Another Misrepresentation.

Mr. Linney, the Representative of the eighth district of this State, is a gentleman who has the ability, acquired by long experience, to turn around so quickly as to locate the seat of his trousers in front. It should not occasion any surprise, therefore, that after declaring himself last year a bi-metallic, he supports this year a bill which declares for the single gold standard. Mr. Atwater, the Representative of the fourth district, in his speech in the House Thursday seemed to treat these joint circumstances as matter for wonder, but it is not. A man who has done many of the things that Mr. Linney has done, the last being a published statement over his own name that negro Bishop Petty in the equal of any man in Mecklenburg county, can do anything.—Charlotte Observer.

The Observer is considered by impartial men of all parties—one of the fairest Democratic papers edited in the State, yet its partizan bias is so great, it once and awhile falls from grace, and commits the same kind of sins that are so often, and without excuse, committed by the Democratic papers. The Observer has knowingly, or through inadvertence, misrepresented Mr. Linney in the above article.

Mr. Linney wrote a letter to the Wilkesboro Journal which appeared in that paper Dec. 1st, in which he used this language, with reference to an editorial which appeared in that paper at a former date, in defense of the people of Wilkes county.

Now—read Mr. Linney's own words and judge for yourself: "That was a heavy blow you gave the Observer when you intimate that Wilkes had produced a half-breed—Bishop Petty—who possessed as much intelligence as any man in Mecklenburg."

Can any fair, impartial, un-biased man place any such construction upon Mr. Linney's language as the Observer does, in the above paragraph? Mr. Linney does not say a word about Bishop Petty being the equal of any man in Mecklenburg or any other county. He only refers to what the Journal had said of Bishop Petty in its reply to a sling at Wilkes. It's the Journal's language and not Mr. Linney's.

Why can't you Democratic papers once and a while tell the truth about Republicans, without twisting your quotations out of all recognizable shape? There are a lot of good honest men in the Republican party, regardless of the abuse and imaledictions rained down upon their heads by a malicious intolerant Democratic press.

When a Republican leaves his party and joins your ranks he is a patriot, hero and statesman. On the other hand, let a man leave the Democratic party and join the Republican party, and at once the vitals of your wrath are turned loose and you heap upon him vile, slanderous abuse. Like the Jews of old; nothing good could be seen in a Gentile. Such methods have seen their day. The people will no longer be ruled and governed by the bigoted, intolerant demagogues of men who resort to bitter invective, vile misrepresentation of their political antagonists. Away with such men and such methods—lets lead the great common people by addressing their sense of justice, their reason and common sense. The traps set by the Simmons crowd to catch the illiterate white men, have been located and the people are awake.

National Convention to Meet at Philadelphia.

Washington, Dec. 15.—The Republican National Committee after hearing arguments by representatives of New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and St. Louis this afternoon decided that the next Republican National Convention will be held in Philadelphia. June 19 was fixed upon as the date. Philadelphia won on the second ballot, receiving 25 votes to 24 for Chicago.

Pritchard's Resolution on The Amendment.

Gazette Bureau,
Washington, Dec. 20.

The Democratic press of North Carolina seemed to be wrought up to a high pitch over the step taken by Senator Pritchard to secure a little application of the constitution of the United States to the locality in which these papers operate. These papers fear that the resolution introduced by the Senator will not be considered germane to something or somebody and that something unprecedented will be done. It may be of passing interest to those nervous journalists that Senators Stewart, Beveridge and other leading men of the senate are of the opinion that the resolution is altogether in order and they will support it on the floor of the senate. A few days ago when the proposed Payne resolution, looking to the restriction of the southern representation in national conventions was sent to the quiet recesses of a pigeon hole through the influence of southern Republicans it was urged by influential opponents that the southern elections were a matter for congressional attention. Men of national reputation everywhere are glad that the subject is receiving attention from such a high and proper source.

The resolution deals with a question that affects the people of the United States, and therefore Senator Pritchard will press the matter to a vote at the earliest possible moment. "If the leaders of the Democratic party," said Senator Pritchard to me yesterday, "are sincere in their professions with regard to the colored man I cannot understand why it is they do not propose to abrogate the fourteenth and fifteenth amendment of the constitution of the United States. If these amendments were out of the way the Democrats could then deprive the colored man of his vote without coming in conflict with the constitution, and the fact that they do not propose to abrogate these provisions is clear proof to my mind that they propose to disfranchise the poor illiterate white people as well as the colored people of North Carolina."

Some of our Democratic friends are very solicitous about Senator Pritchard's resolution. They pretend to be in favor of the majority ruling, yet they have passed an election law with which they propose to force through an unconstitutional amendment which will virtually nullify majority rule in this State as it has done in South Carolina and Louisiana. We are heartily in favor of congress taking some action in order to guarantee to us a Republican form of government. Like Senator Pritchard, many of us wonder why they have not made an effort to eliminate the negro by the repeal of the 14 and 15 amendments. They don't want the negro retired, he serves their purpose.

Richmond Pearson, who controls the infamous Asheville Gazette, wants to run for Governor next year on the Republican ticket.—Wilkesboro Chronicle.

According to Bob Deal and a few others in this State, every one who does not endorse Simmons Democracy is infamously. A great many people are beginning to think that there are a good many things not altogether good, pure, nice and of good report connected with latter day Democracy in this State. You are not making any friends or votes by your intolerant methods Bro. Deal. The Asheville Gazette is standing by the great common people in their fight for their rights and liberties. Remember the Golden Rule.

A Fusionist Compelled to Leave Wilmington The Second Time.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Dec. 20.—C. P. Lockety, who was expelled from this city during the memorable race trouble of November, 1898, has been in the city for the past week and was waited on by citizen committees during the last 48 hours and advised that it would be wise for him to leave at once, and that too before tomorrow (Tuesday) morning. In compliance with these instructions, he left for Washington on the northbound train to night. Lockety was candidate for judge of the Sixth district on the fusion ticket in 1894 and was city attorney under the old city government November 16th. Lockety was not banished immediately after the riot as were a number of his associates, but was waited on by a committee and asked how long it would take him to wind up his business here. He replied, probably 30 days, and was given the time he asked. This consideration was accorded him because he had not made himself so odious as many of his associates had. Lockety's friends here claim that he would not have returned to Wilmington had he not been assured by certain prominent Democrats that the animosity against him was spent and no objection would be raised to his presence here.

If the above does not disclose a disgraceful state of affairs in this State, we are no judge. In free North Carolina a man is made to leave his home, his property and his business and seek a home elsewhere, and yet we boast of our love of right, justice and freedom. These things have got to stop some where or somebody is going to be hurt. The people are not going to tamely submit to such wrongs always. Instead of heralding such things abroad as something to be proud of, it should be a matter of shame.
