WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 27, 1913.

Some folks manage to make a lot of noise with a mighty small amount of money. But it all comes out in the wash.

We are glad The Record is not printed in a one-horse one man town, where a "high mogul" has to be consulted before an article can be printed.

Harry Thaw may not be crazy, but we think he acted like a fool when he was captured. Better to remain in an asylum all his life than to be electrocuted.

Davie county's extra term of Superior court is in session this week. This was one thing that Davie county did not need. Our farmers are too busy to spend a week in town just at this time of the year.

If the sales and trade day to be held in this city next Monday is a success, the same will be kept up. It depends on the farmers of the county as to whether it will be continued.

The Record tries to be accurate in giving the news. Sometimes we are misinformed and print mistakes, but we are always glad to correct them when our attention is called to same. The editor does not claim to be infallible.

Remember that next Monday is sales and trade day in Mocksville. Every farmer in Davie county is urged to come to town on that day. A large number of prizes is being offered by the merchants and business men of the town.

When the North Carolina legislature meets in special session next month, there are several matters of importance to be threshed out. It is to be hoped that some man with a little grit and backbone can get a dog law for Davie county before the legislature if they are going to devote any time to such things.

DAD'S OLDEST GIRL.

Indictment of Mr. R. B. Horn in Yadkin.

On charges growing out of the closing of the doors of the East Bend Bank a few weeks ago, the Yadkin county grand jury yesterday returned two indictments—one against Cashier J. Lee Norman, charging embezzlement, and the other against Mr. R. B. Horn, who is charged, it is said, with aiding and abetting the cashier in embezzlement of funds of the bank and in making false entries on the books of the bank.

Bonds in the sum of $5,000 were ordered by the presiding judge and Cashier Norman furnished the required bond. Mr. Horn is understood to be in Lynchburg, Va., but is expected to arrive here at any time and will readily furnish the bond as soon as the papers are served on him.

A special to The Sentinel from Raleigh this afternoon states that the charges against Mr. Horn are principally that Mr. Horn and Cashier Norman "kited" checks and resorted to various means of using the funds and credit of the bank for the furtherance of their personal interests. Among other things, it is alleged, there is a letter to Cashier Norman from Mr. Horn, in which Mr. Horn enclosed a check signed in blank, with instructions to the cashier to fill it in for any sum needed to the extent of ten thousand dollars in the event he should have "a visitor," meaning, the authorities claim, in the event a bank examiner came along and the condition of the bank needed that much to make its condition such as to satisfy the examiner as to its sound condition.

The bank being a state institution and therefore subject to the state laws, the case will probably be taken up in superior court of Yadkin county at the next term of court.

Thaw Captured.

Harry K. Thaw, the murderer of Stanford White on Madison Square roof garden in New York seven years ago, is again in the lime-light, having made a sensational escape from the insane asylum at Mattawan, near Poughkeepsie, N. Y., last Sunday morning. He made his way to Canada, where he was captured Tuesday and is being held pending extradition back to the United States. Thaw stands charged with no criminal offense, being declared insane, which is not a crime, and it is now a question of law as to whether he can be taken back to New York, even though he is turned back to the United States.

Dr. Hennessee Not Guilty.

The trial of the case of State vs Hennessee came to an end at Morganton Monday when the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty after 36 hours of deliberation. Dr. E. A. Hennessee is the man who fought the famous battle at Glen Alpine several months ago that resulted in the death of Gorman Pitts and the infliction of about 100 wounds on his own body.

We would have had a wedding on Diker's Creek last week, but the young man never showed up.

Mr. J. W. Walsler sells the sweet kind of granulated yet at $1.25.

Guess T. J. Ellis and C. C. Waller got hauled under. Never see them pass any more.

T. E. Odom has accepted a position in a grocery store at Hickory, and left the first of the week to go to work. His family will remain here for a short time, after which they will move to Hickory.

The suit brought against Prof. J. D. Hodge, of Augusta, by Messrs. Logan and Mackie, was tried in Yadkin court last week Mr. Mackie gets $1,000, and Mr. Logan gets $500. The case has been in court for several years.

A reunion of those who formerly lived in the Cherry Hill section of Davie county is being arranged for the 5th Sunday in August. It is proposed to have some suitable short addresses, and a picnic dinner to be a feature of the day, and all are requested to bring baskets. Songs to be sung will be from the old prayer and praise, the book used there some years ago, and all who have copies of this book are asked to bring them. The exercise to begin at 10 o'clock. HERBERT CLEMENT,
T. B. BAILEY,
Z. N. ANDERSON,
Directors.

Alpha Local Union will picnic on Saturday, the 30th of August, at Pine Grove School House, in Scotch Irish township, Rowan county. Exercises will begin at 10 o'clock, a. m., with music, addresses, dinner, etc. The public is cordially invited.

The biggest land sale that ever happened in Davie county will be held soon. Keep your eye on The Record and watch for the big ad which will appear in next week's paper. A number of fine farms close in.

The county bonds have not been sold yet. A bonding house representative was in town Friday consulting with C. G. Bailey, but no agreement was reached. It is hoped that the matter can be disposed of at an early date.

The summer term of Davie Superior Court is in session this week, with Judge Long presiding. The crowd is not near so large as in the past, and but few cases of importance are to be tried. We go to press too early to give any of the cases disposed of. Two or three days at most will doubtless wind up the docket.

The concert given at the graded school Friday evening by Mr. W. C. Wright, Jr., violinist; Miss Lilla Gray Mallard, vocalist; and Miss Minnie Lon McNair, pianist, of Winston, was a success in every particular, and the sum of $7.65 was turned over to the library. Those who missed this concert will always regret it. It was the best ever heard in Mocksville.

Meachem, convicted at the 1913 Spring term of the Superior court of Davie county for the crime of selling spirituous liquor, and sentenced to jail of Davie county for a term of 18 months, and assigned to the public roads of Forsyth county. All persons who oppose the granting of said pardon are invited to forward their protests to the Governor without delay. This the 18th day of August, 1913.
