- Dr. Turner Abernethy, and aged and respected citizen of Catawba county, died last Saturday.

- Miss Addie Walton, after a long visit to Georgetown, has gladdened friends and home circle by her return.

- Miss Nettie Ward, who has been at school at Greensboro for some time, is at home for the summer.

- Mr. J. P. Alexander, of Gibbs P. U., gave us a pleasant call Tuesday. Thinks wheat will be over half a crop. and says the prospect for corn was never better.

ABOUT OUR EXCHANGES. We are frequently put to great inconvenience on account of persons taking our exchanges out of the office. Genflemen are welcome to read them in the office but not to take them out, A word ### to the wise is sufficient. WHY IS IT?

There is not a paper published in the State, except Morganton, but in which you will find the cards of a majority, if not all, of the lawyers and doctors of the town. Why is it the professional men of Morganton do not advertise? Is it because their business will not justify an advertisement? or is it that they are too poor? or is it that they do not appreciate the value of printer's ink. We know times are hard, but this is one reason why you should make a greater effort. Give us an advertisement and we will throw business into your hands. CONMISSIONER'S ELECTION.

There will be an election soon of a commissioner to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. Tull. It is conceeded by all that the southern or eastern part of the county is entitled to the place, and there is some good material to select from, Horace Conley, of Lovelady, L. F. Warlick, of Icard, P. P. Mull and Joseph Mull, of Lower Fork,--either of those gentlemen would fill the place with credit and do honor to their section.

A DOWNFALL.

No man can be so well situated but what he will be subject to a sudden downfall. A certain gentleman in town was accustomed to "sleeping behind." A short time ago, in order to have a change, proposed to his better half that he would occupy the front side. All went well until the wee hours of the morning, when his wife was aroused by a sound as of distant thunder. She exclaimed, "My dear, what in the world is the matter?" "Wife, come here quick; I have rolled out of the bed and hurt myself. Strike a light and see how bad I am hurt, and let me get behind. for I'll never sleep before again while I keep my senses."

The Morganton STAR reports a marvelous escape from instant death which throws Robert Odlum's exploit in the shade. A young man, whose name is not stated, while at work on the root of the insane asylum, was in expectation of being arrested for some petty misdemeanor. He was fully 150 feet from the ground. He saw a person whom he thought to be Constable Alex Perry approaching him, and, becoming excited, he lost his balance and fell to the ground. He was unconscious for a few minutes, but eventually recovered, and is now as well as ever .--- Charleston (S. C.) News and Courier. The above in substance has been copied from the STAR by every daily paper in the State and a number of the most prominent weeklies with a little variation. The Asheville Citizen, however, calls us to taw on the distance the man fell. Of course we did not take the tage line to the ground, but to measure from the top of the building to the basement, the route the young man fell, we still stick to our text. COME LET US REASON TOGETHER. It is very unpleasant to us to have to call attention more than once to those who owe us. As yet many have not heeded our first notice. Our terms are cash in adva co, which is the only plan a paper can be successfully run on, and we are compelled to adopt this plan if we have to curtail our subscription list, We are not able to run two or three hundred readers from one to two and even three years without pay, neither do we expect to, We are bending all our energies to send out a live paper, and the verdict so far is that we have succeeded. We hope all will take a business view of this matter and come up and spend several weeks with his without further notice and settle for their paper. One dollar is a small amount for each one of our rerders, but the aggregate is a big thing to the aditor, and is his dependence for bread and mest. We sincerely hope our friends will call without further notice and pay will accommodate 600 patients, and for their paper, and we assure you that yon will not regret it. You will enjoy reading your paper more. We will try - Mr. L. A. Ramsuur, the artist, harder to give you a good paper, and it will prove to us that you appreciate our effort. Try the plan and see if it doesn't work well.
