WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 10, '12

Do your Christmas shopping early.

Pay for your Christmas presents this month.

Somebody is going to be elected President this fall, provided the world stands that long

During 1911 there were seventeen lynchings in Georgia and none in North Carolina. Who would think of leaving the "Old North State."

Help us to make The Record better than ever before by giving us your subscription, your advertising and your job printing.

The Record is the oldest paper in Davie county, and reaches the great bulk of the farmers and mechanics. An ad in this paper will bring you results. Try it.

Col. Henry Watterson says Roosevelt could not carry a single state in the Union were he to be nominated for President. Col. Watterson is a smart man, but there are some things he doesn't know.

This fall a man will be elected to represent Davie county in the Legislature. Before voting for your representative, ask him how he stands on the good roads question and a dog tax.

Our correspondents are earnestly requested to furnish us the news from the various sections of the county. A correspondent is wanted at every postoffice and village in the county where we are not now represented.

If a bond issue for good roads could be voted on now, we believe it would carry. No sensible man could afford to vote against good roads after making a trip through Davie county. Some of the roads are impassible, or almost so. Our merchants have lost thousands of dollars on account of bad roads. During the holidays and just prior to Christmas the roads were so bad that people could not get to town to trade.

If our consumers buy American made goods it means employment for American laborers, and these laborers make money to buy the farmers' products and business becomes good. If we buy European made goods, American manufacturers fail, American laborers become idle and have no money to buy the farmers' products, the farmers' market is destroyed, and business goes to smash. The former condition is the result of protective tariff, the latter the result of democratic free trade. No amount of argument and long drawn out writings on the part of near politicians can wipe out these plain facts.—Lincoln Times.

Kills His Companion.

A sad aftermath of the Christmas holidays in Advance was the accidental shooting and killing of Bahson Orrell, a young white boy 14 years old, while out hunting with John Tolbert, a youth of 12 years.

The two boys, it seems, had flushed a covey of partridges, and became separated, young Tolbert going one way and Orrell the other. In the excitement the gun was fired prematurely, the whole load taking effect in the right side causing death almost instantly. The gun was a single barrel, breech loader, and occasionally went off with a slight jar, and this may account for the fact that the fatal shot was fired into the youth.

The unfortunate young man was a son of Mr. U. H. Orrell, a prominent merchant of this town, and young Tolbert is a son of Mr. Gaunton Tolbert, a rural mail carrier. Both families are highly respected in this community and have scores of friends who sympathize with them in this deplorable accident.

HAIRSTON-GEORGE.

The following clipping from The Charlotte Observer will be of great interest to Mr. Hairston's many friends in this section:
Mrs. Thomas Morduit Nelson George requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter Margaret Elmer to

Mr. Peter Wilson Hairston on the evening of Wednesday the seventeenth of January at six o'clock at Saint James' church Marietta, Georgia.

A Girl's Wild Midnight Ride.

To warn people of a fearful forest fire in the Catskills a young girl rode horseback at midnight and saved many lives. Her deed was glorious but lives are often saved by Dr. King's New Discovery in curing lung trouble, coughs and colds, which might have ended in consumption or pneumonia. "It cured me of a dreadful cough and lung disease," writes W. R. Patterson, Wellington, Tex., "after four in our family had died with consumption, and I gained 87 pounds." Nothing so sure and safe for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Arrested For Theft of Suit Case.

Statesville Landmark.
James Lynch, a white man, was brought to Statesville yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Winecoff, of Cooleemee, and lodged in jail to await trial on the charge of stealing the suit case which was taken from a baggage truck at the Statesville station Thursday morning and later found near the railroad east of town, as told in Friday's Landmark. Lynch answers the description of a man who was seen going down the track with a suit case and there were other circumstances which warranted his arrest.

Frightful Polar Winds

No person can have more than one account at any one time. No person may open a postal-savings account at any postoffice who is not a patron of that office.

All accounts must be opened in person by the depositor or his authorized representative. After opening an account a depositor may forward subsequent deposits to the postoffice by mail.

Deposits will be accepted only from individuals, and no account will be opened in the name of any corporation, association or society, firm, or partnership, or in the names of two or more persons jointly.

No account will be opened in the name of one person in trust for or on behalf of another person or persons.

The service of the Postal Savings System is free, and no charge or fee is collected or required in connection with the opening of an account or the withdrawal of money deposited.

No person connected with the Post Office Department or the postal service is permitted to disclose the name of any depositor or give any information concerning an account except to the depositor himself, unless directed to do so by the Postmaster General.

When a person applies to open an account he must furnish the necessary information for the postmaster or his representative to fill out an application, which he will then be required to sign. If the applicant signs by mark his signature must be witnessed by a disinterested person.

Interest will be allowed on all deposits at the rate of 2 per cent per annum computed on each savings certificate separately, and payable annually. No interest will be paid on money which remains on deposit for a fraction of a year only.

Deposits will bear interest from the 1st day of the month next following that in which deposited.

Interest will continue to accrue on a savings certificate as long as it remains outstanding, certificates being valid until paid, without limitation as to time.

Compound interest is not allowed on an outstanding certificate, but a depositor may withdraw interest payable and include it in a new deposit, which will bear interest at the regular rate.

When given as soon as the croupy cough appears Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will ward off an attack of croup and prevent all danger and cause of anxiety. Thousands of mothers use it successfully. Sold by all dealers.

On Sunday Dec. 24th, 1911 six o'clock p. m. at the home of her parents, Miss Odell Carter became the bride of Mr. John Minor. Only a few relatives and intimate friends were present to solemnize the occasion. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Effie Atkinson, to which the bridal party entered. First came Miss Annie Carter, sister of the bride with Mr. Bounce Sheets, next came Miss Mattie Hendrix with Mr. Leon Stewart, after these followed the bride and groom. Never before had the bride looked so lovely nor the groom so handsome. The ceremony was very impressively performed by Prof. W. F. Merrell. After taking the vows which made them man and wife and receiving congratulations the parties were ushered into the dining room where a bounteous supper was served. Misses Atkinson and Sheets served at the table. After supper the merry crowd returned to the parlor where they enjoyed songs and music. At ten o'clock the crowd began to disband, leaving the happy couple to themselves. Miss Carter is one of the communities brightest and sweetest young girls, Mr. Minor one of its most promising young men. Their many friends wish for them a long and prosperous life together.

Delightful Reception.

The floating reception at the Baptist parsonage on Christmas day, was quite a delightful occasion, regardless of the rain and mud. While not so many of the membership were present as could have been wished, still many were registered, in spite of the inclement weather. The rooms were beautifully decorated with holly, ferns and other Christmas decorations, the dining room especially being very beautiful. Mrs. Dr. Martin received at the front door, and carried each guest to the receiving line, where they were met by Miss Lenora Taylor, who carried them to the reception room to meet the pastor and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson met their guests in their usual charming manner, making each guest feel free and at home. The guests were then ushered into the dining room and received by Mrs. John Minor, where dainty refreshments were served. The young people and children were given possession of the parlor, where they amused themselves in different ways. Many handsome gifts were presented to the family. All those present enjoyed the evening very much, and will be glad of another opportunity to visit this delightful home.

When buying a cough medicine for children bear in mind that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is most effectual for colds, croup and whooping cough and that it contains no harmful drug. For sale by all dealers.

A Hero In A Lighthouse.

For years J. S. Donahue, So. Haven, Mich., a civil war captain, as a lighthouse keeper, averted awful wrecks, but a queer fact is, he might have been a wreck, himself, if Electric Bitters had not prevented. "They cured me of kidney trouble and chills," he writes, "after I had taken other so called cures for years, without benefit and they also improved my sight. Now, at seventy, I am feeling fine." For dyspepsia, indigestion, all stomach and liver and kidney troubles, they're without equal. Try them. Only 50c. at all druggists.

A Delightful Occasion.

By special invitation for Dec. 29th, the postoffice force, consisting of Postmaster B. O. Morris, Carrier W. F. Stonestreet and substitute W. K. Stonestreet, J. A. Daniel, B. M. Stonestreet and wife and your humble scribe; also Miss Rose Meroney, Mess. John and Robert Bailey gathered at the home of Carrier H. C. Meroney for the avowed purpose of devouring a big fine turkey, which Mrs. Meroney had so successfully prepared as to prove beyond a doubt that the art of cooking is not lost. At 7:30 we did ample justice to the excellent dinner, consisting of numerous courses of which the luscious turkey was decidedly fine. After all appetites were satiated, the entire party repaired to the parlor to enjoy some fine music rendered by Messrs. W. F. Stonestreet and Robert Bailey, violinists, John Bailey guitar, and our hosts' accomplished daughter, Miss Ella, accompanying on the organ. Regrettably we tore away, trusting it may be our lot to enjoy a similar feast at some future date with this excellent family. May their shadows never grow less.

May Escape Electric Chair.

Boston, Jan. 7.—Speculation was rife today as to what ultimately will be the fate of Rev. C. V. T. Richardson, who confessed to the murder of his former sweetheart, Avis Linnell. From a source close to Governor Foss the statement came today that the attitude of the executive probably would be in favor of a commutation of sentence of death in the electric chair to one of life imprisonment, if the law's fullest penalty is imposed by the court.

Bryan Says Nothing To It.

Tampa, Fla Jan. 3.—"I can not conceive of any condition that would make it possible for me to consider the question of my becoming a candidate for the presidential nomination of the Democratic party in 1912," was the declaration of William Jennings Bryan, when he arrived here today from Havana.

Fighting Bob Died Suddenly.

Washington, Jan. 3.—Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, retired, died suddenly this afternoon of acute indigestion. He was ill less than two hours.

Admiral Evans was born in Floyd county, Virginia, and was 65 years of age. He apparently was in better health and spirits today than for some time past. Though for years he had been a sufferer from old wounds sustained in the civil war, and from recurrent attacks of rheumatism and gout, the aged fighter seemed to have shaken off the burdous of advancing days.
