

THE BURKE COUNTY NEWS.

Telephone No. 26.

FRIDAY, JUNE 16, 1899.

ARRIVAL OF PASSENGER TRAINS AT MORGANTON. (CENTRAL TIME.)

No. 36, east-bound (vestibule), 7:20 a. m.
No. 12, east-bound, - - - 4:05 p. m.
No. 35, west-bound (vestibule), 9:59 p. m.
No. 11, west-bound, - - - 11:31 a. m.
No. 62, east-bound (local freight carrying passengers), - 11:54 a. m.
No. 61, west-bound (local freight carrying passengers), - 12:44 p. m.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. Cyrus A. Spencer has been commissioned postmaster at Linville Store, this county.

Mr. A. Farley, one of the victims of the accident at the State Hospital, and who died on the night of the 4th, was a native of Germany, was an ex-Confederate soldier and was 67 years old. His remains were taken to Stanley Creek, Gaston county, for burial.

Capt. S. D. Dunavant, the veteran railroad contractor, left this week for Petersburg, Va., with a big force of track layers for Jas. P. McDonald & Co., who are building the road from Richmond to Ridge-way. These hands will be paid $1.25 per day. A year ago the same class of labor could command only 75 and 80 cents per day.

The Morganton District Conference of the M. E. Church will be held with the Mt. Pleasant church, five miles north of Morganton, embracing the first Sunday in August. The Mt. Pleasant people will, before the meeting of the conference, complete their new church, which will be the handsomest country edifice in the county. These are enterprising people, religiously and otherwise, as evidenced by the conference selecting Mt. Pleasant as the place of meeting this year.

DEATH OF REV. NOAH KAYLOR.

We learn from the Lenoir News of the death, last Friday, of Rev. Noah Kaylor, a very devout and highly esteemed local minister of the Methodist church, at his home at Gamewell, between Morganton and Lenoir. The News says he was taken sick Thursday night with something like cramp colic and a physician was sent for Friday morning, but death came before the physician could reach him. Another report says death resulted from a shock occasioned by the extraction of a tooth.

Mr. Kaylor was almost seventy years of age and labored faithfully in the cause of the Master for many years.

The remains were laid to rest in the graveyard at Little Johns church last Sunday in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing friends.

Rev. G. W. Ivey conducted the funeral ceremonies.

A MODEL WOMAN.

MR. MCKESSON PAYS A GLOWING TRIBUTE TO AUNT DELPHIA GILES.

Mr. C. F. McKesson, of the War Department, Washington, D. C., who is here this week on a visit to his family, called to see us on Tuesday and as we chatted on old times and he inquired about old friends, the death of Aunt Delphia Giles was mentioned. He spoke of his great sorrow when he read the announcement of her death, as he had always thought so much of the family and had often partaken of their hospitality. Continuing he said: "Aunt Delphia was one of the uncrowned queens of the earth. She bore many children and was largely instrumental in so rearing them that they became as olive plants about her table, the comfort of her declining years. She knew nothing of the great social world, its charms, its glitter, its classic culture, but she knew enough to make a loyal wife, an evangel of the Master. For well nigh 50 years she kept brightly burning on her altars and hearthstone that spiritual fire which alone is the priceless jewel. When the dark waves of the cold river rolled against her feet, she could shout with all her heart, 'He leadeth me, He leadeth me.'"

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Mary Lou Bristol is at home from Asheville Female College.

Mr. E. Breese is able to be at his store again, after several days' sickness.

Mr. W. M. Moore, who taught at Amherst last year, has decided to take the school for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Derr Boger are now residing in Morganton, having moved here from Salisbury last week.

Mr. W. B. Sloan, who is employed for awhile in Salisbury, spent several days this week at his home in Morganton.

Mr. R. D. Meacham, of Asheville, arrived Wednesday and is spending several days here with his brother Mr. Watt Meacham.

The Misses Haynes, who attended school at the State Normal College last session, will visit in Mt. Airy for awhile before coming home.

Mrs. Thomas S. McBee of Morganton will arrive here tomorrow to visit Mr. and Mrs. Gilmer Brenizer, 12 West Chestnut street.—Asheville Citizen, 13th.

Rev. W. A. McCall, of North Catawba, was in Morganton last Saturday and honored THE NEWS with a call. Mr. McCall was graduated with honors at Wake Forest College, on last commencement day.

Mr. G. A. Greer, of Asheville, after spending several days in Morganton, returned home yesterday, accompanied by his wife, who has been visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Parker, for the past six weeks.

Mr. Walter Brem and family arrived from Charlotte Wednesday and will spend the summer in Morganton, as is their custom. They are again occupying their property corner East Union and Sterling streets.

The infant son of Rev. and Mrs. Barth. Soulier died of bronchitis at Valdese Tuesday morning. This is the second child Mr. and Mrs. Soulier have lost since they left their home in the Waldensian valleys of Italy to make their home in North Carolina.

Choice Beef and Mutton on cold storage
MAY & LANE.

May & Lane pay the highest prices for all Country Produce.

The marriage of Mr. Moulton Phifer to Miss Mary Hardie, of Spartanburg, S. C., is announced to take place on July 12th, in Spartanburg. Mr. Phifer, who has been in Spartanburg for several years, with the hardware firm of Montgomery & Cranford, is a son of Capt. Geo. L. Phifer, steward at the D. & D. School here.

A large lot of Fruit Jars just received
MAY & LANE.

We Aim to Please.

We avoid misunderstandings. We correct all mistakes. If your purchase of today is not satisfactory to-morrow, bring it back and get what you paid for it. Our goods are always worth our price. We keep none but the best and we are as low as the lowest in price and always willing to show our goods, if you wish to purchase or not.

I. I. DAVIS.

Climax Malt Extract

Is an excellent nourishing liquid diet for debilitated women. It is slightly stimulating, an ideal bitter tonic and beverage, useful in dyspepsia and general debility.
Pint bottles 15c.

Prescriptions and Medicines

FOR THE SICK

Receive the most careful attention here. We are proud of the fact that this department has the confidence of this entire community.

W. A. Leslie,
DRUGGIST.

NEW MILLINERY STORE!

I have added to my millinery business a Dress Making Department, where the ladies can have their dresses made in the latest styles.

All the latest magazines to select from.
Satisfaction guaranteed.

MRS. A. P. WHITENER.

You will find me next door to Lazarus Bros.