SOCIAL

The dance given yesterday evening in the big hall over Mr. S. B. Hart's store in honor of the boys and girls home from college was a festive occasion, said by many to have been the most enjoyable dance ever held in Monroe. Music was furnished by Garber-Davis orchestra. The hall was profusely decorated with holiday colors, and vari-colored confetti covered the floor. Dancing began at nine o'clock and continued until two a. m. Punch and sandwiches were served during the intermissions. Among those dancing were: Miss Beatrice Fairley and Mr. Walter Ayers; Miss Dorothy Lee and Mr. Worth Redwine; Miss Lenora Bowie and Mr. Carlisle Williams; Miss Wilma Green and Mr. Fitz Henry Dillon; Miss Mary Dean Laney and Mr. John Redwine; Miss Octavia Houston and Mr. Sam Lee; Miss Cornelia Wearin and Mr. Raeford Laney; Miss Mary Irene

THEY'RE BOTH "WALLY" REID

One, a son of fortune - snatched by his double - returned to find the usurper claiming his name, his wealth and the girl he loved.

The other, the guilty crook - accepted by the world as the man he'd put out of the way - determined to hold his place at all costs. See them struggle with wits and brawn to prove who is who! In a romance that beats with red blood and excitement.

Mountain Apples

Will be back at the old stand after New Year's with a carload of Raegans, Staymens, Yancies and Yellow Spitz. Couldn't size the trade before Christmas; ran out of Apples December 22nd. Plenty more back home to supply trade until April 1st. Thanking the good people of Monroe and Union county for their trade, I am Very respectfully Dr. J. B. EWING.

Our Thanks To You

Your loyal support the past year has been a matter of gratification and pride to us. That you may know that we appreciate it to the fullest extent, we take this means of extending to you our warmest thanks, and the hope that 1921 will see you both happy and prosperous.
