WEDNESDAY

Jesse L. Lasky presents Thomas Meighan in "The Easy Road"

The sparkle of life—and the dregs! The top and bottom. Between them—the Easy Road!

The romance of a poor genius who married a rich heiress. And learned through ease and folly what it is that makes life worth while.

A love journey that starts on the path of pleasure and ends on the way to happiness.

with LILA LEE and GLADYS GEORGE.

Mrs. J. C. Burroughs of Rockingham will return home this evening after spending several days with her sister, Mrs. V. C. Davis.

Miss Katherine Kyle Redfern was a charming hostess to about thirty-five of her young friends last Friday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Redfern. The evening was delightfully spent in playing bridge and in dancing. Misses Mary Deane Laney and Fannie Person Rudge furnished music for the dancers. Miss Anna Mae Redfern, assisted by Misses Johnnie Belk, Ashe Lane and Annie Louise Caldwell served punch, black cream and cake.

Mrs. C. A. Loftin and children have returned to their home in Savannah after visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Secrest.

Miss Ivah Ratliff spent the weekend with Mrs. Leroy Smith in Charlotte.

Of particular interest to Monroe people is the wedding of Miss Mattie Moye Adams to Mr. Sam Lee which takes place tomorrow evening in the First Baptist church of Durham. Mr. Lee, Mrs. W. C. Stack, Mr. Robert Lee and Mr. Fitzhenry Dillon left yesterday for Durham. Other Monroe people who will attend the wedding are Mrs. T. C. Lee, Miss Mildred Lee, Mrs. E. C. Ingram, Messrs. Albert Lee of Chapel Hill, Amos Stack and Fred Smith, Misses Virginia and Dorothy Lee. Acting as groomsmen will be Messrs. Fitzhenry Dillon, Robert Lee, Tom Lee, Frank Redfern and Archie Fairley. The wedding music will be played by Mr. Ed Lee of Boston, brother of the groom.

Mrs. A. L. Pitman and Mrs. W. N. Copeman and baby of Los Angeles, Cal., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred West.

The following from Friday's Wilmington Star is of interest to Monroe people: "A lovely home wedding was solemnized last evening at 6 o'clock at the home of Mrs. John L. Maffitt when her youngest daughter, Miss Sarah Maffitt, became the bride of Jas. A. Lockhart of Charlotte. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. M. Blackford, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church. The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. J. L. Moffitt, and was attended by her two nieces, Miss Gladys Armstrong as maid of honor, and little Miss Sara Parker of Monroe, as bridesmaid, the bridegroom having as his best man Frank Dunlap of Wadesboro. Miss Armstrong wore a gown of orchid taffeta with silver slippers and stockings and carried pink Ophelia roses. The little bridesmaid was dressed in pink taffeta and her bouquet was likewise of pink Ophelia roses. The bride's gown of white satin was trimmed with Chantilly lace and her veil was caught with orange blossoms. Bride's roses and lilies of the valley formed her shower bouquet. Immediately after the ceremony a small reception was held for the family and most intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Lockhart left on the evening train for New York where they will spend two weeks. The bride's traveling costume was a dark blue tricotone suit with accessories of brown. She wore a corsage of Bride's roses and pink sweet peas. After the honeymoon in New York, Mr. and Mrs. Lockhart will be at home in Charlotte."

The Booklovers club held a delightful meeting Friday afternoon with Mrs. A. L. Monroe. A short business session was held, this being the regular time for election of officers. Mrs. A. L. Monroe was elected president. Mrs. F. G. Henderson reported. Four new members were added, Messdames J. V. Henderson, C. H. Hasty, Victor Hamilton, Geo. Heath. Punch was served in the hall by Mrs. W. Z. Faulkner and Miss Lil Stack. Guests besides club members were: Messdames C. C. Stokes, G. M. Beasley, W. C. Crowell, T. C. Horton, R. W. Horton, G. L. Nisbet, T. T. Capehart, Julian Griffin, W. W. Horn, Rosece Phifer, S. L. Rutter, Oscar Shelly, May Meacham, W. Z. Faulkner and J. V. Henderson. The hostess served a delicious salad course followed by home-made candies.

Last Friday morning Mrs. A. L. Monroe entertained the following friends at bridge: Messdames Mike Hudson, J. C. Daughtridge of Rocky Mount, J. C. Sikes, V. D. Sikes, E. S. Greene, Charles Ieman, D. L. Middleton, C. M. Redfern, John Fairley, Jr., Ella Houston, Frank Rose, J. A. Stewart, Gilmer Joyce, C. E. Houston, George Heath, F. G. Henderson, Minnie Wolfe, Herndon Hasty, Misses Mary Crow, Daisy Belk and guest, Miss Ruth Mason of Gastonia, Mabel Belk, Lil Stack, and Louise Morrow. Messdames J. V. Henderson, W. S. Baskerville and Miss Lil Stack served hot tea as the guests entered, and later a delicious salad course, consisting of marguerites, fruit salad, sandwiches, wafers, iced tea, angel cake and strawberry cream and home-made candies were served.

Miss Ruth Mason has returned to her home in Gastonia after a visit to Miss Daisy Belk.

The U. D. C. chapter will meet Thursday afternoon at four o'clock with Mrs. W. S. Lee.

Card of Thanks.
 We wish to express our gratefulness to our many neighbors and friends who stood so near us with helpful hands and loving hearts through the sickness and death of our little son, Robert Vernon. Everything was done that could be done to prolong his life but God saw fit to take him unto Himself. We trust that God will keep your dear, dear ones well and very near to you. We thank you, Mr. and Mrs. O. V. McGee.

Mr. Clyde Richardson returned Saturday from Palm Beach, Fla., where he has been for some time.
