Why Suffer From Eye-strain?

Glasses made and fitted by Dr RAPPART will relieve both eye-strain and headache. Call to see Dr. Rapport at the Mebane House, Tuesday, June 16th.

Much Appreciated.

The Leader force feels much indebted to Mrs. C. J. Kee for a nice waiter of ice cream and cake and other confections sent over to the Leader office Wednesday evening of last week.

Doctor Hawley.

Rev. Frank Morton Hawley, pastor of the Presbyterian church here will be honored by the degree of Doctor of Sacred Theology at the commencement of Temple University in Philadelphia this week. The degree will be conferred as the result of the completion of a prescribed course. The exercises will be held Thursday night and Mr. Hawley will pronounce the benediction at the close. He is a graduate of Davidson College and of the Louisville Theological Seminary, and pursued postgraduate courses with distinction at the University of North Carolina and Harvard University.

Address of Interest To Women.

Rev. C. E. Raynal delivered an interesting and strong address on "Higher Feminism" to the graduates of Queens College of Charlotte Tuesday morning May 26, a copy of which appeared in the Charlotte Observer the following morning. It would do every woman good to read this and every man as well, because he touches on the new woman, putting her in the proper light and explaining her relation to the world.

Delicious Supper

This is the last announcement to appear about the supper the ladies of the Presbyterian Church will serve on the Leader Square on the evening of June 6th, which is the coming Saturday. Below is the menu. The ladies will be pleased to see you all and will promise to give you something appetizing and good to eat.
Brunswick stew and coffee 25c.

Benefit Book Club.

Mrs. C. J. Kee charmingly entertained the Benefit Book Club on Wednesday afternoon. Daises were effectively used in decorating and the beautiful colors of gold and white were observed in the entire preparations.

The score cards for the game of rook, were artistically ornamented with hand painted daises.

A mathematical catch problem was correctly solved by Mrs. W. A. Murray who was awarded with a dainty chamois cloth trimmed in white and gold.

Delicious refreshments were served in three courses.

Those enjoying the occasion were: Mesdames. W. W. Corbett W. D. Gallaspie, W. S. Harris, W. A. Murray, T. M. Crutchfield C. R. Grant, Ralph Vincent, Reddick Tyson, Paisley Nelson, Misses Lenorah Walker and Sue Mebane.

THE CALF IN OUR SHOES

Is the choicest that can be had. Same way with leathers of every kind, we handle only shoes made of solids sound leather that will wear as long as they should. Take a look at our new and natty oxfords

They certainly are snappy in style and general appearance. They are the last word in low cut shoes. The place to buy the best shoes for the least money.
