

THE MEBANE LEADER.

AND RIGHT THE DAY MUST WIN, TO DOUBT WOULD BE DISLOYALTY, TO FALTER WOULD BE SIN.

Vol. 2.

MEBANE, N. C., THURSDAY, JULY 13 1911

NO. 21

PERSONAL AND LOCAL BRIEFS

PEOPLE WHO COME AND GO

Items of interest gathered by our reporter.

Miss Jessie White of Greensboro was in town Monday.

Miss Jennie White left Tuesday for Asheville.

Mr. C. P. Wilkerson spent Monday night in Burlington.

Miss Della Gibson and Miss Iola Patton was at the White House Saturday.

Mrs. M. M. McFarland went up to Burlington Monday morning.

Miss Holt spent last Thursday evening with friends.

Mrs. A. Andes went up to Salisbury Saturday evening, returning Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Nicholson and children spent Saturday night with Mr. George Thompson.

Mr. Jim Ferrell of High Point visited friends in Mebane last week.

Miss Ethel Shelby Curry of Nashville, Tenn., is visiting at Mrs. H. A. Scotts.

Mrs. S. L. Sheep, mother of Mrs. F. M. Hawley is visiting her daughter in Mebane.

Nelson-Cooper Lumber Co. change their advertisement in this week issue, don't fail to read it.

Mr. Blake went up to Winston Saturday, and came back Monday. There must be some attraction up there for Blake.

After visiting her brother W. L. Foy in Ashland Va., Miss Lena Foy returned to Mebane Friday.

Mrs. J. F. Sykes was taken to the St. Leo's hospital at Greensboro Sunday night where she goes for treatment.

The ladies of Cedar Grove will give a lawn party Saturday night July 15th, for the benefit of the M. E. parsonage. Everybody invited.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lasley of Burlington is visiting the family of Mr. J. H. Lasley of Mebane.

Walter, Idella, Willard, Coila and Dick Church left Thursday last for an extended trip near Wilkesboro, N. C.

Mr. Will Clayton had the misfortune to have his house burned Thursday night at 2 o'clock, Mr. Clayton and family was off visiting when this occurred.

Pay no more and get the best glasses fitted to your eyes, from Dr. N. Rosenstein, next Tuesday July 18th at the Burlington Drug Co. and Wednesday July 19th, at Mebane, at the White House.

Twenty cases of typhoid fever may not be a great deal but it is said there are more than twenty cases in Hillsboro, and the people are accusing Eno river as being responsible for it. Bad on Eno, and worse on Hillsboro.

Mrs. L. J. Moore and her three children came up Monday evening from New Bern and will spend a few days with her father, Editor of the Leader, she will then go on to Ashland, Va., to visit her brother W. L. Foy.

Mr. W. D. Dodson who resides two miles North East of Mebane had two children to die the latter part of the past week One two years old, the other an infant of eight or ten months.

The Church Grocery Company changes their advertisement in this week issue, calling especial attention to a lot of desirable dry goods, will sell at any old price. A nice line of groceries constantly on hand.

Fires have been raging in the forest of Carteret county for the past two weeks doing immense damage. When the heat strikes the timber it effectually kills it. The fire is destroying thousands of acres of valuable timber that can not be replaced in forty years. These big forest fires are a national calamity.

The crops are in a bad shape below Goldsboro, not in every case but as a rule, some are too far gone to be relieved were rain to come now, corn parched up as brown as a berry in some sections nothing will be raised from the ground in the way of crops.

We despise a little and insignificant soul, the character of a common coward who cringes like a craven cur at his physical equals, and then seeks to exhibit his bravado and insolence to the weak and aged.

They are growing a kind of water-melon down in Georgia now that is a kind of a fake. It is nothing to compare with the old time tender juicy melon people are so fond of. The new variety must be a hybrid between a real melon and a citron. The new variety no doubtships better and keeps better, but there is but little real water melon flavor to it. It is a kind of an insipid affair, and if nothing better for a substitute can be offered, there will be a falling off of the trade.

The street work improvement is now on in real earnest, and being pushed as rapidly as possible. The contractors have accumulated an immense quantity of crushed rock and sand for paving.

J. H. Smith of Baltimore with a full line of samples for clothing will be at H. E. Wilkerson and Co. Wednesday and Thursday of this week to take measures for those wishing a nice suit of clothes.

To Morehead And Return.

From Goldsboro on Sunday $1.25
For Saturday by Monday 2.50
For New Bern Sunday 1.00
For week and ticket from New Bern 1.25
These are for round trip tickets from the points named.

Died In Danville.

Died in Danville, Va., at the hospital last Friday Mrs. Dave Holmes of near Efland. Her remains were taken to Cane Creek and interred on Saturday. Mrs. Holmes was an aunt of Mr. John Holmes of the firm of Holmes-Warren and Company.

State Encampment.

The State encampment is in full blast at Camp Glenn Morehead City this week. The second Regiment with 500 men or more are down there. Tents was up and every thing in shape for their reception Monday. The soldier boys will have a gay time and don't forget it.

Childrens Day At M. P. Church.

Childrens day will be held at the Methodist Protestant Church next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. A silver offering will be asked for. The public is invited to attend.

An Editor has one of the best opportunities for seeing and judging human character perhaps than any other profession. He sees and understands the noble and self sacrificing nature, the honest and high minded man and women to whom the world is indebted too for all that is great and good, and then he notes the insignificant frauds, the pretender of something, who are nothing but dollar worshippers.

You Should not Fail

To consult Dr. N. Rosenstein in regard to your eyes and spectacles. He can be of great help to your eyes and spectacles, as thousands of others can testify. He will be at Burlington next Tuesday July 18th, and at Mebane Wednesday July 19th. Bear in mind the days and places.

Intense Heat Explodes Powder Factory.

Intense heat, it is believed produced an explosion at the Standard Powder Works, at Horrell station near Harrisburg, Pa., on the Petersburg branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad last week, resulting in the death of four employes, and the complete destruction of the works.

Mr. Hart Will Be With Us.

Mr. J. E. Hart, editor of the State Dispatch at present, has accepted a position in the office of the Burlington News as foreman of our printing office. Mr. B. Sam Edwards who has been holding this position will leave for the eastern part of the state where he engages in the newspaper business. — Business News.

County Superintendent.

Prof. J. B. Robertson has been elected county superintendent of Public Instruction for Alamance County.

He has been principal of the Graham and Randleman Graded Schools besides having held other responsible places as teacher. He is a high-toned christian gentleman, having for a year been traveling secretary of the state Sunday school association. He is a sociable and popular young man. And one of the type that makes things go.

List of Letters.

Remaining unclaimed at this office for the week ending July 8th 1911.
1 Letter for Mr. W. S. Hinson
1 " " Miss Maria McDams
1 P. C. for Miss Linnie Thompson
1 " " Mr. James Tate
1 " " Mrs. Rebecca Thompson.
These letters will be sent to the Dead Letter Office July 22, 1911 if not called for before.
In calling for the above please say "Advertised" giving date of ad. list.
Respectfully,
S. Arthur White, P. M.

She was a lively young bird, chirping with all the energy of one just out to fly, when her friend says Jennie have you ever told your mother that you were in love, no she says, but I believe she has found it out, she said I looked so billious she gave me a pill the other day

Oldest Engineer Dead.

Benjamin E. Robinson the oldest locomotive engineer on the Southern Railway, and reported to be the oldest in point of service of any locomotive engineer in the United States, died at Charleston, S. C. July 8. Robinson was 72 years of age. He became an engineer about 1860. During his long experience with a locomotive, he injured but one person.

Don't fail to see Dr. N. Rosenstein, the Eye Specialist of Durham, at the Burlington Tuesday July 18th, at the Burlington Drug Co. and Wednesday July 19th at Mebane, stopping at the White House, for the purpose of examining eyes and fitting glasses. I will fit your eyes with suitable glasses in any style of steel or gold frames from $2.00 including examination, don't forget Tuesday at the Burlington Drug Co. and Wednesday at Mebane at the White House.

A Great Old Time.

There was a fishing party at the Faucet place last week. Several men from Mebane went out and pitched their tents near Back Creek, where they spent three days, fishing and having a good time in general. There was in the party Will Satterfield, Roy Thompson, John Smith, Charlie Oakley, Frank Albert, Dave Tinnin, George Thompson L. S. Straughn, Charlie Oakley won first honors as an entertainer but he is awful afraid of snakes, some of the boys got and old eel and wrapped it around Charlies leg after he got asleep, and then sit up and watched the result, and the result was that Charlie came near having forty fits.

Union Sunday School Picnic.

Last Saturday the 8th, the Baptist, Methodist Protestant, Methodist Episcopal, and Presbyterian Sunday schools joined together and held their picnic at the David Kerr place. A conservative estimate places the number there at 275 to 300. The place is a beautiful old home with a large grove and the breeze and shade was delightful.

It was indeed a great success and many thanks and due Mr. James P. Kerr who so kindly let us have the use of his grounds and his home, also to those who, by their untiring efforts made the children, old and young, big and little, have a most delightful day of it.

The Farmers Institute.

The Farmers Institute to be held in Mebane on Tuesday July 25th, gives promise of an occasion of unusual interest to our farmer friends. The Leader urges its readers where ever possible to attend this Institute. It will be helpful to every member of the family, and all ought to go. The program this year embraces the discussion of a number of matters of vital concern to the farmers and their wives. It is truly a school in which much may be learned. Take a day off and attend the Institute, it will be the most profitable way in which you can spend the day. Chairman Chas. F. Cates is an enthusiastic worker, and does all he can to further and advance the interest of the "Institutes" cooperate with him and help all you can, see big display advertisement elsewhere in this issue. Don't forget the date and, then be sure, and come Mr. T. B. Parker who will be at the Institute here is an able man, and will impart much valuable information on the home life, as Mrs. Hollowell is in charge of the woman department who has an international reputation as a great thinker and a good talker.

Cedar Grove Rfd No 1.

We have been needing some rain for the past few days in our section.
Mr. J. W. Miller entertained a large number of his friends Saturday night by giving them an ice cream supper.
We are glad to know that Mr. and Mrs. Garland Toler are improving.
Miss Lessie Webster is some what improved.
Little Miss Eva Scott is visiting at her uncles Messrs Joe and Lee Scott.
Miss Lela Florence and Mr. Ralph Warren from Burlington are spending the week at Mr. Bill Roberts.
Quite a large crowd spent Sunday at Mr. S. R. Breezes.
Mrs Margret Breeze is some what improving she has been sick for several weeks.
Mrs Sam Wilkerson spent last week with her mother Mrs J S Berry.
Miss Knox Scott was the guest of Miss Maggie Miller Sunday afternoon.
Miss Hortense Parker is spending the week with her uncle Mr Henry Blalock.
Mr Lawson Tilley was the guest of Miss Jean Kenion Sunday.
Get your basket ready for the picnic Saturday at C G.
With best wishes to the Leader
Lillian

At Morehead.

The "Atlantic Hotel" at Morehead City is enjoying the finest patronage it has enjoyed in a number of years. There are now nearly four hundred guests registered there, and a better pleased crowd has not been seen at the hotel in years, and they are among the best in the state, in fact there are many from distant states, from Nebraska, Indiana, Tenn, Penn, and from Washington City.

It would be difficult to find a more agreeable place to spend the heated term, than at the Atlantic Hotel Morehead City. The breeze is not only cool and refreshing, but the fragrant salt sea air is freighted with ozone, the most invigorating element in air, the very elixir of life. To go out beneath the pavilion in the rear of the hotel, and drink down this life giving ether is like sipping from elegant cut glass Mue. Cloyots, or Mums extra dry. The ball room is a picture of a palace such as Aladen created by the touch of his magical lamp, vericolorous lights artistically arranged, woven among streamers of reel, white and blue colored bunting, arching a scene of resplendent beauty where fair women, and gallant men glide with slithered feet upon a glazed floor in rhythmic harmony that ebbs and flows like an undulating wave of exquisite melody and motion, a picture of enchanting beauty and loveliness, or white wings sailing over summer seas, while the moon filters its rays of silver light, with phosphorescent burning in each curling wave, then listen to old ocean as it breaks upon the shore in and eternal drum beat at the bar- Back to Morehead like the faithful Musselman to the tomb of Mahomet- Go there in childhood when the worlds panorama is breaking upon your astonished vision- Go there in your young manhood, in young womanhood when the world is weaving its rosiest romance, go there in old age and dream over again those bright dreams of a delightful, delicious past, it may be a dream, a memory but it is a sweet memory, of life sweetest dreams-
Mr Alex Baxter the present manager is meeting in the highest degree the expectation of the public and owners of the Atlantic Hotel-

Orange Grove Items.

Farmers are about through with their farm work and wheat threshings are now in order.

This community is suffering from the driest spell experienced in many years. If it doesn't rain in a few days crops will be ruined.

Mr. Chas. M. Crawford, wife and little son, and Mrs. Vickers of Greensboro visited the parents of Mr. and Mrs. Crawford last week. Mr. Crawford returned to Greensboro, but his family are still enjoying the delightful climate of old Orange.

The latest social events were ice cream parties at the homes of Miss Minnie King and Miss Ada Dodson. Both were gratly enjoyed.

Miss Maie Reynolds returned from her extended Northern trip a few days ago. She reports a delightful time spent with friends and sight seeing in Washington Philadelphia and other places.

The Baraca and Philatha classes entertained each other and a number of friends at a basket picnic on Crawford's Mountain and pond July 4th. After the picnic ice cream and cake was served at the home of Mrs. D. F. Crawfords. Mr. S. E. Toer entertained the crowd at night with a splendid, new graphophone.

Mr. Ben Lloyd of Greensboro and Mr. L. B. Lloyd of Durham were visitors at the home of their brother Mr. T. D. Lloyd a few days ago.

Miss Maie Reynolds informs the writer that she cannot accept the school at Orange Grove next year. We hope the people will be fortunate in securing a good teacher. After studying the conditions and needs of the school we would say that the school will lose a teacher who deserves more credit for the successful work done at Orange Grove than any teacher who has ever been here.

Miss Lois Cates, trained nurse in the womans Hospital, Philadelphia is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Cates, Miss Cates will be at home about a month.

Miss Ava Crawford is visiting friends in Columbus County where she taught a few years ago. On her return Miss Crawford will teach during the summer in Alamance.

Miss Recie Crawford is visiting her sister Mrs Ernest Reynolds in Hills boro this week.

Miss Luna Lloyd has returned from Spencer where she has been visiting her brother Mr. Graham Lloyd.

Miss Helen Reynolds is visiting relatives and friends in Greensboro this week.

Mr. James M. Seeger of Danville, Va., and Miss Seeger of Baltimore is visiting at the home of Capt W G Graves Mr Seegers wife has been visiting at Capt Graves home some time

PROGRAM.

Women And Farmers Institute Mebane Thursday, July, 25th, Eion College, N. C., July, 25th.

MORNING SESSION OPENS AT 10 A. M.

Soil Improvement G. L. Newman, Commercial Fertilizer T. F. Parker, Poultry on the Farm J. S. Jeffries, General Discussion

AFTERNOON.

The Farmer- Yesterday and Today O. F. Crowson, Farm Management T. B. Parker, Special corps, C. L. Newman, Opening of question box and general discussion.

WOMEN INSTITUTE.

Morning session opens at 10 A. M. The Influence of the women on the homes Mrs. Sue V. Hollowell, Health hints on the principles of cooking Miss Katherine Parker, General discussion.

AFTERNOON.

The care of the infants Mrs. Sue V. Hollowell, Bread making Miss Katherine Parker The ladies will have a demonstration car.

Mebane Rtd. 3.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McAdams, Eula and Alma spent Sunday at Mr. J. M. Thompson's.

Little Novella Riley, daughter of Mr. S. A. Riley who has been quite sick is getting on nicely we are glad to say.

Mr. J. F. McAdams spent Monday in Hillsboro on business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Terrell spent Sunday at Mr. G. A. Sykes on No. 2.

Mr. W. J. Sykes who has been traveling for the Wrought Iron Range Co. is at home for a few days.

Messrs. Brodie Thompson and Kenneth McAdams made a flying trip to "Frog Level" Sunday afternoon.

Miss Lelia McAdams spent a few days last week visiting her grandfather Mr. J. F. Jobe.

Miss Alice Thompson returned from Burlington Saturday P. M. where she had been spending some time with relatives. "Ask her what she is looking so sad about."

Mr. T. A. Gill called at Mrs. Browns Sunday P. M. Guess the "Gray" was not there.

Several of the boys and girls around here attended the 4th of July at Burlington and report a nice time.

Mr. Stokes Woggaman of Greensboro spent a few days last week with his mother on No. 2.

Not Weak, But Erring.

Speaking of the Democratic Senators who are obstructing the reciprocity bill, the Richmond Times-Dispatch is "Surprised at Bailey because he is generally very sensible.

It isn't for want of sense that Bailey flies the party track so often. The excuse which might be made for some of his colleagues is not available for him. No man in the Senate knows better what the effect of any proposed legislation would be on special and on general interests. When he errs, it is against both light and knowledge. He is of the class which "knows the right, but still the wrong pursues."

Nor is there occasion for surprise that the brilliant Texan should be found at odds with the policy favored by the great body of his party associates in Congress. This is not the first time recently that such has been the case; and, if we are not grossly at fault as to his state of mind, it will not be the last.—Va Pilot.

PROPOSED NEW PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF MEBANE, N. C.

The contract for the brick has been let and the work will now be pushed as far as possible. This will be a very handsome building, and quite an addition to the town and community. It will be complete with Sunday school rooms, ladies parlor and up-to-date in every way.

Jurors For The September Term of Court.

The following named persons were drawn the first Monday in July for Jurors at the September term of court, FIRST WEEK.

M. A. Russell No 13 J. M. Wallace No 5 Jas. H. Neese No 13 J. W. Bason No 13 A. L. Zachory No 8 Berry Sykes No 12 Lonnie McPherson No. 8 M. T. Hargrove No. 8 J. H. Moser No. 6 D. N. Moser, No. 12 Don. E. Scott No. 6 J. D. Freeland No. 13 John Moody No. 1 Jas. P. Williams No. 6 G. A. Fogleman No. 12 W. R. Andrews No. 8 L. C. Moser No. 12 J. C. Foust No. 10 I. T. Petty No. 2 Geo. I. Beal No. 1 J. D. Cooper No. 7 R. W. Gibson No. 10 Boyd R. Trolinger No. 6 Manly B. Smith No. 9 Geo. D. Crawford No. 9 E. H. Roberson No. 10 C. F. Neese No. 12 L. E. Qualls No. 12 Louis Madden No. 9 Harvey Newlin No. 8 J. A. Zachery No. 12 Jas. H. Gibsen No. 10 G. W. Holmes No. 7 John G. Phibbs No. 3 John A. Parks No. 12 W. M. McPherson No. 8 J. B. T. Clark No. 13 C. E. Turner No. 9 D. S. Gibson No. 8 J. B. Jones No. 1 J. E. Wagoner No. 3 R. H. Jobe No. 10 E. L. Russell No. 9 Henry Alek No. 1.
SECOND WEEK.

J. M. Florence No. 11 J. A. Dickey No. 11 J. Ernest Holt No. 12 J. E. Sellars No. 11 Joseph G. May No. 8 J. B. Rogers No. 8 D. T. Freshwater No. 10 E. W. Wilkins No. 5 J. Alvis Thompson No. 9 T. K. Best 13 R. E. Andrews No. 12 J. S. Fraiser No. 9 Thos. F. McVoy No. 9 H. A. Isley No. 8 C. H. Johnson No. 13 P. L. Jones No. 12 W. H. Bason No. 9 Jasper N. Wood Jr. No. 6 W. A. Mebane No. 12 B. F. Warren No. 10 W. C. Neese No. 9 C. F. Rauhut No. 12 Henry M. Rogers No. 6 C. L. McAdams No. 12 W. T. Jeffreys No. 6.

A Fable To Illustrate Wasteful War Expenses.

To the Editor of The Times:

To the muddled persons who hug the delusion that enormous war expenditures are not onerous to the people because the money is expended within the country:

A FABLE.

Once upon a time a king of Jinglyland began to build palaces. Didn't he build? He built two each year, and at the end of ten years he burned the first two; at the end of eleven years he burned the next two he had built, and so on. He kept on burning and building until finally his people began to hint that the taxes were getting rather high. Even that didn't stop his mania for building and burning. All this time the price of corn was rising, and the people were becoming restless.

One day the king said to the chief of his army: "Go to the people and say unto those you find banqueting and feeling well disposed. 'Oh' people, why do you kick? The king has done even as the mighty rulers of Yankee-land. They build two warships each year and destroy them in the tenth year after their launching. Our king builds palaces and burns them. What matters it? In either case the money goes to the handicraftsmen."

The chief of the army did as directed. He found men banqueting and spoke even as the king had counseled him to. When he had finished, the guests gave him the ha, ha, and smote him with wine jars. IT IS TO LAUGH

Remarkable Story.

The Wilmington Dispatch is authority for the account of a train passing over a negro's head without injuring or even awakening him. He lay with his cranium between two ties and just far enough beneath the rail to escape being touched by the rolling-stock. This is all the more remarkable, inasmuch as the story as built after the imagination-inciting "ni-beer" had been legislated out of Wilmington.—Charlotte Observer.

Hillsboro.

I am indebted to my uncle Alex Smith for the following short history of old Hillsboro, written by Lawyer Joe Turner over twenty years ago, thinking it may interest some of the readers of the Leader, I send same for print if you see fit. —F. W. Nelson.

This ancient Borough, once the capital of the State and now the capital of the county of Orange, has been the scene of many histories incidents and events. The town or settlement was just called Corbin town from one of the only settlers about 1750. He was one expert with the gun and killed enough deer and turkeys to make himself of sufficient importance to be remembered in naming the town. The name was changed and called Childsburg in honor of an old colonial surveyor of that name, again it was changed and called Hillsborough from the hills that in all directions cast their shadows upon the town that quietly flows upon the bosom of the gently flowing Eno, the parent stream of the Neuse. The county once an empire or territory sufficient to make a small one has grown "Small by degrees and beautifully less," after having Randolph, Chatham, Alamance, Caswell, Durham and Person all cut from her sides. But one subject is Hillsboro and not Orange.

Hillsboro was one of the five towns entitled to a representative (see Wheelers history if it be five or seven) Governor Graham and Chief Justice Nash were Borough representatives. Traditions says it was a tie between Gov. Graham and his competitor when Hazeekiah Revels an old issue free negro was sent for and gave the last and final vote for Graham, dropping this speech with his vote, "Ki Revels always votes for a gentlemen. Before the next election the constitution was amended and the free negroes with old Ki Revels were disfranchised, Hillsboro has had its share of great men, it was the home of Geo. Burk, Judge Murphey, (Judge Baily and Judge Manly for many years). Chief Justice Nash and Chief Justice Ruffin, Judge Cameron opened his first law office in Hillsboro and married an Orange Co. belle. Hillsboro and Orange furnished two United States Senators in 1840's.

Graham and Mangum, (Leo Wheeler for the year) Levi Carmichael, a Hillsboro tailor, made a suit for each of the senators and swore the like would never again occur. "Two United States Senators from the same county, and a tailor from the same county to fit them with senatorial suits, such as no tailor ever cut; or could cut, when I go North for my goods I will stop in Baltimore to see my sister and take every tailor in Baltimore to see the two handsomest Senators in the Senate and the two Senators baring Henry Clay of Kentucky.

In the old church yard at Hillsboro is the graves of Williams Hooper a signer of the declaration of Independence. The graves of Chief Justice Nash, Chief Justice Ruffin, Judge Murphey and Gov. Graham, George Burk, the war Governor of 1781, is buried two miles North of town, no marble or head stone marks his grave, what a shame to the town, the county and the state and to all America. Everything about Hillsboro is ancient and grand.

The town clock that struck time for Lord Cornwallis and the British Army in 1781 struck time for all the great men I have named and now strikes time for the courts in the present year No town, not even Charlotte, surpasses Hillsboro in early resistance to the despotism of Kirby Government. Hillsboro drove King Georges Judges from the bench and out of the Court House four years before Charlotte made her declaration of independence.

What I know about Hillsboro filled streets and what I don't know would fill a whole volume and I leave the old town in the hands, and to the pen of some future historian.

Human Vultures.

The greatest enemy of mankind is man himself. The truth of this assertion is abundantly proved by the daily press, as from time to time it is called upon to chronicle the latest instance of man's degrading traffic in creatures of his own image. Just now the morbid interest of the public is centred Lexington, where a man and woman were held behind the bars charged with criminally abducting, or inducing to leave home and go with them, two little girls, aged 13 and 14 years, respectively- It is charged that they induced the children to go with them to Charlotte, promising them "a good time, fine clothes to wear and no work to do."—Durham Sun.

This is pretty tough old boy, and merits some condemnation, but it is mild traffic in comparison to a certain beast in Raleigh who broke up a home in order to make his sister the affinity of a certain wealthy man in Winston.

In the United States there are about 1,000,000 confirmed drunkards, and 300,000 of them die every year. Heavy drinkers in this country number over 4,000,000 and temperate regular drinkers are believed to number about 20,000,000.