Senatorial Convention.

The Republican Senatorial Convention of this, the 29th Senatorial District, composed of the counties of Wilkes, Yadkin and Davie is hereby called to meet at Yadkinville on Monday, Sept. 5, 1910, at 1 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of nominating a Senator to represent this district in the next Senate of North Carolina. The delegates elected to said convention will take notice accordingly. This Aug. 4, 1910. F. W. HAMES, Chairman. 29th Sen. Rep. Ex. Comm.

We would call the attention of the Hickory Democrat to the fact that there are 22 democrats begging for office in Union county.

Many of the most prominent democrats of Randolph county say publicly that they will not support Mr. Hammer for solicitor, but will vote for Holton.

Those few people who are afraid of the truth, had better call around and have their paper discontinued. We can run this flag of freedom without their assistance.

Robert N. Page, the present congressman from this district, will have the opportunity of meeting John J. Parker, the republican nominee, on the stump this fall.

Every delegate to the Senatorial convention which meets at Yadkinville on Monday, Sept. 5th, is urged to attend. Don't forget the date, the first Monday in September.

Citizens of both political parties seem to be very much dissatisfied with Mr. Hammer as solicitor. This fall they will have a chance to elect a young man of sterling ability, who will fill the office to the satisfaction of all men.

This Judicial district gave a Republican majority two years ago of 636. With such a majority two years ago, it seems to us that the only thing worth while this fall is to know just how big a majority Holton will get over Hammer.

We have nothing but contempt for the man who is so narrow-minded that he is afraid to read both sides of a question, and thinks everybody fools who do not believe as he does. We have a few people of this calibre in Davie, but thank the Lord, they don't amount to much.

The Republican party did a wise thing for itself in naming Morehead state chairman the other day. It is no use for us Democrats to sneer at Morehead as being Butler's man Friday. He is a clean, able man and his leadership will go a long way towards making Republicanism more respectable than it has ever been. It means harder fighting for Democracy.—Hickory Democrat.

Robert N. Page is doubtless a good fellow, but Davie and the other counties in the 7th Congressional district want a change. They want a man who will do more than draw his salary and his breath. So far as we can learn, Mr. Page has done nothing in particular for this district. Had it not been for a few bundles of free seeds received by some of our people—which, by the way, are not worth planting—the people in this neck of the woods wouldn't know they had a representative in Congress. Mr. Parker, Congressman Page's opponent, if elected, will be in a position to do more for this section than Mr. Page, because he is in sympathy with the administration. The fair-minded people in all parties would do well to think over this matter carefully before casting their votes in November.

Just Whistling to Keep Up Courage.

The fact that they are claiming that Mr. Morehead is but a tool of Mr. Butler does not mean that they believe it.—Durham Herald.

Rockingham Politics.

There was one thing about that Republican convention at Wentworth that grieved us. There were lots of young men there taking part—young men whose fathers were Democrats.—Websters Weekly.

Reedy Creek News.

Our clever man Tolbert, carrier on Advance, R. 3, is off on his vacation. All of Uncle Sam's men are like Roosevelt, they want to get off without their wives, so they can have a big time. Tolbert has eaten all the watermelons on his route, now he has gone to Thomasville, Albemarle, New London and not telling where else. He won't drink when on duty, but if he comes across some new brandy I expect he will give it a try.

Messrs. Gobble and Ripple are getting in the biggest stock of goods that has ever been in Arcadia. They are clever young men and will treat you right. They take The Record.

When two women kiss it doesn't mean any more than when two men shake hands.

In November the majority of the people of Daedison county have made up their minds to take a Stone from Thomasville and put it in Lexington court house.

Mr. W. J. Ellis, of Winston, was at his old home a few days ago.

Mr. T. J. Ellis was in Lexington at court with a little 40 pound mule, but he went back with a good one. Don't know whether he give boot or prevaricated.

Boes can't write much this week. Old Mrs. Kiki bumped his head and it makes me nervous.

Fred Zimmerman is no better. HiKi.

Smith Grove News.

Several of our young people took in the lawn party at Mr. Charlie Long's last Saturday night and some of our pretty girls caught Horns and some Camels, but all had a nice time.

Mr. Dock Martin, of Winston, has been visiting his brothers and sisters in our burg recently.

Mr. M. H. Taylor, of Winston, spent Saturday night with his mother here.

Mrs. Julia Heathcock, of Winston, has been visiting friends and relatives in and around Smith Grove.

Farmers are getting busy breaking wheat land since the nice refreshing showers.

The hot, dry weather has done much damage to the corn crop.

Mr. Pinkney Reavis, of North Iredell, spent last Thursday night with his sister, Mrs. Pearl Owen.

Miss Mattie Shutt, of Advance, spent last Sunday with her friend, Miss Sallie Call, at this place.

Miss Maggie Smith, of Coolemeec, is visiting relatives and friends near here.

WILD BILL.

Congressman Cowles Confident.

Charlotte, Aug. 6.—Republican Congressman Charles H. Cowles, of the Eighth district, spent last night in the city en route to Concord to attend the Cabarrus Republican convention for the nomination of county officers which was held there today. While here Mr. Cowles expressed his conviction that he would carry his district this year by 3,000 majority. He declared that the Eighth is in fine shape and that everything is moving along as well as could be desired. Mr. Cowles carried his district last election by a majority of 1,375. His opponent this year is R. L. Doughton.

David H. Blair For Congress.

Greensboro, Aug. 20.—David H. Blair of Winston-Salem, census supervisor for the fifth district and faithful republican worker, was unanimously nominated for congress today to succeed John M. Morehead, now state chairman, and to oppose Major Charles M. Stedman, the Democratic nominee.

A Surprise Birthday.

On Friday, Aug. 19th, the friends and relatives of Mrs. Ada Atkinson met at her home in the beautiful little town of Farmington, to give her a surprise birthday dinner. It was indeed a surprise to her, for she never gave such a thing a thought. The crowd gathered in the main part of the town and all came down the street together to her home. Very soon the home was full of cheerful faces, while the yard was full of merry children at play. At the hour of twelve a table was spread in the rear of the lawn which contained many good things to eat. When all were gathered about the table, Mr. T. F. Atkinson returned thanks, after which all began to quinch their hungry spirits. After every one had enjoyed the good things to eat, they gathered under the shade of the trees and talked of the past. At about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, we began to depart, leaving Mrs. Atkinson to enjoy the many beautiful presents that were presented her on this occasion. There were about fifty persons present, among them were Grandma Sheek who, though more than eighty years of age, seemed to enjoy the occasion as though she were but a child. We were sorry that Mr. Ben Teague was not feeling very well and couldn't do justice to his part of the good dinner. Many nice watermelons and good apple cider were enjoyed. Every one, we believe, enjoyed the day. We wish for Mrs. Atkinson many more such happy days.

ONE PRESENT.

The health officer of the town of Mocksville should stroll down into the southern portion of the town some lovely evening, and get a sniff of the awful stench that floats heavenward from the abiding place of some of the swine. One trip would suffice. He could not be induced to return again to the place from whence at first he fled.

"When It Rains It Pours."

This old proverb was revealed to Mr. R. L. Booe in two ways on Sunday, Aug. 7th. It was the protracted meeting at Bear Creek, and as usual there was a large crowd present. After preaching in the afternoon, Mr. Booe invited some of his friends to his beautiful country home for a watermelon feast, and 13 accepted the invitation. Before the feast was over it began to rain. It only rained a shower, but continued to look as if another flood was coming. Some of the young people from Courtney decided they would go home as they were in a covered wagon. They started and got about a mile when it began to pour. They thought they would grin and bear it, but when they arrived at the turbid waters of Dutchman creek they found that it was swollen to the extent that they could not cross. So there was nothing to do but turn their faces again toward Mr. Booe's. They arrived before the flood had ceased, and looked as if they had been baptized. The boy who owned the turnout said he didn't mind getting wet so bad, but did hate for his new Nissen wagon to get wet. But he was not the only grief-stricken one, for there were three new buggies, and one of the boys got wet standing on the porch to see if the paint was going to wash off his buggy for it had only been out of Sears, Roebuck's factory about ten days. Another one of the boys said next morning that some one had put a coat of white lead paint on his buggy, but when the sun came out it soon resumed its color. When the "baptists" were all shrouded in dry garments, every one discarded his melancholy looks and all became mirth and merriment, but this did not continue long for two of the boys had mysteriously disappeared, and upon investigation it was learned they had gone to the barn to put up the horses. But why they stayed so long was what puzzled the crowd. After awhile those two boys came rowing up in a cornstalk canoe with wheat straw oars. They said they would not have broke the Sabbath by making their canoe, but they were afraid some of the boys would talk to their girls while they were waterbound at the barn. After their arrival all became calm again, and we had some good music, both vocal and instrumental, and so ended the night. The next morning was cloudy and we were all having such a pleasant time that no one seemed in a hurry to start home, but by and by we all realized that we must return to our homes which were in three counties, Iredell, Yadkin and Davie. When the last one started Mr. Booe gave a sigh of relief and said, "I have always heard that a calm followed a storm, and now we will experience a calm after a double storm." It is said that 13 is an unlucky number, and I believe it, for when the crowd started for Courtney they went way around to a bridge for they knew they could not cross the ford, and when they reached the bridge it was a total wreck and they had to retrace their steps and go to the ford. They got across the ford in safety, and arrived home about 1 o'clock, and have not crossed Dutchman creek since, but they all say they had such a nice time that they are going back again, but hope they will not get waterbound and have to impose on our esteemed friend, Mr. Booe.

ONE PRESENT.

Hooper the Nominee.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 16.—Capt. Benjamin W. Hooper of Newport, Cocke county, was this afternoon nominated for Governor of Tennessee by the Republican State convention which assembled here at noon today. The name of Alfred A. Taylor of Washington county was the only other one presented to the convention and immediately following the announcement of the result of the first ballot the nomination was made unanimous. The ballot stood, Hooper 382, 914; Taylor 201, 514. The convention also endorsed the candidacy of B. A. Euloe, independent man, for Railroad Commissioner from west Tennessee.

The independent State-wide prohibition Democrats who have fought Governor M. R. Patterson every step of his official career are expected to support the ticket nominated today as against the regular Democratic nominees, which includes Patterson re election, and the coming campaign promises to be one of vigor and bitterness.

We See No Such Consolation.

We see some Democrats are taking great consolation over the fact that Morehead is Butler's man, and that this fact will take the place of the "nigger in politics." We see no great consolation in this. As we see it, Butler in politics in North Carolina means trouble and lots of it for the Democratic party.—Catawba County News. (Dem.)

The Lenoir News says that Rev. J. M. Downum has been elected and has accepted a position as teacher in the Appalachiin Training School at Boone. Mr. Downum will have charge of the Latin class. He will leave for Boone the last of this week.

Salisbury Wins Banner.

A. B. Saleeby, a prominent Baraca worker at Salisbury, sends us the following facts, which will be of much interest to the many members of the World Wide Baraca Union in this State:

"We wish to inform you that we received the Baraca Banner from the National Baraca Convention, Marshall A. Hudson, President. This was given as a mark of appreciation for the excellent work done by the Baraca Union of this city. We organized forty classes with a total membership of 2,000, this being more than any other class reported in the Union. Mayor A. L. Smoot was our representative at the convention which was held recently at Jamestown, N. Y."

Every Sunday school in Davie county should have an enthusiastic Baraca class. There are eight or ten in the county, where there should be fifty. Anyone interested in organizing a class would do well to write Mr. Saleeby, who will gladly render any assistance in his power.

It seems that when Johnson knocked Jeffries over the ropes he also knocked prize fighting in this country out of existence.

Silence!

The instinct of modesty natural to every woman is often a great hindrance to the cure of womanly diseases. Women shrink from the personal questions of the local physician which seem indelicate. The thought of examination is abhorrent to them, and so they endure in silence a condition of disease which surely progresses from bad to worse.

It has been Dr. Pierce's privilege to cure a great many women who have found a refuge for modesty in his offer of FREE consultation by letter. All correspondence is held as sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription restores and regulates the womanly functions, abolishes pain and builds up and puts the finishing touch of health on every weak woman who gives it a fair trial.

It Makes Weak Women Strong, Sick Women Well.
