STILL PARTY OF THEORIES

Democrats Have Shown That in the Main They Are, as Ever, Visionaries.

The feature of President Wilson's ante-election letter which most opened to criticism was its tendency to translate laws into results and take for granted that a bill passed in the same thing as a reform achieved. He wrote of the new tariff, for instance, as if it had already demonstrated its ability to lower prices and curb monopoly. It has been ever thus with the Democratic propagandists. To the average promulgator of Democratic doctrinals theory is as good as demonstrated fact, and when warm-air promises come to nothing other warm-air promises are offered in the confident belief that fooling the people all the time is as easy as blowing bubbles from a clay pipe.

As to the Wilson-Underwood tariff having "set business free," business will probably ponder deeply over what manner of "new freedom" has been created for its benefit. It was in the promise when Congress was called in to special session to make over the tariff in accord with Democratic theories, that, under the working of these theories new life and energy would be put into all branches of home industry, the cost of living would be lowered, and, in short, that such an era of prosperity would be ushered in as the country has never experienced.

Nothing of the kind has happened, but here are the rainbow-chasing Democratic propagandists with the President at their head ignoring the demonstrated facts and claiming that it has happened. Instead of setting business free, the Democratic tariff during the eight months of its uninterupted performance was operating in a way to put business out of business. The study of government trade reports from January to July will substantiate the foregoing assertion.

SMALL COMFORT FOR WILSON

Recent Vote Showed the Administration's Policies Reputed by the Voters.

The smashing fact of the election lies in its demonstration that the national Republican party is a revived and forceful quantity. It has carried New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio, retained Connecticut, and exhibited increased strength through the country. The great Democratic majority in the House of Representatives is cut to a small margin. This result is the more emphatic because it comes upon the heels of strenuous efforts by the administration at Washington in the states which have changed from the Democratic to the Republican column. In New York, for example, the administration put forth tremendous efforts in behalf of Glynn and Gerard, candidates respectively for the governorship and the senatorship. Half the members of the cabinet went on the stump in New York, and the President himself by letters and personal interviews took an active hand in the campaign. In the face of the returns from New York and elsewhere it now becomes apparent that the Wilson administration is not the highly approved and popular force that it has been asserted to be. Democratic politicians have not won the country; by inference they will not command its support in 1916.

Shows Distrust of Democrats.

Throughout the nation the returns show the diminution of Democratic power to a degree that points to the overthrow of that party at the first opportunity. The nation—the business men, the workingmen, the thoughtful students of public life—have registered a vote against the party in power that cannot fail to carry its warning. The country is to be congratulated; the Republican party is to be congratulated. The business and the laboring elements are to be congratulated. The Socialists and Labor tickets have suffered, and the net result is highly advantageous to the Republicans. The returns are pregnant with meaning, not solely for their numerical showing, but for the strong tendency they disclose toward the return of the Republican party in power and the distrust of the Democrats.

Colonel Harvey's Serenity.

Serenely, then, we guess—that the Democrats will have a majority of between fifty and a hundred in the next year; that Governor Glynn will carry New York by more than fifty thousand; that Mr. Gerard will get even with Colonel George Harvey in North American Review.

Simply Logical Result.

A tariff act that diminished our revenue without cutting the cost of living; an income tax to make good the loss of revenue; a war tax to make good the failure of the income tax—these are but a few of the important reasons for sending more Republicans to congress.

A Parable Told in Fact.

A man went to Salisbury some weeks ago and took subscription as to a paper. He never sent the paper, although a number of people paid him for it. They got in behind the man, found him in Savannah, Ga., took him to Salisbury, kept him in jail until court and last week they tried him in court and sentenced him to two years on the chaingang. He got what was coming to him, and you will agree with us in saying that the rascally newspaper man who got the hard earnings of citizens and put that money down in his pocket and never sent a copy of the publication he took subscriptions for to the subscribers for to the subscribers deserves to break rock on a chaingang. The court did a plenty for J. H. Mays, for that is the name of the man who took the money for a periodical and gave nothing in return, but it did not do too much for him. And we know you will join with us in saying, "served him right." But folks, in all fairness, how about the man who orders the newspaper man to send him a paper and the newspaper man fills that order in good faith, sends the paper every time it is published, goes to great expense to do so and then the fellow who subscribed absolutely refuses to pay for it. How about that man and how much better is he than J. H. Mays, the convicted man, who got the hard earnings of citizens and gave nothing in return? We have sat with you, kind reader, in the jury box and in the high court of public opinion have found Mays guilty. The court of law has tried him and found him guilty. The case of the newspaper man who gets a thing of value from his fellow citizens and gives nothing in return has been disposed of. The accused has been found guilty and is out yonder on the roads making a smooth highway for the man who does not pay for his paper to ride over. Now call the next case. Bring into court the man who got the paper and would not give up his money, now that the case of the man who got the money and would not send his paper has been disposed of and let him be tried. Right here we leave the jury box. We are not "fitten" to sit in judgment on the case. Try him and render your verdict.—The Monroe Enquirer.

Rowan county officers also go on the salary basis December 1st. Under the Rowan law the county commissioners fix the salaries and in order to this intelligently all the officers have been required to keep an account of fees collected the past year and this will be used as a basis for the amount of salary allowed.

Sick Headache.

Sick headache is nearly always caused by disorders of the stomach. Correct them and the periodic attacks of sick headache will disappear. Mrs. John Bishop of Roseville, Ohio, writes: "About a year ago I was troubled with indigestion and had sick headache that lasted for two or three days at a time. I doctored and tried a number of remedies but nothing helped me until during one of those sick spells a friend advised me to take Chamberlain's Tablets. This medicine relieved me in a short time." For sale by all dealers.

Greatest Slaughter in History.

"It is not war, it is a holocaust. The greatest slaughter in the world's history is going on behind the censorship curtain in France. When the world learns of the price that has been paid it will be staggered, sick at heart."

That was the way the Rev. James Malloy, who landed in New York Friday summed up the European war. He knows far more about it than anyone else who has so far reached these shores. For two weeks and five days Father Malloy was on the actual firing line. He acted as chaplain, attached to General French's personal headquarters, and he recited a story of conflict, of men slain by the hundreds, that thrilled even skeptical ship news reporters.

STOP THE CHILD'S COLDS THEY OFTEN RESULT SERIOUSLY

Colds, Croup and Whooping Cough are children's ailments which need immediate attention. The after-effects are often most serious. Don't take the risk—you don't have to. Dr. King's New Discovery checks the Cold, soothes the Cough, allays the inflammation, kills the Germs and allows Nature to do her healing work. 50c. at your Druggist. Buy a bottle today.

Mrs. McClain's Experience With Croup.

"When my boy, Ray, was small he was subject to croup, and I was always alarmed at such times. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy proved far better than any other for this trouble. It always relieved him quickly. I am never without it in the house for I know it is a positive cure for croup," writes Mrs. W. R. McClain, Blairsville, Pa. For sale by all dealers.

Advertising.

Newspaper advertising does not necessarily build business.

If it is properly prepared, it will bring people to the place of business of the advertiser.

Then it is up to the business man to do the best kind of advertising he can possibly do—take care of the people attracted by his printed messages.

There are two kinds of advertising that do not pay—dishonest advertising and advertising that isn't lived up to.

By not living up to advertising is meant not backing it up with service to the customer—something that every advertisement implies and something that every man or woman who responds to advertising has a right to expect.

A Lesson in Democratic Catechism.

What is the cause of the low price of cotton?—Answer, The war.

What is the cause of the low price of tobacco?—The war.

What is the cause of the high price of flour?—The war.

What is the cause of the high price of sugar?—The war.

What is the cause of the high price of beef?—The war.

What is the cause of the high price of pork?—The war.

What is the cause of the high price of horses and mules?—The war.

What has caused the money put in the U. S. treasury by the Republicans to vanish?—The war.

What has caused all these hard times and human suffering?—The war.

What caused the drouth last Summer?—The war.

It will be observed that the Democrats charge every bad thing that has happened during the Wilson administration to the war.

—Funny, isn't it!

Progressives Rebuked.

Back of the victory of the Republicans is the sign of the times. The Progressive party, that maladroit and malicious combination of deception and fraud, against the Republican party and the intelligence of its following, has been shorn of all its pretense and stands out as repudiated in New York. It made itself the agent of Tammany, while shouting against boss rule. The duplicity brought about the appropriate results and that party in the empire state is a thing for scoffing.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J.
