Down on The Farm.

Some of the city-slobberin', high flyin' upper crust of society hike up their noses at the farm boy. The funky white-washed scabs of society who are guilty of throwin' off on the farm boy who goes barefooted and wears overalls, are too insignificant to be growled at by a serofulous tom cat.

But I've seen lots of 'em and know plenty more, and could almost cast a stone to some of their musty dens. They are a shame and disgrace to creation, and it's a wonder the earth don't open its mouth and vomit every time one of these shams make a track on it.

I was raised on the farm myself, and went barefooted and for that reason I can yet feel the sneering insults of such spotted crumple horned cattle. I have been thoroughly tested in the flint-mill of continued adversity, and while profit and loss have swung corners about equally, I have clung to the love and respect I have for the boys down on the farm.

Boys, never mind the fun-pokers from the city, with their yellow shoes and green hats. Don't let them worry you. They would be proud to have a farm and hoe corn and feast on the fruits and foods found on the farm if they could do so without being caught at it by their society friends.

Many of America's greatest men were raised on the farm and went barefooted till they were half-grown. Abe Lincoln went barefooted and pawed up the soil of Illinois with his toe-nails. If some one could find a petrified barefooted track of old Abe over there in Sangamon county, they would soon be rich enough to ride in a Ford Automobile. The people of the whole land would worship that track, and it would be sacredly preserved in the National Museum at Washington. But at the time Abe was making those tracks they were not considered worth looking at. So you never know what is going to happen. Go right ahead, boys, and make your barefooted tracks in the plowed ground of the old farm, and then try to be a Lincoln.

Grant didn't have any shoes when he was a boy. He worked on a farm, and was laughed at by the city dudes who passed along and saw him. And now if the poverty-stricken descendants of those who laughed at him just had one leg of Grant's old breeches they would be independent.

So, boys, don't get disheartened. Hold up your heads and don't be ashamed to get plowed ground between your toes. And when those snobs who make fun of you have turned yellow and dried up from smoking cigarettes, you can go to the city with strength and nerve and good health, and take their places in the business world. Then it will be your turn to laugh at their calamity.—Law's Lash.

Some Pertinent Questions.

"Our Democratic friends are saying that if the Democratic party comes into power it would reduce the expense of this government $300,000,000," says the President. "Do they mean that the Democrats would abolish the pension list? Do they mean that they would give up the navy and disband the army? Do they mean that they would abandon Porto Rico and the Philippines? Let us have a little specification. What are such statements worth unless the gentlemen who make them give us the details of the expenditures that they criticize and expect to avoid if they are let into power and become themselves the national government?"

For pains in the side or chest dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Liniment and bind it on over the seat of pain. There is nothing better. For sale by all dealers.

Governor Aycock's Mad Democrats.

Governor Aycock says that North Carolina only goes Republican when the people get mad with the Democratic party. We will have no controversy with Governor Aycock as to this statement, even though it is not accurate, because the people are mad with the Democratic party this year, and therefore they now have a good reason, according to Governor Aycock, for voting the Republican ticket. The people, however, are reading and thinking as never before, and wherever they are thinking and reading the most, there they are leaving the Democratic party in the greatest numbers. It will be noticed that the Democratic newspapers and speakers are not attempting to appeal to the intelligence of the people and giving reasons why voters should leave the Republican party and come to the Democratic party. They dare not defend their record and discuss the live issues, which it is necessary to do to try to win recruits. All they are doing is dealing in a buse and appealing to the passions and prejudices in a desperate effort to try and keep the honest rank and file of the Democratic party from leaving their false leadership and condemning their record of incompetency and broken promises.

We cannot blame the Democratic party for being at heart against higher education and intelligence. The only hope of continued Democratic success is ignorance and prejudice. Higher education and intelligence means the death of Democratic rule.—Caucasian.

Sikes Admits Defeat.

By actual count, there were exactly six white voters at the Democratic meeting in Method last Saturday. To speak to them were exactly six speakers,—Messrs. Skyes, or Sikes, Seares, Anderson, Lynn, Mial, and Chamblee,—or one speaker to each voter present.

Nevertheless, they "norated" and Messrs. Sikes and Mial both admitted that with the present state of affairs in the county, with the party divided, the Republicans were surely elected. The meeting was a decided frost, and is but a sample of what the Democratic candidates are meeting with everywhere Raleigh Caucasian.

Throw Dirt on The Air Line.

As soon as the preliminaries can be arranged, and they will be arranged promptly, the State will send a squad of fifty convicts to Statesville to begin work on the Statesville Air Line railroad, which is to be built from Statesville via Yadkiaville to Mt. Airy. The State feeds and guards the convicts, taking pay for the work in the stock of the road. As a guarantee that the road will be built and equipped bond must be executed to the State in the sum of $500 per month. A bond of $5,000 will be executed and sent to Raleigh as soon as the form is received, probably today. The railroad authorities have to provide camp and equipment, tools, etc. The location of the camp and the place where work will begin has not been definitely determined but will be in a few days.

If nothing unforeseen occurs dirt throwing on the Air Line should begin before the end of the month.

Man thinks and at once becomes the master of beings that do not think.—Buffon.

Shall Women Vote.

If they did, millions would vote Dr. King's New Life Pills the true remedy for women. For banishing dull, fagged feelings, backache or headache, constipation, dispelling colds, imparting appetite and toning up the system, they're unequalled. Easy, safe, sure. 25c. at C. C. Sanford's.

White Men Disfranchised.

On Saturday, October 8th, E. L. Williams, register for Gap Civil township, refused to register R. K. Edwards of this place. Mr. Edwards is 50 years old and has resided here for over 30 years, paying his taxes, working the roads, and in every way complying with the requirements of a good citizen.

He is one of the best known carpenters and constructors in this section, having planned and constructed a number of the finest residences in this and adjoining counties. For over two years Mr. Edwards was general superintendent for the T. B. Townsend Brick and Construction company of Gausville, O., when he helped to build the courthouse at Charleston, W. Va., a structure costing some $252,000. He has also been foreman for Charles Thomas and company, of Elizabeth, N. J., and other construction companies, and at present is foreman on the courthouse now under construction in this county by the B. F. Smith Fireproof and Construction company, of Washington, D. C.

While Mr. Edwards is not a polished scholar, he is nevertheless, a man of wide general information and as to intelligence he is far above the average citizen. He takes his own newspaper, is a good reader and he keeps his own set of books and accounts, and attends to all his business correspondence.

Mr. Edwards was denied registration on the technical grounds of repeating the words "and" and "shall" in copying a part of the construction. At the same time, one Ed Doughten, was registered, notwithstanding the fact that he is said not only to have repeated, but to have omitted whole lines.

The best people here are indignant and regard the action of Williams as unjust and flagrantly partisan. Our people have not forgotten that only a few years ago Democratic leaders here and all over the state pledged, swore and even offered to enter into bond that no white man should ever be disfranchised on account of the constitutional amendment.

Alleghany County has a good citizenship, which will not stand for political salary always. Watch the results it November.—"A CITIZEN," Sparta, N. C., in Greensboro News, Oct. 15th.

There is little danger from a cold or from an attack of the grip except when followed by pneumonia, and this never happens when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. This remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds and grip and can be relied upon with implicit confidence. For sale by all dealers.

No Wonder They Cuss Butler.

The bonds which Marion Butler collected were not carpet-bag bonds but they were Democratic bonds. Butler made the Democratic party keep one of their solemn broken promises by having the facts and their record investigated and passed upon by the Supreme Court of the United States, and of course they are mad about it. They want to steal and not be caught; they want to break promises and not be told of it, and they want to repudiate an honest debt and are very mad when they are caught in the dishonest act and made to pay their honest debts. That is what is the matter with them. No wonder they cuss Butler.—Ex.

Not Sorry For Blunder.

"If my friends hadn't blundered in thinking I was a doomed victim of consumption, I might not be alive now," writes D. T. Sanders, of Harrodsburg, Ky., but for years they saw every attempt to cure a lung-racking cough fail. At last I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. The effect was wonderful. It soon stopped the cough and I am now in better health than I have had for years. This wonderful life-saver is an unrivaled remedy for coughs, colds, laryngitis, asthma, croup, hemorrhages, whooping cough or weak lungs. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by C. C. Sanford.

FALL TIME.

When the frost is on the pumpkin and the green is off the grass,
When the cider's in the barrel and the apple's in the sass,
When the Tom and Jerry's flowing and the bock is off the beer,
You can bet a large simoleon that the hazy fall is near.

When the hammock's off the porchlet and the melon's off the vine
When tee chipmunk's in his quarters and the paint is off the sign,
When the lover's off the gatepost and the leaves are on the ground,
It is safe to bet your money that the fall has come around.

When the bee is off the flower and the flea is off the dog,
When the seed's in the appendix and the duck is on the bog,
When Gawgie's on the avenue with his chrysanthemum,
You can wager double eagles that the smoky fall has come.

WHEN THE WOMEN WEAR THE PANTS.

I can see a change a-comin'
In society's domain,
For the fashion mill's a-hummin'
And the world's a-growin' vain.
Man who once was lord and master,
Has today no sort of chance,
For the world's a movin' faster,
An' the women wear the pants.

Modesty has been forgotten,
Shame has also taken flight,
An' society is rotten,
An' the fashions are a sight.
If you'll notice just a minute
You can see it at a glance
That the men are never in it
When the women wear the pants.

Wives have worn their husband's breeches
That's a thing we long have known;
But today the little farries
Must have trouiers of their own.
Would to God that I could doubt it,
And dismiss it as a trance;
But there ain't no doubt about it,
For the women wear the pants.

Gives a man the nervous twitches
When his own sweetheart he sees
In a dainty pair of trousers
Discontinued at the knees.
But the fashion now is started
And continues to advance,
An' the men are broken-hearted,
And the women wear the pants.

Will Promote Beauty.

Women desiring beauty get wonderful help from Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It banishes pimples, skin eruptions, sores and boils. It makes the skin soft and velvety. It glorifies the face. Cures sore eyes, cold sores, cracked lips, caupped hands. Best for burns, scalds, fever sores, cuts, bruises and piles. 25c. at C. C. Sanford's.

The Mortgage.

A mortgage is a strange institution. It makes a man rustle, and it keeps him poor. It is a strong incentive to action, and a wholesome reminder of the fleeting months and years. A mortgage represents industry, because it is never idle and never rests. It is like a bosom friend, because the greater the adversity the closer it sticks to a fellow. It is like a soldier, it never hesitates in charging nor fears to close on an enemy. It is like the sand-bag of a thug; silent in its application, but deadly in its effect. Like the very hand of providence, is spread over all creation and its influence is everywhere visible. It is like the grasp of the devil fish, the longer it holds the greater its strength. It will exercise feeling, energy and lend activity to the sluggish brain. No matter how hard the debtor works the mortgage doesn't rest but works harder still. It makes a fellow sour, cross, selfish, unsocial and miserable, and rarely does him any good to exercise him.

Saves an Iowa Man's Life.

The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Iowa, when, after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. For, after eight months of fruitful suffering from liver trouble and yellow jaundice, getting no help from other remedies or doctors, five bottles of this matchless medicine completely cured him. Its positively guaranteed for Stomach, Liver or Kidney troubles and never disappoints. Only 50c. at C. C. Sanford's.
