COLLATION OF THE PRO-PORTION OF THE OCCASION.
Did not attend the Educational at Cooleemee last week we have interviewed of those who attended, and formed that Mr. Aycock violates the proprieties of the occasion by injecting politics into his speech.
Cooleemee Cotton Mills have been building a magnificent building and open up a school for the benefit of the men who live at Cooleemee and surrounding country, a laudable and praiseworthy undertaking which our entire people should applaud. Upon the proper education of the young boys and girls of our country its future welfare depends, and every citizen interested in politics and religion, should make it a part of his business to give his time, money and means to this great and noble cause.
We regret that the Governor of the State of North Carolina has gone out among the people to discuss the Educational question saying things that tend to keep a portion of the people away from these things.
Mr. Josephus Daniels in a speech at the close of the School at Harmony, in Ireland, and disgusted not only by the Democratic partisan politics into his speech, and it seems that Mr. Ay-cock should feel on such occasions, that he would be said by the people that would offend in the first place, among those people who did much to promote a success of this educational meeting was Mr. E.
Erwin, General Manager of the mills, and we are informed a wholesome man, but one who came among us to aid us by his knowledge and experience in the cotton mills. He also sees the importance of our people being educated, and is using his influence in the direction of bettering the education of our people. Yet Mr.
Aycock so far forgot himself as to say that he could not love Massachusetts, that he had tried but could not. Unfortunate, unkind, and taken such an occasion to slandering a man who was such a partisan and sectional and did not make a speech with the attempt to array section against section, and in the presence of a Massachusetts man who was teaching a technical course of charge in order to be a poor mechanic to be a skilled and competent.
The thing said by Mr. Ay-cock is a Bourbon and shows that he is not to go over N. C., to teach along Educational lines.
The unbecoming expression shows that they realize the importance of education, and plainly contradicts the old idea that corporations are soulless.
The most liberal and progressive men in the State today are more or less connected with corporations, and the senseless fight against corporations is the veriest humbug in the majority of cases. They should be controlled by just and wise legislation, but should not be unjustly, as in many instances discriminated against. The Democratic party has been killing the goose that laid the golden egg for the past 35 years.

whether we are right. His pompous boasting of what he is doing, and the great majority given him in the election of August 1900 and his partizan shows that self is paramount. Now if we were Mr.
Aycock we would not mention our majority, considering how he got it. We have sort of a contempt for a man who accepts an office he knows was procured by fraud, and sits down at Raleigh and draws a salary rightfully belonging to Hon.
Spencer B. Adams of Greensboro.
We will give you a few figures to show how the White Supremacy candidate got his large negro majority, and yet they squall "nigger" at White folks up here in the West.
Mr. Aycock also spoke of the enormous majority he got, bragged on having been elected by the biggest majority ever given a candidate. Now we will give you a list of counties in the East showing the number of voters of legal age in 1900, and the vote Mr. Aycock and Gov. Adams received. We take Bertie, Northampton, Halifax, Edgecombe, Green, Lenoir, Warren, Wilson and New Hanover.
Voters, White, 22,051, colored 23,065.—vote for Mr. Ay-cock 27,076; vote for Gov. Adams 7,665. Majority for Mr. Aycock 19,411—more nigger voters in these counties than whites yet Mr.
Aycock received 5,026 votes more in the counties than there were white voters of legal age, and if you will add the following counties to the above Anson, Craven, Pender, Richmond, Robeson, Scottland and Union in which Mr. Ay-cock received 15,075 votes and Gov. Adams 3,157, now in these seven counties there were voters of legal age in 1900, whites 16,348; colored 12,999, making in the 16 counties 38,899 white voters of legal age, yet Mr. Aycock received in these 16 counties 42,151 votes, being 3,252 more than the entire white vote in these counties and a majority of 31,329 in these 16 counties in which there were 36, 064 negro voters of legal age, yet Gov. Adams only received 10,822 votes. Now let Mr. Aycock brag as much as he pleases over this showing, and let him not forget at his next Educational appointment to tell the people that he is in favor of carrying out another pledge he made when he took the oath of office, "that there should be honest elections hereafter."
"The people are going to demand it whether he wants it or not." Now in conclusion, if Coolee-mee gets a good school building, one of the best in the State, the Cotton Mill owners will build it, and E. W. Thomas will have the thanks of the people, though he is a Massachusetts Yankee for "doing all in his power to promote the cause of Education in this section of the county."
If we are to have good and efficient schools, and get the people unitedly interested, we must keep politics out of them in any and every form. Down with the political demagogue and flimflammer.
Harrah for Cooleemee.
Some four or five months ago, on our way to Salisbury we met Mr. W. A. Erwin, President of the Cooleemee Cotton Mills, and he spoke to us about their intentions with reference to the establishment of a fine school at Cooleemee.
Mr. Erwin is interested in several cotton mills at Durham, at which place the mills have a very fine school. The action of these cotton mills in establishing good schools for the children of their operatives shows that they realize the im-
porations are soulless.

Physicians Failed.
Ben Wall, Bennettville, S. C., says: I was very sick with fever last fall and after taking $13 worth of Doctor's medicine, and not being benefited thereby, I bought two boxes of Ramon's Liver Pills and Tonic Pellets which effected a complete cure.
