THE MONROE JOURNAL

PUBLISHED TWICE EACH WEEK - TUESDAY AND FRIDA

Twenty-Ninth Year. No. 17.

Monroe, N. C., Tuesday, April 4, 1922

$2.00 Per Year Cash

MARSHVILLE TOWN KILLED A BIG ONE LAST SATURDAY

"Two-in-One" Gave the Town a Full Day That Seemed to Satisfy All Parties Concerned

DOLLAR AND CONTEST DAY BOTH AT THE SAME TIME

the town a humming and from early morning till after dark all places of business were live and stirring. The way cars were parked at some of our stores indicated "something doing." In fact, all say they were scarcely prepard for serving so many, alprepard for serving so many, al-though extra help was engaged. The bautiful day too made people feel good, so we think everybody was sat-isfied, and know, also, that all went home feeling that Marshville is a good place to trade. Let Monroe and by John Ashcraft, senior essay by Louise Parke of Union school. Junior essay, Ellis Marsh, Marshville. Junior short story, Selma Stegall, Marsh-ville. Oral story, Clay Bass, Marsh-ville, Spelling, Gladys Long, Faulks. athletics were gotten off later in the day. Those winning here Saturday will contest at the finals of county commencement in Monroe April 10th. tion to cross the road. On the whole everybody was ready for a day of rest and let us hope all made use of it in that way and not in raising a dust all over the county. Commencment at Weddington Indus-term has been shortened by almost one month and the need of time for

Tuesday evening, April 11, at 8 p. m., exercises by graduating class. Wednesday evening, April 12, Judge—"It seems t ay, "All a Mistake," by Wedding- have seen you before." ton Dramatic Art Club.

Mr. W. M. Gordon is in Philadel- sons." phia looking after the interests of his insurance business.

From That College

The Wake Forest Glee Club will appear in the school auditorium, April 15th, under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society. Of the organiza-tion the college paper, Old Gold and olina.

Mr. W. O. Harrell has been at home with cold for some days.

Mr. T. R. Price of Albemarle spent last Wednesday here, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Hallman.

You've heard the saying "It's good for sore eyes." Well if you have that article now send it over the land.

Sore cyes with colds seems to be heard from in many directions. It's "in-flu" (flew).

Mrs. Jas. Marsh and children, J. W. Jr. and little Edith, have been confined to the house the past week with colds.

Mrs. Jas. Marsh and children, J. W. Jr. and little Edith, have been confined to the house the past week with colds. popular airs.

Among the many visitors in our town Saturday, we were glad to see some of our former townsfolk, viz.: Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Huggins and Mrs. M. K. Lee; also others of Monroe, namely, Mesdames Tom Lee, Dr. Ashcraft, Ingram and Fred Williams. Mrs. T. E. Sinclair, together with several others from Hamlet, spent Saturday in Marshville shopping.

The Wednesday afternoon book club met with and was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Ed M. Marsh last Wednesday. Punch was served by Mrs. Edwards from a nicely arranged stair landing. Two unique contests were given, one a work bas-

The report is that Mr. Bivens is The report is that Mr. Bivens is singer knows we missed him there-charged with posting on the Griffin missed his voice from amongst the Drug Company's - window on the choir. Mr. W. B. Love lead off in his morning of the election in the fall of 1920 a poster bearing the picture of Mr. Harding along side of negroes, claiming that Mr. Harding had negro blood in him.

Last week a post office inspector went to Marshville and made investigations as to the charge. Dr. D. R. Perkins made affidavit that he saw and Margie Marsh respectively. Bivens has made a most excellent just as sure as you are alive, there Marshville also won in the singing postmaster. He is an ex-service boy is coming a time to try us and it contest, senior short story was won and they expect to fight the matter out to the bitter end.

> Queer Scene Pictured in "Three Live Ghosts'

ville, Spelling, Gladys Long, Faulks. agitated the busiest thoroughfare of isn't busy with his office duties or land farmers, who expect splendid Debate, Brice Parker, Union. Recit. London when a burley policeman held with some school problem that calls yields this year if the crop makes of an aristocratic-looking gentleman, is wanting to see him. A teacher rate. There was some difficulty last out with the promise of fair, warm the latest thing in the latest thing. That is the verdict of all farmers, who expect splendid the busiest thoroughfare of isn't busy with his office duties or all farmers, who expect splendid the property of the crop makes of the crop makes and the property of the crop makes of the crop makes are the bits in his mouth and come the promise of fair, warm the property of the property of the crop makes of the crop makes are the bits in his mouth and come of the promise of fair, warm the property of the proper latest thing in expensive baby-car- of a report blank, or some difficulty riages, to which was attached a sheep has arisen in her school that calls for

At the same moment two cameras consolidation of a certain district but in many fields a fair stand has which had been taking a record of and demands that he be given back come up again during the early this unusual scene from the inside of his one-room school house. It is spring. A good deal of clover is a covered motor lorry ceased to grind, difficult to get an interview with also being sown this spring."

Sweet Revenge Judge-"It seems to me that I

Prisoner-"You have, you honor;

York Evening Mail.

MONROE IS IN THE TOUR OF WAKE FOREST GLEE CLUB "The Call of the Wild" Appealed Will Be Here the 15th With Best to Many Monroe People Sunday

Mrs. Hargett Remembers Well That Powerful Sermon by Bishop Morrison, Which Was Called to Mind by Dr. Weaver's Discourse in Central Church Last Sunday

BOTH AT THE SAME TIME
Monroe and Stouts Must Watch Their
Steps for Neighbor Marshville Is Looking at Us

The reciters' preliminary contest of the Marshville high school was held last Tuesday evening, ten entering the contest. While all did well, the judges gave the decision of the best four to Misses Estelle Staten, Virginia Griffin, Sarah Blair and Kathleen Bailey.

The public school music class, under the direction of Mrs. Fred Ashcraft, gave an entertainment Priday night which was very much enjoyed. Mrs. C. B. Covington has been right sick the past week.

Mr. W. O. Harrell has been at For the past ten years Dr. Hubert

Ladies Aid Society. Of the organization the original and ton the college paper, Old Gold and Black, has this to say:

With probably the best literary with the most talented personnel that has possessed in recent years, and with the most talented personnel that has possessed the club lately preparations to capture Jerusus sun swinging each day from the tons are being made for the ten engagements that Manager Clyde P. Harris, Jr., has scheduled for the spring trip.

According to the customary habit the troupe of music makers representing twice. As a knew very where, the birds sing all the day on a did the fence, you this feeling more than to have slaught. He alluded to General Allows sun swinging each day from the could not overcome one million of the Southern Cross—pass the could not overcome one million that Manager Clyde P. Harris, Jr., has scheduled for the spring trip.

According to the customary habit the troupe of music makers representing the contest. While all did well, the judges gave the decision of the best four to Misses Estelle Staten, Virginia Griffin, Sarah Blair and Kathleen Bailey.

According to the customary habit the southern Cross—pass the could not overcome one million to the well-spring come back. We see the glori-come back. We see the glori-come back. We see the glori-come back and of the Southern Cross—pass the could not overcome one of the barria did the fence, you to t all of our departments, and could have reached several hundrd more, had not "The call of the wild" appealed to so many as they inhaled the sweet brezzes coming from budding woods chub met with and was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Ed M. Marsh last Wednesday. Punch was served by Mrs. Edwards from a nicely arranged stair landing. Two unique contests were given, one a work basket guess of articles contained therein. The other, the making of little Easter bonnets, or hats (men, sit up and take notice). Afterwards a salad course with tea and mints was served. March left us in true style, and were noticed the old saying about the lion, etc., you know. After all of its forenoon bluster it seemed at the last to reach out and coolly touch the hand of April, and then—another rousing rand more gusts, as if lothe to let; contained the many corners. Mr. Ed Lee the let was time of jokes and frolics. But Marshville scarcely had time for jokes and frolics. But Marshville scarcely had time for jokes and frolics. But Marshville scarcely had time for jokes and frolics. But Marshville scarcely had time for jokes on this occasion, as it was Dollar Day here and we all know the magic of that. This time it again set price in the wind" appealed to so many as they inhaled the sweet by many as they inhaled the sweet by medies and foolish it was tow needless and foolish twas tow needless and foolish it was tow needless and foolish twas tow needless and foolish twas tow needless and foolish it was tow needless and foolish twas tow needless and foolish twas tow needless and foolish twas tow needless and foolish was tow needless and foolish was tow needless and foolish was tower valleys.

The Men's Wesley Bible Class at the sweet the happy ones. Parents are filled and flounced as they walk high-heeled those, ribbon bedecked hair, and all or tricks on this occasion, as it was a soft sweet thrill in every it went at all to an expert.

Dollar Day here and we all know the tration and his commission will export tains a soft sweet thrill in every it went at all to an expert.

This time it again set pire in the winter or spring of 1924. usual style with the day's lesson. Such a fine subject he had to deal with-Asa destroying the idols of his forefathers. He said more men are ru ned in boyhood than any other time, but no man ever fails who starts out right. As a knew this and set out to lead these people back to God. They had rested from war ten years, stouts and so on do the right things, Postmaster Bivens had nothing to be twenty, at least, with it. It is understood that others for we are right in their wake.

Another thing that added to the who saw the circular posted will interest and crowds of the day was make similar affidavits. "Fighting interest and crowds of the day was make similar affidavits. "Fighting the preliminaries for the county com-Bill." Hammer, congressman from the preliminaries for the county com-Bill." Hammer, congressman from this district, is being furnished plengagement contests of the various this district, is being furnished plengagement contests of the various this district, is being furnished plengagement contests of the various this district, is being furnished plengagement contests of the various this district, is being furnished plengagement contests of the various this district, is being furnished plengagement contests of the various this district, is being furnished plengagement contests of the various this district, is being furnished plengagement contests of the various this district, is being furnished plengagement contests of the various this district, is being furnished plengagement contests of the various this district, is being furnished plengagement contests of the various this district, is being furnished plengagement contests of the various this district, is being furnished plengagement contests of the various this district, is being furnished plengagement contests of the various this district, is being furnished plengagement contests of the various this district, is being furnished plengagement contests of the various this district, is being furnished plengagement contests of the various this district. It is understood that others the enemy would for the enemy would to be twenty, at least, which is to be twenty, at least

Mr. Funderburk Keeps Busy

Mr. Ray Funderburk, county superintendent of schools, is one of the A wave of excitement recently busiest men in Monroe. When he looked finer. That is the verdict of which showed an obvious disinclinahis attention. And about the time rains came in time in the fall to gist of Charlotte, hope is entertained tion to cross the road.

Absorbed and quite unperturbed by teachers, a patron comes in with one weather before Christmas caused it mer. And then, too, farmers are the amazement caused by his un-complaint or another. One wants a to root well and spread over the casting about in search of old plow heralded arrival, the gentleman steer-school house built, while another is ground. Everywhere in the county gear that has been laid away during ed his charge to the opposite side after getting his district consolidated now the fields are a green blanket the winter months, and plow stocks walk, and by the time the crowd had with some other district. And about and some of the wheat is about to and harrows are being gotten ready recovered from its astonishment, had the time he goes out incomes another the jointing stage. Drought last year apparently vanished into thin air. | fellow who isn't satisfied with the killed out much of the red clover class work, no elaborate preparation and George Fitzmaurice, famous Parintendent of schools because in the way of programs has been amount producer congratulated himof the thousands of details he must made for the closing exercises of weddington Industrial Institute. Institute. However, the following exercises "shot."

The superintendent of schools because the superintendent of schools because amount producer congratulated himof the superintendent of schools because the superintendent of schools because amount producer congratulated himof the superintendent of schools because the superintendent of schools because the superintendent of schools because amount producer congratulated himof the superintendent of schools because the superintendent of the superintendent of the superintendent of schools because the superintendent of schools because the superintendent of the super

> I taught your daughter singing les- has a beautiful field of the old time voters under mule by the field.

Solomon came to disaster and woe,

Riches Do Not Satisfy

Solomon and His Glory

Follies of Life

and how vain are all human calculations that are nothing but frills, and the engineer that the onion flavor Carrie Underwood, Wesley Chapel. God left out. Solomon was not happy is the thing to fight in preparing in all his glory, and this is an age of extravagance. The pastor's heart seemed crushed, and overflowing with anxiety and sorrow for the things he saw going wrong. The writer once saw a photo of the Titantic, unsatisfied. Everybody is expected to be at church April 30th. Don't forget.

Wheat Never Looked Finer

The Lexington Dispatch says that the crop, but despite this a goodly acreage was sown in the county. The tions of G. S. Lindgren, meteorologround. Everywhere in the county gear that has been laid away during

In this Davidson county has nothing on Union, except perhaps in an amount of wheat sown, Davidson be-rough test this year. He has about Saturday, April 15th. Miss Alexantwenty-five acres planted in that der is a lawyer and is head of the little clover that Mr. J. T. W. Broom League of Women Voters in North believes is the best soil builder known to agriculturalists. Mr. Rushing also and will talk on the duties of woman the suffrage amendred-top clover that looks so tempting ment. She will doubtless tell the sis-Judge - "Thirty years." - New that it is difficult to get a horse or ters something interesting and worth while.

DR. C. L. JACKSON

Dr. Weaver, in his pulpit, surrounded by bowls and baskets of white lillies, hyacynths tulips, and red amarillis, took for his subject, "Solomon in his glory." How well we remember when this church was first opened to preach in. Bishop Morrison was invited to preach the first sermon. He took this text, with Christ's other sayings, concerning the THE HAWN ICE CREAM CO. INSTALLS NEW MACHINERY and image it is this that builds us up, but not so, it's the sunshine and the flowers, Oh, the flowers!

Capacity of Plant Greatly Increased by the Installation of Most Modern Equipment

Everybody Caught Spring Fever
Everybody caught this feeling Sunday, in Monroe, and the call of Central church's pastor to the Sunday school pupils to be present every one, and see to it that Tryon Street's boast, in Charlotte, should not be fulfilled. That boast was to beat us in numbers on this day, but as usual they failed. Reinforcements were in all of our departments, and could have first sermon. He took this text, with Christ's other sayings, concerning the fowls of the air, and the lillies of the field. How he made us feel that we could almost see the early birds flying across fields in search of food; and the very aroma of the God-protected lilies seemed to invade that day the house of the Lord, so warmly and enthusiastically did he place these fowls and lilies before us, to show how the fulfilled. That boast was to beat us in numbers on this day, but as usual they failed. Reinforcements were in all of our departments, and could have

Follies of Life

Follies of Life

Mr. G. M. Waldier, engineer from the Standard Mill Machinery Company of Louisville, Ky., today completed the installation of new and up-to-date machinery for the Hawn to compete with the most up-to-date machinery in the standard Mill Machinery Company of Louisville, Ky., today completed the installation of new and up-to-date machinery for the Hawn to compete with the most up-to-date machinery in the Standard Mill Machinery Company of Louisville, Ky., today completed the installation of new and up-to-date machinery for the Hawn to company of this city, which puts this company in position to compete with the most up-to-date machinery is the best that can be secured and the approximate capacity of the plant is 1000 gallons pasteurized. secured and the approximate capa-city of the plant is 1000 gallons ice cream, 500 gallons pasteurized milk, 1000 pounds butter, 500 gal-lons butter milk and 200 gallons The pastor today went on to show how needless and foolish it was to Union and they are admitted to be the best obtainable. With the present equipment this company is prepared to take care of large amounts of cream and it should be delivered every other day in order that it has be used with the present and it should be delivered by used with the present and it should be delivered by used with the present and it should be delivered by used with the present and they are admitted to be used with the present and they are admitted to be particularly brings.

Senior Recitation

Alice May Craig, Mineral Springs; Dixie Hunnicutt, Unionville; Carrie Trull, Rock Rest; Margie Marsh, Marshville; No report from Prospect be used with the present and the prese be used while in the proper condition. The cream is pasteurized, sterilized, clearified and purified with the most modern machinery and is Carrie Underwood, Wesley Chapel; absolutely pure. It is pointed out by Louise Parker, Union (Lanes Creek); cream for sale to creameries. He states that farmers who sell cream should taste the milk after milking each cow and allow none infected with onions to be sold. In this way a demand for dairy products may be churned in a large churn with temperature suited to the proper making of butter on days of the various temperatures. Every care possible is used in washing and working the butter and everything is done in the most sanitary manner. Mr. Waldier states that everybody ought to know just what pasteurization of dairy products means. They should see the amount of dirt and bacteria and germs that this new machinery takes from the products of the factory. He believes that any eighth grade student would be convinced that all dairy products, such as sweet milk, butter milk, butter, crop is yet safe and with the predicgist of Charlotte, hope is entertained for the beginning of another crop, and the promise of fair weather is good news to the folks who produce food and feed for the world. The boll weevil is a new force they must mit and the late rains threatened to will be given:

Saturday evening, April 8, at 8 p.m., concert by musical department.

Monday evening, April 10, at 8 p. m., operetta, "Midsummer Eve," and play, "Yankee Doxile," by public school department.

Truesday evening, and the agreement of "Spoofy" in picture which will be shown at the Dixie," by public school department.

Truesday evening, April 10, at 8 p. m., operetta, "Midsummer Eve," and play, "Yankee Doxile," by public school department.

Truesday evening, April 10, at 8 p. m., operetta, "Midsummer Eve," and play, "Yankee Doxile school department.

Truesday evening, April 10, at 8 p. m., operetta, "Midsummer Eve," and play, "Yankee Doxile school department.

Truesday evening, April 10, at 8 p. m., operetta, "Midsummer Eve," and play provided better in thusiasm in regard to the school ton county. It never looked better in work and he appears to enjoy his efforts in getting the educational system of the county on a high plane.

Mr. C. E. Rushing of Lanes Creek berg will add and not much of a cotton county. It never looked better in work and he appears to enjoy his efforts in getting the educational system of the county on a high plane.

Mr. Rushing's Clover

Mr. C. E. Rushing of Lanes Creek berg will add a part and not much of a cotton county. It never looked better in work and he appears to enjoy his unit of the school ton county. It never looked better in work and he appears to enjoy his unit of the county and plant so early that it will be to do over.

Mr. C. E. Rushing of Lanes Creek berg will add not much of a cotton county. It never looked better in the county and never before was there so much growing as today.

Much growing a grain and not much of a cotton county. It never looked better in work and never before was there so much growing as today.

Mr. Rushing's Clover

Mr. C. E. Rushing of Lanes Creek berg will be shown at the county and never before was there so enjoy his efforts in getting the county and never before was there so enjoy his ton county. It never looked better in the county an upset their arrangements for early last week. It is reported that about twenty-five other dogs in the lower gie Cartner were married last Tuer-port of the township were bitten and day at the home of the bride's father, part of the township were bitten and that a wholesale dog killing has Mr. Wesley Cartner, in Davie county, been conducted in that section. The Mr. McCorkle lives in West Monro mad dog was a young hound, the township and is a good farmer and property of Mr. Vernon Mills of Stan- a splendid citizen. Mrs. McCorkle 11 ly county. He Hamp Brewer.

WINNERS IN PRELIMINARY CONTESTS GROUP CENTERS

Final Contestants for County Commencement Selected Saturday from Various Schools

COUNTY CONTEST TO BE HELD APRIL 8, 10, 12, 14

Large Numbers of Public School Students Contested for the Honor of Entering Finals

Preliminary contests to select those who are to participate in the county commencement were held at the group center schools, Monroe, Marshville, Indian Trail, Unionville, last Saturday. The contestants Saturday were selected from the various schools of the county, every student of which previously contested in their home schools. County commencement will be held on April 8th, 10th, 12th, and 14th, at Marshville, Waxhaw, Unionville, and Monroe respectively, as formerly announced. On April 15th at 10:30 a.m. athletic field day will be observed in Monroe.

THE HAWN ICE CREAM CO.

THE HAWN ICE CREAM CO. selected from the various schools

the county commencement:

Spelling
Clara Montgomery, Prospect; Tom
Presson, Un onville; Callie Aldridge,
Flint Ridge; Bruce Tomberlin, Indian
Trail; Lena Baker, Monroe; Gladys
Long, Faulks.

Oral Reproduction of Stories
Emily Fincher, Union; Sarah Crow-

Emily Fineher, Union; Sarah Crow-ell, Indian Trail; Edwin Hagle, Win-gate; Clay Bass, Marshville; Debate

Emmett Presson, Unionville; Edward Helms, Wesley Chapel; Bryce Parker, Union (Lanes Creek); Chas. Weaver, Jr., Monroe; no report from Waxhaw nor Prospect.

Glee Club
Unionville, Waxhaw, Wesley Chapel, Marshville.

Junior Recitation Namie Starnes, Prospect; Moxy Morgan, Morgan; Ellie Godfrey, Wax-haw; Rowena Gaddy, Rock Rest; Lois Ford, Stevenson.

Senior Declamation Clayton Lathan, Prospect; Jesse Hartis, Indan Trail; Tidel Norwood, Waxhaw; Homer Guion, Unionville; Walter Lockhart, Monroe; James Morgan, Marshville.

Junior Declamation Bonnie Montgomery, Prospect; Milder Park, Brief; Thomas Patrick, Wesley Chapel; Earle Craig, Flint Ridge; Harry Lee, Monroe; Lester Helms, Union (Lanes Creek).

Webb Clontz, Brief; Joy Gordon, esley Chapel; Pearl Wnichester, Wesley Chapel; Pearl Wnicheste Tyndale; Ellis Marsh, Marshville, Senior Essay

Junior Short Story

Callie Dease, Indian Trail; Kathen Austin, Wingate. Senior Short Story

Brady Greene, Prospect; Olivia Presson, Unionville; Lucile Walkup, Waxhaw; Deane Ritch, Indian Trail; Charles Froham, the great theatre built that will prove remunerative. John Ashcraft, Marshville; Annie manager who had risen to the heights In making the butter, the milk is Louise Caldwell, Monroe.

Athletics for Boys—190 yd. Dash Herbert Lathan, Prospect; Mack airley, Monroe; Rommie Pierce, Fairley, Monroe; Rommie Pierce, Marshville; Wayne Wolfe, Waxhaw; Steve Hasty, Jr., Union (Lanes

220 yd. Dash Barney Montgomery, Prospect; Bruce Williams, Monroe; Rommie Pierce, Marshville; Steve Hasty, Jr., Union (Lanes Creek). Yates Laney, Monroe. One Mile Run

John Wilson Fairley and Yates Laney, Monroe; Frank Hallman and The Lexington Dispatch says that as sweet milk, butter milk, butter, Furman Little, Marshville; Ernest wheat in Davidson county never ice cream, etc., should be pasteurized. McManus, Prospect; Leonard Campboked finer. That is the verdict of bel, and Charlie Lee Polk, Brief.

Standing Broad Jump Bruce Williams, Monroe; Rommie Pierce, Marshville; Lowell Gordon, Waxhaw; Ralph Polk, Brief. Standing High Jump

Bruce Williams, Monroe; Rommie Pierce, Marshville; Fred Hartsell,

Running High Jump Covington Ashcraft, Monroe; Rom-mie Pierce, Marshville; Athur Crow, Waxhaw, Hoyle Biggers, Brief. Shot Put

Francis Bundy, Monroe. Ball Throw for Distance

Mack Fairley, Monroe. Girls Athletics—100 yd Dash food and feed for the world. The Lydia Stewart (11 yrs. old), Monboll weevil is a new force they must roe; Queenie Carlyle (H. S.) Monroe; combat and they are told to plant as early as weather conditions will per-Lydia Weir, Waxhaw. Ball Throw for Distance

Laura Stewart, Monroe; Ruby Grant, Snyder.

Running High Jump
Eulalie Smith, Union (Lanes Creek); Katherine Starnes, Prospect;
Evelyn Carter, Waxhaw; Pauline Long, Brief.

Mr. McCorkle Weds Mr. W. R. McCorkle and Miss Mag. Mr. McCorkle lives in West Monro He was killed by Mr. a fine lady and she is receiving a hearty welcome to the county.