NOTHING BUT LEAVES.

Nothing but leaves, dry withered leaves, no gathered sheaves from life's fair field. How is it with you are you trying to quench your thirst with the salt water of selfishness, are you giving to the Master, the fruit of a good life, spent in lifting up humanity, making man's life higher, holier, and happier. Are you gathering the rich fruit of a noble self sacrificing nature? Do you realize that to a certain extent you are your brother's keeper, and God will some day ask you what have you done for him.

You may pile up heaps of yellow gold, you may be able to purchase every pleasure the world has for sale, and it can give you much if you are able to buy, but your selfish appetite can not be satiated. It is like drinking salt water to quench your thirst, it only increases it, and you go deeper, and deeper in selfish gratification, until nature is surfeited, and sickened, and like a dope fiend you have increased the dose, until your nerves are racked and shattered, and the golden apples of gratification turn to dead sea fruit, and its gray ashes drop from your trembling lips.

Live an unselfish life, a life full of the fruits of good deeds, unselfish deeds in the interest of a world that needs your help so much. Soothe the suffering, heal the sick, and help the burden bearer. Let the sunshine, of a happy hopeful life radiate from your every act, and you will find you have struck the well springs of true happiness, and it is this limpid liquid that flows from the great white throne that will give you a peace, and a joy that passeth all understanding.

Representative C. M. Stedman of this District a member of Congress is distinguishing himself as a persistent, and ardent friend of the office seeker. If there is other things to his credit since he became a member of Congress it has escaped our attention. There is one thing however we feel quite sure of, with all of the Majors, obstinacy, his headstrong determination, his bull dog tenacity, he is going to fail, utterly fail to land his man Mr. John Oliver in to the Reidsville Post Mastership. It can not be "did." Perhaps the Major thinks he has a head that can but the granite wall out of the way. But time will teach him that it is a fruitless job. He is up against a resourceful man, and that man feels conscientiously he is but dealing justly to exercise his resources. We have nothing unkind to say of Mr. Oliver we feel friendly to him, but the trouble was, he caught a severe case of Kitchentitis, and it set in instead of breaking out. He was imprudent he was bitter, he was vindictive.

Does any one in their lucid moments believe that if Mr. Kitchin had been elected to the Senate, in the place of Mr. Simmons, that as a member of the Senate he would have entertained the thought of permitting a member of the Greensboro News Staff to be Post Master at Greensboro. Do they? If they do, and are honest about it, there is an institution at Morganton to which they should be immediately consigned, and it would possibly be necessary to select a padded cell for their safe keeping. He is a madman, a maniac. Let Congressman Stedman turn his attention to more practical things he is wasting time at this.

Senatorial dignity, and the slow methodical rate at which the upper house of Congress travels in its dealings with the tariff measure is not helping the country at all. Do something, if you disappoint your friends, and oblige your enemies. Suspend in anticipating a thing is often more painful and mentally disagreeable than to suffer the worst.

We need a revision of the tariff, and we need it downward, and then we need it. The American people have been misled in regard to this matter so often, and imposed upon so flagrantly now that there is assurance of a change in a way that promises relief, they are anxious that the change shall be hurriedly effected.

Samuel Gompers, and John Mitchel the heads of the labor organizations of this country who urged the strike against the Buck Stove Company of St Louis and refused to obey a mandate of court to stop it, have been trying to dodge a court sentence for four years, or more by liberally spending the money collected from labor organization. It would not hurt labor to shut Gompers up for his life time, his influence has caused labor a great deal more suffering than he has ever brought them profit.

No one wants a panic, and we believe but few expect one, but a nice way to encourage its coming is to keep on predicting one until you can get some one to believe you. The country is in a thoroughly prosperous condition with the promise of a fine crop, is it not satisfactory? Is a panic worth it even to help the Republican party?

"Animals I Have Known"

So graceful is her dancing
When you see her at the ball,
That your eyes grow dim with glancing
At the rhythm of it all.
And all the world is gladdened
When her fair lips part and smile;
And if by cares you're saddened
You forget them for awhile.
Hark, the sweet reverberation,
How the mellow woodland rings!
When you list in adoration
To the grand old song she sings!
Life is filled with love and laughter,
When you know that she is near;
And you think, and whisper after,
"she's in many ways a DEAR!"

Most Children Have Worms.

Many mothers think their children are suffering from indigestion, headache, nervousness, weakness, costiveness, when they are victims of that most common of all children's ailments—worms. Peevish, ill-tempered, fretful children, who toss and grind their teeth, with bad breath and colicky pains, have all the symptoms of having worms, and should be given Kickapoo Worm Killer, a pleasant candy lozenge, which expels worms, regulates the bowels, tones up the system, and makes children well and happy. Kickapoo Worm Killer is guaranteed. All druggists, or by mail. Price 25c. Kickapoo Indian Medicine Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis. Mebane Drug Co.

Who Laughs Last.

Mrs. Harlem Heights—You must not laugh and make fun of everybody Mamie.
Mamie—I don't mamma; I am not the girl who laughs. The other day a little girl fell off a board fence and all the other children laughed, but I didn't.
Mrs. Harlem Heights—That was right.
Mamie—Yes, I was the little girl that fell off the fence. I was the girl who cried.—New York Globe.

Take Plenty of Time to Eat.

There is a saying that "rapid eating is slow suicide." If you have formed the habit of eating too rapidly you are most likely suffering from indigestion or constipation, which will result eventually in serious illness unless corrected. Digestion begins in the mouth. Food should be thoroughly masticated and insalivated. Then when you have a fullness of the stomach or feel dull and stupid after eating, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets. Many severe cases of stomach trouble and constipation have been cured by the use of these tablets. They are easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Sold by all dealers.

BUNNY BEAT THE MOTOR CAR

Rabbit Ran So Fast the Chauffeur Had to Speed to Keep Him in Sight.

The scene was on the road to Point Place. Illuminations were furnished by the moon and stars. Besides the rabbit and the auto there were one man and two girls, also a chauffeur. The big automobile was speeding along the highway, sending its white light ahead, when suddenly right across the path of the rays from the head lamps shot a young rabbit. The chauffeur slackened speed, hating to hurt the little creature, and then the rabbit hopped back into the center of the road again, gave one look into the blinding glare of the lamps and started the race.

Straight down the center of the smooth, white highway he shot on ahead of the car, and the chauffeur speeded up a bit just to see how fast the race was going to be, but he could not catch the rabbit, not by ten feet. That little critter's feet went so fast there did not seem to be any there, and just a speck where the long ears bobbed with the motion of his little body and a brown blur of hair.

And still he ran, on and on, keeping his distance ahead of the big machine as if the light had hypnotized him and he could not stop, while behind in the car big, lazy pursuers laughed and watched and begged the chauffeur not to run him down. There was no such chance.

The rabbit was too quick. When he was tired of the sport he hopped to one side of the road as the car went by, tipped up his tiny head and winked out of one pink eye as he looked at the speeder and its occupants with a quizzical curve of his little mouth.—Toledo Blade.

French Revolutionary Months.

The order of the months in the French revolutionary calendar beginning with September 22 the tour was Vendemiaire, Brumaire, Friminaire, Nivose, Fluvirose, Ventose, Germinal, Floreal, Prairial, Messidor, Thermidor (Fervidor) and Fructidor, which ended on September 16. Then followed five days, the Sansculottides, dedicated as feasts of reason to Les Vertus, Le Gentle, Le Travail, L'Ordre and Les Reconpenses. Decreed November 24, 1793, this calendar was antedated to September 22, 1792. It was abolished on Nivose 10, An xiv, corresponding to December 31, 1805.

CAMERA HERO SAVED TRAIN

Spotted Films an Ill Reward for Act That Deserved Better Things of Fortune.

The slave of the camera was dozing in the smoking car when a half dozen shots rang out in the night air.

The train slackened. There were more shots.
"Train robbers!" shrieked a pallid passenger as he crawled under the seat.

The camera man grasped his black box and tripod, and, running to the car platform, sprang off into the darkness.

The robbers, most of them, were grouped about the express car. There was much money in the express safe. The company said not over $17, but it must have been thousands. Anyway, the robbers were determined to get it, whatever it was. They had done a lot of wild shooting and several persons had been hurt. Now they had shoved a stick of dynamite into the car and were just about to ignite the fuse.

Suddenly a blinding glare filled the air with dazzling fire.

With a wild shriek the robbers fled to the woods.
The flashlight of the camera man had saved the train.

When they found him he was crouched before a train hand's lantern, weeping bitterly.
"Something went wrong with the dum thing," he moaned. "The film's spoiled!"

In An Emergency.

A motorist tells this one on himself. Trying out a new car on the road between Cedar Grove and Great Notch he stopped to pick up an old farmer who looked as if he might like a ride and who admitted that it was his first experience in an automobile. The machine was hitting a pretty good clip when it skidded on a soft spot and ran into a tree. Nobody was hurt, but as the ruralite picked himself up he said to the motorist:

"Well that was going some. But say, mister, there's one thing I'd like to ask you. How do you stop one of these contraptions where there ain't no trees?"—Exchange.
