Mr. Huntley is 90 years of age and is strong for a man of that age. He is the oldest living relative of the Horn family in Union and his visit will prove very interesting to a great many people of the county. Last week the U. D. C. at Rock Hill held a celebration in honor of the veteran old gentleman's birthday.

The reunion Wednesday of the family of the late Jas. C. Williams at the home of his son, Mr. W. E. L. Williams, who lives at the old home place near Rock Rest, was attended by about two hundred and fifty people, mostly relatives of the family. Addresses were made by Dr. Burrell of Monroe and Rev. J. E. Hoyle of Wingate. The dinner was sumptuous, and were it not for the fact that Mayor Kemp Helms of Wingate will not agree to it the statement should be made that he attended with Mrs. Helms, who is a relative of the family, and considered the dinner the most important part of the program. He also objects to The Journal's telling that Prof. Beach of the Wingate Junior College fainted over a plate of chicken.

Thomas farm near Wingate formerly known as the L. Medlin property. Mr. Orton is connected with the Pinix Land Co., of Gastonia. He has agreed to come to Monroe on the 29th of next month and assist in making preparations for the poultry show this year.

Mrs. H. R. Perry died Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home in Marshville of her daughter, Mrs. J. T. Belk. For a long time Mrs. Perry had been in ill health and about thirteen weeks ago she fell and broke a hip from which injury she never recovered. Mrs. Perry was a most excellent Christian woman and lived a long life of usefulness, being 77 years of age at her death. She is survived by her husband, Rev. M. R. Perry, and two children, Mrs. J. T. Belk of Marshville and Mr. J. H. Perry of Charlotte. Funeral services were conducted Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Belk in Marshville by Rev. C. H. Fowler, Jr. The young man was struck by a heavy belting that had been thrown from the fly wheel of the engine when it shut down and hurled about fifteen feet, inflicting injuries to his right knee cap, fracturing the bone which will likely cause a stiffened joint. The face and one side were also painfully wounded.

Yesterday morning, news came to Mr. W. W. Bland and his sisters, Misses Sallie and Janie Bland that their niece, Mrs. Ruth Freeman Stark had died the night before at the home of her father-in-law, Mr. Bolivar Stark in Hamlet. It seems that about ten o'clock Wednesday night Mrs. Stark, having a head ache in taking what was supposed to be a remedy, in some unaccountable manner, took poison instead, death resulting in about an hour. Mrs. Stark was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Freeman who lived in Monroe until about four years ago when they moved to Hamlet, Mr. Freeman being at that time promoted to the shop foremanship at that place. Last spring Mrs. Stark was married when only nineteen years old. She had previously attended Meredith College after finishing the high school. She had many friends in Monroe where she is remembered as an attractive, lovely young girl, who will learn with deep regret of the distressing news.

An altercation that created quite a bit of excitement took place in the recorder's court room this morning when a colored man whose name cannot be learned resisted instructions of the recorder and officers when all colored men and boys and white boys under sixteen were ordered to leave the court room while a young white girl was on trial for immoral conduct. The negro man talked impudently to Officer Helms and actually made effort to strike the officer when Sheriff Fowler arrived upon the scene and began pounding the colored man in the face with his fists. The affray was kept up with the officers steadily advancing until the door to the court house was reached and the colored man landed into the yard with some accelerating shoves from those in charge of the situation, according to reliable reports. It is stated that the negro had some more big talk after leaving the court house square, which has probably been reported to the officials.

The greatest camp meeting in the history of Union county closed at Pleasant Grove camp ground Tuesday night when Dr. S. R. Belk of Atlanta preached his last sermon at a series of meetings at the historic old place. The song services led during the meeting by Mrs. Steidley proved one of the most interesting features. It is estimated that at least five thousand people attended the meeting on Sunday, and the crowds every day and night were large. The reunion on Tuesday afternoon of a large number of the eighteen Union county boys in the active ministry in various sections of the county was also an interesting feature of the meeting. Dr. Belk did the principal part of the preaching throughout the meeting. He is one of the biggest preachers in America and is a Union county product of which every one is proud. It is understood that a number of Monroe people are anxious for him to come to Monroe and hold a meeting and it is reported he has expressed himself favorable to the proposition.

The church baseball league in Monroe is nearing the season's end with a good showing on the part of all the teams. The Methodists are slightly in the lead at present, with a game for this afternoon scheduled between the Baptists and Presbyterians. On August 28th the Baptists will play the Methodists and on August 31st the Presbyterians and Episcopalians will lock horns. As the season draws to a close intense interest and enthusiasm prevails among the fans and everybody is urged to rally to the support of their particular team and make the closing games the best ones. The present standing of the teams is as follows: Methodists won 5 lost 3; percentage .625; Baptists, won 4 lost 3, percentage .571; Episcopalians won 4, lost 3, percentage .500; Presbyterians won 2, lost 6, percentage .250. If the Methodists win from the Baptists they win the pennant, with six successes and three losses. If the Baptists win from the Presbyterians and the Methodists, they win the pennant, six successes and three losses.

A good lady reports that boys in Monroe are shooting birds with slingshots and she wants their attention called to the cruelty of it. She also states that shots are going astray and crippling chickens, but it is the rough treatment of the little helpless birds to which she wishes to call especial attention.

Constable J. C. Winchester reports that there hasn't been a single arrest this season in Union county as a result of cider drinking. As he remembers there was none such last summer when there were plenty of apples and lots of cider. He accounts for it by explaining that the law is so strict in regard to the manufacture and sale of intoxicants that men who make cider are very careful not to sell it to minors nor to men who don't know when they get enough.

The Union county summer school for teachers today closes one of the best sessions of its history. About sixty teachers have been in attendance, and Prof. S. G. Hawfield, director, and his assistants, Miss Irma Caraway of Wilson and Miss Mary Summerell of China Grove, have done excellent work conducting the school. County Superintendent Ray Funderburk has rendered valuable aid in teaching two classes. The school has been in session six weeks and the teachers are loud in their praise of the high-class of work the instructors have done. Likewise the instructors are highly pleased with the work of the teachers. In a contest a few days ago as to who could name the most artists who painted certain pictures, Misses Evelyn Price and Helen Lemmond tied. The school work of Union county this year is sure to be in the hands of competent teachers, about 175 white teachers having already been employed with only sixty more to be secured.

Since the last issue of The Journal the following cases have been disposed of in Superior court: Lathan & Richardson against W. C. Surratt, failed to recover. Jim Scarborough against Dick Robinson, suit for a part of the crop, jury decided that the crop was worth nothing after certain expenses of growing were counted out and gave nothing to plaintiff. Belk Bros. against J. C. M. Vann as administrator of the estate of the late C. N. Simpson, Jr., judgment for $128.67. G. L. McManus against the S. A. L. railway for failure to deliver freight. Judgment in the sum of $400. Willie Leak against Mrs. E. A. Medlin, judgment for $28.00. Q. A. Whitley against J. M. and Ed. B. Purser, judgment in the sum of $73.60. W. E. Thomas, administrator on the estate of the late Mrs. Lydia Stewart, against A. T. Austin, judgment in the sum of $400. Willie Leak against Mrs. E. A. Medlin, judgment for $28.00. J. L. Polk against G. T. Broom, judgment for $20.00. R. H. Walkup against Arthur Evens, Walkup given $750 damages. This is a case where Mr. Evans was charged with driving his automobile against Walkup one night last year near Wingate, when he attempted to pass Walkup's car which was parked on the right side of the road. It was claimed that it was a very dark, foggy night and that Evans failed to see the negro's car in time to go on the left side and turned out into an old road and that Walkup jumped in front of Evans' car.
