Leaves Court of Appeals After Presiding at Brief Session.

Surrounded by His Old Associates the Democratic Candidate For the Presidency Bids Farewell to the Bench-Returns to Esopus, N. Y., After Formalities at State Capital.

Albany, N. Y.-Shortly after 3 o'clock in the afternoon Alton B. Parker ceased to be Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals. He arrived in this city at 1 o'clock to keep an engagement made with the Appeals Judges, and from 2 until 3 o'clock was with them in the consultation room, where they passed upon sixty-six opinions, practically clearing the calendar of the court. The Judges present were Parker, O'Brien, Martin, Vann, Cullen and Werner. The absentees were Judges Gray, Bartlett and Haight, who are in Europe. At 3.05 the session was at an end and Judge Parker invited the corre spondents into the main chamber, introducing them to the several Judges. Then, before a question could be asked as to his resignation, he turned, and with a wave of his hand said: "Gentlemen, this room was mine." In the next moment he called Buell C. Andrews, one of the clerks, and handing him an envelope asked him to file it with the Secretary of State. To the correspondent a copy, which is as follows, was handed:

"Hon. John F. O'Brien, Secretary of State: "Sir-I hereby respectfully resign my

The Democratic candidate declined to discuss his resignation, but several of his associates were auxious to be quoted in expressing their high regard for Mr. Parker. Judge Martin, who is to go off the bench this year because of age, summed up Judge Parker as a good fellow, a faithful friend and a fearless Judge. Judges O'Brien, Vann Werner and Cullen expressed the opinion that the court would suffer a personal loss by the absence of Judge session that Judge Parker had written his associates three weeks ago asking them to hold this afternoon's meeting and wind up the business of the court, so that he might go more actively into polities. He departed for Esopus at

FORMER MAYOR MURDERED.

Henry Osborne, of Hartford, Conn. Killed by Negro.

Hartford, Conn.-Henry Osborne, & former Police Commissioner and one of the leading business men of this city, was murdered by his former body servant, Joseph Watson. The negro was found in hiding under a bed in the basement of the Osborne home, No. 23 Capitol avenue, after a close search for him had been made in all sections of the city. Outside the house at the time the murderer was found were gathered fully 1000 persons, and as Watson, heavily manacled, was conducted down the steps to the police patrol wagon the air resounded with cries of "Kill him!" "Lynch him!" from the crowd which surged toward the officers as if it derired to take the prisoner.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hall and Two Women Friends Were Detained by a Highwayman Who Rode a Moto Cycle

Philadelphia, Pa.-A. C. Hall, of 337 Broadway, New York City, with a party in an automobile, while en route on Old York road, was held up at the point of a pistol and robbed by a daring highwayman who rode a motor cycle. The highwayman secured $1000 in money and jewelry and made his escape, leaving no possible clew. In the automobile with Mr. Hall were Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Arthur L. Jackson and

Mrs. Thomas C. Walton. They were on their way to the Delaware Water Gap. Mr. Hall and his party left Philadelphia in the afternoon at 4.30 o'clock for the Delaware Water Gap. They had just come up from Atlantic City. Arriving at Willow Grove the party took supper in the Casino at the park there and stayed until 9 p. m. listening to the music of the band. Leaving Willow Grove in the big red double cylinder touring car the party started for Easton by way of Doylestown.

All went well until a heavy grade four and a half miles from Willow Grove was reached. Mr. Hall slowed up to take the steep hill. As he neared the cross roads at the summit he heard the toot of an auto horn and thought another machine was approaching. Then in the light of his own headlight Mr. Hall discerned a motor cyclist fifty feet away. The cyclist rode up to the automobile and pulling out pistol called:

"Get out of that machine - quick -hurry now!" "Why, what do you mean!" gasped

the astonished Mr. Hall. "I mean just what I say, and be quick," replied the highwayman. At that Mr. Hall got down to the ground, assisting the frightened women to alight after him. The highwayman then searched all four, taking Mr. Hall's money and the jewels from the women.

"I need your gasoline. My machine has run out." The request was complied with under the suasion of the revolvers, which he kept constantly aimed at the party. Connecting a rubber tube between the two tanks, the polite highwayman set the pumps working, and soon had Parker. It became known after the the fuel transferred from the touring car to his own tank. This completely disabled the Halls' vehicle, and left their party reduced to locomotion by

RECORD COAL PRODUCTION.

Increase in 1903 19 Per Cent. Over 1902-Increase in Value 38 Per Cent.

Washington, D. C .- Returns made to the United States Geological Survey show that the United States has again exceeded all previous records in the production of coal. The forthcoming report on the country's coal production will show that the total output of the coal mines of this country in 1903 amounted to 359,421,311 short tons.

cation of the Northern Securities Company to pay dividends and distribute This is an increase of 57,830,872 short tons, or 19 per cent. over the production of 1902, which amounted Owing to a legal tangle twenty-two to 301,590,439 tons. The production of 1903 was nearly double that of 1893, and more than three times the output of 1883. The increase of production in 1903 over 1902 was equal to the total production of all kinds of coal Russell Sage was ordered by United in 1878, only twenty-five years ago. The increase in the value of the product was still more noticeable. The value of the coal product at the mines in 1903 amounted to $506,190,733, which, compared with the output in 1902 ($367,032,069), shows an increase of $139,158,664, or nearly 38 per cent., almost exactly double that of the increase of production.
