

The Davie Record.

"HERE SHALL THE PRESS, THE PEOPLE'S RIGHTS MAINTAIN; UNAWED BY INFLUENCE AND UNBRIBED BY GAIN."

VOLUME XXI
MOCKSVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA, WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, JANUARY 21, 1920. NUMBER 28

Was Shy in Her Manners.

A girl sat in the parlor car of a railway train. She was a pretty little creature, but so shy in her every manner that a man blushed at his own audacity if he found himself gazing at her. She looked like a girl from another age, the age when your grandmother was a young girl, and young girls loved to be feminine. Her clothes were not old-fashioned. She had a demureness that modern girls do not usually carry with them. She read a book most of the time. When she wasn't reading her quiet eyes were watching the scenery. Although the several male passengers on the train looked at the sweet-faced girl often, there was not a man on the train so far as the girl was concerned. She simply did not see them. She did not over-look them with a haughty stare. They were just not there so far as she could see. Her artlessness was something at which to marvel.

She sat quietly in her chair, her skirts neatly tucked about her ankles. And she read her book or viewed the scenery.

Passengers wondered if this fragile bit of innocence was traveling far. The men passengers felt that she should have some man to shield her from the dangers of the world. The women decided that she was a novice on her way to some convent with all worldliness gone from her heart. There was none on that car, either man or woman, who dared violate the sanctity of the barriers that the girls maidenly reserve had erected about her.

The train stopped on some out-of-the-way sidetrack for a tiresome wait. For nearly an hour the train stood there. The shy young traveler did not lose her dignity with any display of restlessness. She quietly sat in her chair and read her book.

Then a porter passed through the car and the girl, languidly laying aside her book looked up at the man and spoke. There was no anger, no impatience in her voice, only slight weariness. She said, and in the quietness her sweet voice was plainly audible through the car, "What in the hell are we standing here for?"

The young woman immediately resumed her shy silence and maintained it to the end of the journey. But the women passengers went home telling about the "vampire" they saw on the train.—Statesville Landmark.

To the Dyspeptic.

Would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles are over, that you can eat any kind of food that you crave? Consider then the fact that Chamberlain's Tablets have cured others—why not you. There are many who have been restored to health by taking these tablets and can now eat any kind of food that they crave.

Boy, Page Ananias!

Seven years ago a farmer living west of this city hung his vest on a fence in the barnyard. A calf chewed up a pocket in the garment in which was a standard gold watch. Last week the animal, a staid old milch cow, was butchered for beef, and the timepiece was found in such a position between the lungs of the cow that the respiration—the closing in and the filling of the lungs—kept the stem-winder wound up, and the watch had lost but four minutes in the seven years.—Mason City, Iowa, Globe.

Don't You Forget It.

Bear in mind that Chamberlain's Tablets not only move the bowels but improve the appetite, and strengthen the digestion. They contain no poison or other digestive ferment but strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally.

From a Labor Paper.

Warning labor that all that it has gained in the past is in danger owing to the actions of "unscrupulous, Red-minded, Black-hearted, Yellow-streaked agitators," the Illinois Journal of Labor depicts in the following forceful language the situation that confronts the wage earners of the country:

"Industry will no longer operate in the face of Red Radicalism. While it recognizes that fair wages must be paid, it will no longer stand for unreasonable demands. It will no longer stand for violation of contracts entered into in good faith between employer and employee. It will not stand for unreasonable agitation. All of these the radicals have pressed too far. Industry knows a way out. It is determined. It is ready to shut down. It is through dealing with the radicals or anybody which shows Red influence Industry is not only ready and willing to shut down but is prepared to remain shut down for three months, six months, or longer. Many plants over the country have already shut down. The selfish radical, always a big talker but bad manager, who cares not for you, or your family is to blame. If you follow him further you will help to bring on the hour when you will be without work or money. When your savings are gone you can get in the free soup line or starve, for all the radical cares. He can't feed and clothe you, and industry does not feel called upon to do so except when it is 'going' and you can give it an honest days work in return for honest wages.

"This is a rule—AN HONEST DAYS WORK FOR HONEST WAGES.

"Gone are the days of 1918 and all of 1919. Gone are the days when a man could waste his employer's time agitating or listening to agitators. Those days the Red radical, by his insane demands, and constant agitation, has killed. They belong to the past now. Any one who tries to make you believe differently is as dishonest with you as has been the radical. He is not your friend, nor is he the friend of labor.

"But ALL is not lost. It is not yet too late to save that which is JUST and FAIR. A full day's work, with close attention to business, you must give in exchange for your wages. The good wage, good hours, and fair general conditions which you have had can be saved if you act quickly enough. The employer is not going to be unreasonable. He is not going to take advantage of your need for work and wages, but you, and you only, can save these for yourself."

The Journal of labor then proceeds to emphasize once more the absolute necessity for the eradication of the Reds from labor unions, urging every member of a union to throw out the radicals and save themselves.

No Great Act of Heroism Required

If some great act of heroism was necessary to protect a child from croup, no mother would hesitate to protect her offspring, but when it is only necessary to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and give it as soon as the first indication of croup appears; there many who neglect it. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is within the reach of all and is prompt and effectual.

We doubt very much whether even Santa Claus could win on the Democratic ticket next year.

Colds Cause Grip and Influenza

LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE Tablets remove the cause. There is only one "Bromo Quinine." E. W. GROVE'S signature on box. 30c.

It's about time now for the wrappers on the Christmas cigars to begin crumbling.

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic

restores vitality and energy by purifying and enriching the blood. You can soon feel its strengthening, invigorating effect. Price 60c.

Bryan Eliminates all Except Bryan.

Even Josephus Daniels, his long time friend and supporter, has been blackballed by William Jennings Bryan in gliding over the list of presidential possibilities, according to a story published in the New York Tribune, Republican. The Tribune reports that Mr. Bryan has culled the Democratic list until there is practically nobody on it except Mr. Bryan himself and the New York newspaper regards Bryan as squarely in the race and asserts that "panic has seized the party."

Referring to alleged conversations Mr. Bryan recently had with close friends, the article says in brief that the "peerless leader" plucked off nearly all Democratic aspirants, one by one. Reaching Mr. Daniels, who incidentally, recently said he was not a candidate, the Tribune story observes:

"The biggest surprise Mr. Bryan gave was his opposition to the nomination of Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy, and one of the most consistent and enthusiastic Bryan men in the country since 1896, when Bryan made his first presidential race. No issue being apparent on which to veto Daniels, since the secretary follows Bryan himself on all issues, including grape juice, the Commoner barred Mr. Daniels with the brief comment that 'there is no necessity for nominating a man from the south.'"

Herbert Hoover was not mentioned at these conferences, and apparently the colonel did not take the boom for Vice President Marshall seriously, since he was not mentioned, either.

The story says that Bryan eliminated McAdoo because the latter is the President's son-in-law and is a former cabinet member who would be vulnerable to most of the attacks which could be made on the administration. Attorney-General Palmer is said to have been mildly objected to "because he has not been working very hard" at bringing down the cost of living and was out-generated in the "big five" packers case.

Bryan is said to have disqualified Senator Underwood because he was allied with the "interests," particularly the liquor interests, and Senator Pomerene was blocklisted because he had been "wet."—Greensboro News.

Pepto - Mangan Brings Bloom of Health

Helps Restore Worn-Out, Thin-Blooded Men and Women to Health and Happiness.

Physicians Recommend It

Sold in Liquid and Tablet Form Both Possess Same Medicinal Value—Insist on "Gude's"

Most every case of a sallow complexion and a languid feeling is traceable to watery, impoverished blood deficient in oxygen-carrying red blood cells.

Inasmuch as the entire system depends on the blood for its nourishment and strength it is readily understood why thin-blooded people always feel worn-out and run-down.

And it is equally plain that to restore the vigor of rugged health, the blood should be supplied with the needed qualities to enable it to build up the system.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan accomplishes this very result. In a short time the beneficial results are clearly manifest. The cheeks fill out and regain the bloom of health, the eyes sparkle, the step regains its elasticity, the whole system is filled with greater vitality.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan is a safe, beneficial and pleasant tonic. Agrees with the most delicate stomach, and is obtainable in either liquid or tablet form.

Be sure the name "Gude's" is on the package when you buy Pepto-Mangan. Ask the druggist for "Gude's." If "Gude's" is not on the package it is not Pepto-Mangan.

New Census is Expected to Show Over 107,000,000.

Enumerators to the number of 85,000 began Friday to take the census of the United States. The taking of this census, the fourteenth in the history of the nation, is expected to require only about two weeks, but figures showing the total population probably will not be available until the end of April.

The count is expected to show a population of from 107,000,000 to 112,000,000, as compared with 93,000,000 in 1910. The estimated population on July 1, 1919, was 106,871,294. Cards will be collected by 372 supervisors and forwarded to headquarters, where 4,000 clerks will be engaged in the tabulation work.

The fourteenth decennial census is the first to be taken during the winter months. While severe weather may be a handicap in some sections, the change was made in order that the enumeration might be completed before the election primaries of the summer season. For the first time, also, women have been employed as supervisors. The maximum pay allowed by law is 4 cents a person, with a higher rate for farm land. Congress appropriated $22,000,000 for the work.

The first census taken in 1790 during the administration of George Washington, showed population of the new republic to be 3,000,000.

Our Declaration of Independence

Was declared because of the tyranny of the King of Great Britain. In it we find that our fore-fathers charged him with the following:

"He erected a multitude of new offices, and sent swarms of officers to harass our people and eat out their substance.

"He kept among us, in time of peace, standing armies without the consent of our legislature.

"He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution."

If the above was wrong then, it is now. Do we see anything like this now, or tending in that way? If so, who is responsible, the King of Great Britain, or some other king?—Times-Mercury.

Piles Cured in 6 to 14 Days

Druggists refund money if PAZO OINTMENT fails to cure Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles. Instantly relieves Itching Piles, and you can get useful sleep after the first application. Price 50c.

Europe Willing.

According to Senator Brandegee of Connecticut none need lose a moment's sleep over the question of the European nations not accepting the League of Nations with the reservations proposed by the Republicans. Senator Brandegee believes that Europe will accept the Americanized pact if given the chance.

The Best Cough Medicine.

When a druggist finds that his customers all speak well of a certain preparation, he forms a good opinion of it and when in need of such a medicine is almost certain to use it himself and in his family. This is why so many druggists urge and recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. J. B. Jones, a well known druggist of Cubrun, Ky., says, "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for the past seven years, and I have found it to be the best cough medicine I have ever known."

A Common Conclusion.

The 9th North Carolina Congressional District, where, on a full vote the usual Democratic majority of 4,000 or more is cut to 1,100, furnishes further evidence of the justness of White House appraisals of public opinion. Kentucky, Oklahoma and now North Carolina all point to a common conclusion.—N. Y. Tribune.

The Quinine That Does Not Affect the Head Because of its tonic and laxative effect, LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE is better than ordinary Quinine and does not cause nervousness nor ringing in head. Remember the full name and look for the signature of E. W. GROVE, 30c.

"THE STORES OF SATISFACTION."

Do You Know That Clothes Are Advancing?

Every garment in our house at present prices represents a real value. This is not just alarming talk, but a statement based on real facts.

Suits bought for Spring are running above 25 per cent in price over prices for Fall.

You certainly make no mistake when you buy clothes at today's prices.

TWO BIG STORES
STATESVILLE CLOTHING CO.,
AND CROWELL CLOTHING CO.

At The Side Show.

You don't mind paying 25c. for a photograph of the wild man of Borneo even though he was born and raised in Boston.

It's all right to be "taken in" when you are expecting it but not pleasant to be "taken over" by surprise.

The men and young men who believe they can buy a $50 suit or overcoat for $32.50 in a January Clothing Sale are going to experience how it feels to be caught with their guard down. They are, if they buy, going to pay all the clothes are worth and the sale is going to make enough profit to pay for its sign and its barker.

OUR NO SALE POLICY

protects you against disappointment and dissatisfaction. Here you pay one fair price no matter when you buy---and get the full worth of your money no matter what you pay.

"IT PAYS TO PAY CASH."

BOYLES BROTHERS COMP'Y

"SAVE THE DIFFERENCE."

Trade St., Winston-Salem, N. C.