and handsome bridge covers. The top score in bridge was made by Mrs. Frank Rose and she received a deck of cards. Mrs. B. C. Redfern made the highest rook score and was presented a pack of rook cards. The honor prize was an exquisite cut glass vase. Mrs. W. J. Heath and Mrs. B. C. Redfern assisted the hostess in serving chicken salad, sandwiches, tomato jelly, coffee and wafers. The guests were Mrs. Frank Rose, Mrs. Alice Heath, Mrs. J. D. Warren, Mrs. W. J. Heath, Mrs. Albert Redfern and sister, Mrs. Robert Lawrence of Charlotte, Mrs. B. C. Redfern, Mrs. Fred Huntley, Mrs. Ernest Heath, Miss Louise Morrow, Mrs. Ella Houston, and Mrs. J. F. Laney.

Mrs. A. L. Monroe and Miss Mabel Beik are attending the state meeting of the D. A. R. in Tarboro this week.

Mr. T. T. Capehart has returned from an extended visit to his mother in Kittrell.

Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Parker are spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. John Parker, en route home from their bridal trip. Before her marriage last week Mrs. Parker was Miss Mary Lou Morris of Concord. Mr. and Mrs. Parker will make their home in Greensboro.

Mrs. Sapp returned to her home in Columbia today after a visit to her sister, Mrs. George Heath. She was accompanied home by Mrs. Heath and children.

Miss Hattie Beik left yesterday afternoon for Bartow, Fla., to spend the winter with her friend, Mrs. Mattie Pylon Alderman.

Hotel Joffre was the scene of an attractive party yesterday afternoon when Mrs. D. L. Middleton entertained in honor of her guest, Mrs. R. L. Steele, Jr., of Rocky Mount and Mrs. J. B. Greene of Kingston, the guest of Mrs. L. H. Brown. Bowls of narcissus were placed on the four tables arranged for bridge. The guests of honor and Mrs. W. C. Sanders, who made the highest score, were presented beautiful boxes of stationery. A delicious salad with brown bread sandwiches, coffee and cream mints were served.

Chautauque Circle held a most interesting meeting Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. B. Adams. Italian history during the reign of the Doges was the topic for the afternoon's study and all the members took part in the lively discussion. Chicken salad, sandwiches, coffee and divinity fudge were served by Misses Martha Adams and Florence Redwine. Miss Pat Adams was a pleasant visitor.

Mrs. O. M. Sanders underwent an operation in a Charlotte hospital and is recovering nicely.

Horace Fowler, young son of Mr. J. W. Fowler, is recovering from an operation for appendicitis. He is in the Charlotte Sanatorium.

The many friends of Mrs. Jas. H. Lee, who has been dangerously ill the past week, will be glad to know her condition is somewhat improved.

The U. D. C. had a most delightful and worth while meeting at the spacious suburban home of Mrs. R. B. Redwine Thursday afternoon. The meeting was opened with prayer, then Mrs. J. C. Sikes gave some interesting sketches of social life in the Old South as described by Thomas Nelson Page. These incidents brought on a lively round table discussion. Mrs. Walter Crowell gave a sketch of Sumner A. Cunningham, the founder of The Confederate Veteran. Several appropriate songs were beautifully rendered by Mrs. Frank Laney. A shower was given by the U. D. C. members for the Old Ladies' Home at Fayetteville on this occasion. A nice sum of money was received besides towels, pillow slips, stockings, collars, knitted shawls, handkerchiefs, bureau scarfs, and much canned goods. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. W. C. Heath and Mrs. E. W. Crow, served hot chocolate, wafers, cake and candies to Mesdames L. D. Andrews, J. E. Ashcraft, F. B. Ashcraft, Charles Iccuan, T. P. Dillon, C. E. Laney, A. F. Tiddy, Horace Clark, Ed Neal, S. H. Hudson, C. H. Weaver, Irene Austin, Robt. Hargett, John McGill, J. A. Stewart, D. B. Snyder, J. F. Laney, C. C. Stokes, Walter Crowell, S. G. Hawfield, J. C. Sikes, Hayne Johnson, and Miss Mary Blair.—U. D. C. reporter.
