Cleveland Will Win.

Greenville Reflector.

The signified intention on the part of Henry George to support Grover Cleveland in the coming campaign, will give that State, New York, to the Democrats beyond the shadow of a doubt. The Democratic party in New York is solid and harmonious. It is a clear Democratic majority of 20,000 as shown in the last state election. And notwithstanding the split in the labor party, Mr. George will control 50,000 votes in the State this fall. So that it is reasonably certain that the Democrats will carry New York by 50,000 or 60,000 majority. The Republicans have about abandoned all hope of carrying that State, and intend to bend their energies and lavish their money to carry one or two Southern States; but they are leading a forlorn hope. Blaine withdrew from the race because he saw that defeat awaited the Republican cause, and now all the Republicans are beginning to open their eyes to the bitter fact. Since the withdrawal of their leader they stand bewildered over their demoralized and hopeless condition. They try to put on a good face and shout for their party, but it is nothing less than the frantic effort of a dying cause. They know that Grover Cleveland will have a virtual walk over in the race for President. Nothing can stem the tide of popular approval that has set in favor of his re-nomination and re-election. He will get there, as he always does, only by a much larger majority. The country is contented and happy because this is so. We will have four more years, at least, of honest and conservative rule in this country. "Cleveland and Victory" are the watchwords just now. After the election they will read, "Cleveland and Good Government for four years." Let us all rejoice together.

An Editor Sued for $10,000 Damages.

Raleigh Progressive Farmer.

A ripple of excitement in our city was caused last week by the announcement that Mr. J. L. Stone of this city, had instituted proceedings against Mr. S. W. Hearne, editor of the Wadesboro Intelligencer, for criminal libel. Mr. Hearne, it appears, had criticized in severe terms in his paper, the methods adopted by Mr. Stone for the sale of cotton seed, which Mr. Hearne alleges were bought by Mr. Stone at an ordinary price, and were being sold by him to the farmers at $1.50 per bushel. Mr. Hearne was arrested and brought to this city, accompanied by several gentlemen of Anson and his attorney, Mr. J. A. Lockhart. Mr. Lockhart, Messrs. Reade, Busbee & Busbee, and Battle & Mordecai, appeared as counsel for the defendant, and Messrs. Pace, Holding & Heck, Gray & Stamp, Fuller & Snow, and George V. Strong, as counsel for the plaintiff. Mr. Hearne waived examination, and gave bond in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance at Wake Superior Court. The bond was quickly given.

Immediately suit was entered against him for $10,000 damages, and the plaintiff demanded a bond for $10,000. The defendant not agreeing, the matter was taken before Mr. C. D. Upchurch, Clerk of Wake Superior Court, and the bond was fixed at $5,000, and was promptly executed. Mr. Hearne and his friends returned to Wadesboro that night.

This case is entered for the March Term of Wake Superior Court, and promises to be lively and interesting. First-class legal talent is employed by both parties, and we may look for some interesting developments before it is concluded. It is altogether probable that Mr. Stone's cotton seed, at $1.50 per bushel, will be the most thoroughly advertised article that has been offered to the farmers of this State in a long time. Another interesting phase of the case may come when the plaintiff shall execute his purpose, as declared before Mr. Upchurch by his counsel, to institute suit against the Alliance of Anson county for certain resolutions alleged to have been adopted by these farmers in regard to the alleged scheme of Mr. Stone.

The following is the resolution mentioned above as having been adopted by the Anson county Alliance, and published in the Wadesboro Intelligencer of Feb'y 23d:

"Whereas, one J. L. Stone of Raleigh, N. C., dealer in Pianos, Organs, Sewing Machines, &c., is perpetrating an enormous fraud on the farmers of North Carolina, by sending emisaries throughout the State and selling them Peterkin cotton seed, under the name of Zephyr, at $5 per pound, which cost him only about 23 cents per bushel, therefore, be it Resolved 1st, That we, the Anson County Farmers' Alliance, denounce the methods of J. L. Stone, and caution our brother farmers throughout the State against the fraud which he is industriously perpetrating upon them."

Immigration to the South.

Asheville Citizen.

A very important meeting is to be held at Hot Springs on April 11th next. The meeting is under the auspices of Mr. Norton, president of the Louisville and Nashville railroad; John H. Inman, director of the Louisville and Nashville railroad; Central railroad, of Georgia, Richmond and Danville railroad; George E. Scott, President of the Richmond and Danville railroad; General Samuel Thomas President and Calvin S. Brice, Vice President of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad; John M. Robinson, President of the O. D. S. S. Co., Seaboard railroad, etc., and other railroad representatives. The object is to devise plans to attract immigration to the South. The time for such a plan is certainly opportune. The attention of many thousands of people in the North is directed to the South, its mild climate, better and cheaper soil, its mineral and timber wealth, &c., &c. It is said Cardinal Gibbons will be at this meeting. The railroads have the power to do a vast deal towards facilitating this movement, and we are pleased to see the officials giving their attention thereto.

A Great Meeting.

Wilmington Star.

The famous revivalist Moody has had a great meeting at Louisville. The preparations for his arrival were extended and costly. A tabernacle was built for the occasion that cost $12,000. It seats 5,000 people but was far too small. It is said that more than that number of people were turned away on some of the nights. In all it is calculated that 250,000 people heard the Gospel from the great revivalist. The meeting was protracted for five weeks. People were so anxious to hear Moody that they took lunch with them and held their seats from one service to the next. There were 500 picked singers who led the music. Mr. Sankey, with assistants conducted the music. There have been more than 1000 people added to the Louisville Churches as a result. All of the Protestant Churches were represented. Bishop Penick, of the Episcopal Church, attended.

The preparations were such as to guarantee a great work of revival. Public expectation was on tip toe, and the ministers and their helpers were at work in advance of the coming of Moody. It is interesting to read of the Louisville work and especially as Wilmington is preparing for the coming of a Southern revivalist who in his chosen field is doing a grand and imperishable work for God and humanity. The pastors and people of Wilmington are hard at work making straight the way for Mr. Pearson, who is to preach his first sermon on the night of Sunday, the eighteenth of March. Probably there has never been in this town such a general religious seriousness and activity as pervade most of the churches. For weeks nightly services have been held and the people are interested and the believers in Jesus are praying for another Pentecost when a great work of saving shall be perfected. God grant in mercy that the expectations and hopes and prayers of His people may be more than realized and that it shall be recorded that thousands have been added to the churches!

About Federal and Confederate Prisoners.

On the files of the War Department are two spicy dispatches, one addressed to Gov. Curtin by Secretary Stanton and the other in his reply.

It was late in the war, that Gov. Curtin went to Washington to see the Secretary of War, and appeal to him to save the Federal prisoners in Andersonville, Ga., by consenting to an exchange with the Confederate authorities.

Mr. Stanton said he did not see how he could do anything. "Why?" said Gov. Curtin of Pennsylvania, "we have thousands of prisoners in our hands, let there be an exchange." With some heat the secretary asked him if he meant to propose that the United States Government should take back a lot of diseased, and enfeebled men who could not return to duty; and give in their place an equal number of men, who would recruit the armies of the Confederacy.

Gov. Curtin said that was just what he was after. "Well," said Stanton, "a man who professes to be loved by the Government ought to be ashamed to make such a suggestion."

Immediately after he returned to Harrisburg, he received from the Secretary the following dispatch:

"In the interest of loyalty to the Government, and the speedy suppression of the rebellion you should resign at once, and retire to private life, which you should never have left." Gov. Curtin replied to Stanton: "In the interest of humanity, you should die and go to hell, where you should have gone long ago."

FOR AUDITOR.

Rev. G. W. Sanderlin.

Correspondence of the News and Observer.

No personal objection can be made to the present incumbent, Gen. Roberts. He is a good officer, as he was a good soldier; but he is now serving a second term, and there is no reason for extending the third term rule to his office.

He can give way to no more worthy successor than he whose name prefaces this communication.

Rev. G. W. Sanderlin was a gallant Captain in the 33rd North Carolina Regiment.

He was the best speaker, and one of the very best soldiers, in that famous command. When the war was ended he obeyed a higher call, and as a minister of the Baptist church, soon placed himself in the very lead of the soldiers of the Cross.

Intensely earnest, and devoted to his work, his nervous system soon gave way, and he was ordered by his physicians, to retire to his home in Lenoir county, and endeavor by a quiet life on his farm to build up a constitution, wrecked by hard study in the holy calling which he had chosen.

He has proven what he can accomplish on the battle field, at the plow handle, and in the service of his Maker, and now that his health is far better and yet he is forbidden to preach, his friends would hear his voice, that rallied the scattered host of the Wilderness calling the Democratic clans to the rescue in the impending party crisis.

His old comrades and his brethren will vie with each other in their efforts to show their appreciation of him if the party should prove wise enough to nominate him.

The writer knows Mr. Sanderlin to be a brave, christian gentleman, a gallant soldier, a true Democrat, and a brilliant speaker.

A SOLDIER of the 33rd N. C. Regiment.

The Murderer of Gen. Bryant Grimes Hanged.

Special to the Raleigh Observer.

WASHINGTON, N. C., March 11.—Our quiet little town was thrown into a state of excitement this morning by the report that a man was hung to the bridge. About three o'clock this morning the steamer Beta, on her way to this place, blew the signal to open the draw to the bridge. The bridge keeper responded but found an obstruction in the way. The draw could not be opened sufficiently for the steamer to pass. On investigation he found a rope hanging from a cross-beam of the draw with a heavy weight attached. When pulled to view he discovered with horror a lifeless body to which was attached a placard with the inscription, "Justice at last." The proper authorities were promptly notified. It was left to jangle till day-light and until a coroner's jury could be empaneled. The body proved to be that of Wm. A. Parker, who was tried for the assassination of General Grimes some seven or eight years ago. He has been heard to boast of the deed on several occasions when in liquor. It seems that on yesterday, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, he was consigned to the lockup, a place partitioned off in the rear of the engine house with three cells for such cases. An old colored man at night looks after and attends to the wants of the prisoners, he sleeping in an adjoining cell. He deposes at the inquest that at about two o'clock a. m. he was awakened by a slight noise and noticed that the light left burning was out, and before he could realize what was the matter he was confronted by at least half a dozen masked men who told him to keep quiet on pain of death. They approached the cell in which Parker was confined, wrenching off the lock and carried him outside. He was heard to cry out "murder," once or twice. There is no evidence as to who the participants in the transaction are.

Civil Suit.

Raleigh News and Observer.

Mr. J. L. Stone yesterday instituted civil action for damages before C. D. Upchurch, clerk of Wake Superior Court, against editor A. B. Gillespie, of the Statesville Weekly Mail, for republishing the attacks recently made upon Mr. Stone in the Wadesboro Intelligencer.
