Written for The Star. BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU

In speaking of person's faults, Pray don't forget your own; Remember those in homes of glass Should seldom throw a stone.

If we have nothing else to do But talk of those who sin, 'Tis better we commence at home, And from that point begin.

We have no right to judge a man Until he's fairly tried; Should we not like his company, We know the world is wide.

Some may have faults, and who has not? The old as well as young : Perhaps I may, for aught I know, Have fifty to their one.

I'll tell you of a better plan, And find it works quite well; To try my own defects to cure, Before of others tell.

And though I hope sometime to be No worse than some I know, My own short comings bid me let The faults of others go.

Then let us all, when we commence To slander friend or foe, Think of the harm one word may do. To those we little know.

Remember curses sometimes, like Our chickens, roost at home; Don't speak of other's faults, until We have none of our own. AMICUS.
