The Flurry in the Balkans

The little Balkan nation which menace Turkey aspire to nothing that they ought not to have. Greece owns to have Crete. Servia ought to have Novibazar and Old Servia. Montenegro ought to have widened borders. Bulgaria's demand of home rule for Macedonia is just and humane. Of course she hopes to annex the Bulgarian districts later, and that also is reasonable.

So far as Turkey is concerned, these nations, which seem at last to have shown dawning wisdom by pooling issues, could probably "get away with it." Bulgaria has the finest little army in the world trained for this issue. The Montenegrin mountaineers have set Turks at defiance before now. In Venizelos, Greece has found a man. Even the Servian Army is now no sham. Turkey cannot send troops by water because of the Italian war, and a couple of single-track railroads with few sidings are a discouraging transport. Macedonia bristles with guerillas. The Porte has no money.

The selfishness of the big nations is the obstacle. First and worst of all, Austria would fight to keep Novibazar out of Servian hands, because it is the road by which she plans to push on to Salonica, the Baltimore of the Balkans, crushing the southern Slavs as she goes. The naval powers have already polled Crete for the Turk, conscious of the baseness of the act, but concerned to postpone trouble.

Authors Interested?

A new society has been organized in France under the title "The League Against the Lending of Books." It is asserted that the movement is really in the interest of authors, as every borrower may be considered as one buyer less.

A Log On The Track

of the fast express means serious trouble ahead if not removed, so does loss of appetite. It means lack of vitality, loss of strength and nerve weakness. If appetite fails, take Electric Bitters quickly to overcome the cause by toning up the stomach and curing the indigestion. Michael Hesseimer of Lincoln, Neb., had been sick over three years, but six bottles of Electric Bitters put him right on his feet again. They have helped thousands. They give pure blood, strong nerves, good digestion. Only 50 cents at Mebane Drug Co.

Preferred Jail to Marriage.

A country judge in England has just delivered the most sentimental decision ever heard of in his particular "neck of the woods." He told a burglar he would suspend sentence on him if he would agree to marry and settle down or get a dog or canary in order to have something to work for. Oddly enough, the burglar couldn't see it that way, and took a year's imprisonment instead.

It was reported to Charles Frohman that one of his most prosperous male stars was in a fair way of getting married. "I don't believe it," answered the manager, who is himself a confirmed single man; "he will escape; he was always a good fighter."

CURIOUS WORK OF PENANCE

Ancient Buddhist of Japan Writes 126,000 Words on Piece of Paper 13 by 7 1/2 Inches.

For some time there has been shown in San Francisco a piece of paper 13 inches by 7 1/2 inches, on which there are written 126,000 words. This writing is the work of Kobo Taishi, a Buddhist of Japan, who lived 1,100 years ago. Before his time his countrymen used only Chinese characters in writing and he evolved the idea of the Japanese alphabet. The writing on the paper is so fine that a microscope has to be used to decipher the intricate Japanese characters. It is an exact copy of eight books of the Buddhist Bible, and was written by the author as a sort of penance to purify his spirit. It is the property of a descendant of the writer, and has passed as a sacred heirloom from father to son for a thousand years. Every precaution has been taken to insure the safety of the document. In a case of white wood is a beautiful laquered box wrapped in green silk. Within the laquered box is another made of a very light porous wood that is extensively used in the manufacture of cabinets in which to store treasures. In this box is the precious writing.

At Least a Movement for Health.

In the Paddington borough of London, if you operate a tenement or apartment house, you must sweep the floors of all rooms once a day, wash them once a week and open the windows of all sleeping rooms for at least one hour in each day or pay a fine of 25s. It may not be possible to make the people moral by law, but the borough council of Paddington believes much can be done to make them healthy.
