THE PROBLEM

Of the greatest importance to every man, woman and child is where to strike rock bottom in the purchase of all the necessities of life, for upon this vital thread hangs more than you would think if rightly solved and acted upon during the course of a lifetime. Life, it is true, is short and time is precious, and the days go whirling by the young and old alike, but in passing, it will be worth your while to see to it that every penny is well spent, and that friendship and business must have a separate place in the consideration of one's pocket-book. At best it is the common experience of us all, that our hard-earned money seems to go too fast. There must be a cause. Look around you for a solution.

THE SOLUTION.

The one thing that has driven itself home to minds of all casual observers is the extravagant prices he has been charged for things he absolutely needs. Look around you for evidence. The books of fiction you read, the stationery you use, the hat you wear, the light weight clothing you will buy when the heat of summer drives you to a change,—all these and a thousand others amount to something and the saving you might have had thereon is worth your consideration. Figure up the cost of each article of your last purchase and note well both quality and price, then go to the

One Price Cash Store

And look over our stock. This is an invitation that might be worth something to you in the future. At least, the experiment will justify the cost.

Don't

Think because we are selling goods every day that our stock is not complete. I am still receiving new Spring Goods.

Respectfully yours,

Mrs. A. E. HICKS.

NEW MILLINERY STORE!
