The Burke County News.

FIRST OF ALL—THE NEWS.

VOL. I.

MORGANTON, N. C., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1899.

NO. 48.

The News Office Being Moved.

THE NEWS office will hereafter be found in the Erwin building two doors above Forney & Co.'s store, on ground floor. The change is being made to-day and is done in order that we may have more room and better accommodations for our daily increasing business. Our friends are cordially invited to visit us in our new quarters when we get fixed up.

Pork Stolen.

Mr. I. T. Avery on Wednesday butchered a 250-pound hog. Wednesday night a thief entered his smoke-house, which was left unlocked, and relieved him of two of the hams and one of the shoulders. Evidently the thief is liberal and did not wish to take all of the Solicitor's hog; but Mr. Avery objects to him taking the choicest of his meat.

China Opening.

We doubt if there is a prettier display of china, fancy articles, cut glass, pottery, pictures, etc., in the State than that shown by Claywell Bros. Their china opening is now on and is being attended by large and admiring crowds. The prices on these goods are cheap, too, considering quality. We bespeak for Messrs. Claywell Bros. a large holiday trade.

Record Breakers.

Mr. S. Huffman on Wednesday sent us two turnips which weighed respectively five pounds three ounces and six pounds four ounces. They were raised in his garden in West Morganton. This beats any record yet reported here.

Mr. W. W. McGalliard seems to be doing a "land office" business just now in old iron and dry bones. Big piles of iron and bones are to be seen on the lot adjoining his store building. He also buys old rubber shoes, furs, etc. See his advertisement elsewhere in this paper.

As a cure for rheumatism Chamberlain's Pain Balm is gaining a wide reputation. D. B. Johnston of Richmond, Ind., has been troubled with that ailment since 1862. In speaking of it he says: "I never found anything that would relieve me until I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It acts like magic with me. My foot was swollen and paining me very much, but one good application of Pain Balm relieved me. For sale by W. A. Leslie, druggist."

WANTED.—500 bushels of Corn for cash.

A Delightful Dance.

One of the most delightful dances of the season was given Monday night, complimentary to the visiting young ladies Miss Folsom, of New York, and Miss Lesh, of Boston. The couples participating were the following: Miss Folsom, Mr. J. E. Erwin; Miss Leah, A. C. Avery, Jr.; Miss Kate Burr, Louie W. McKesson; Miss Sadie Jones, of Lenoir, Stephen Frizard; Miss Annie Erwin, Rufus Jones; Miss India Bnmgardner, J. W. Wilson, Jr.; Miss Clare Falls, Clifton Pearson. Chaperones: Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Corpening, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Ross, Mrs. Thos. McBee, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Gaither.

Alexander--Mull.

Mr. Horace G. Alexander, the clever manager of The Cash Racket and Miss Lirene Mull, the attractive daughter of County Treasurer D. B. Mull, were happily married on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's father, on Green street, Rev. S. J. Porter, pastor of the Morganton Baptist church, performing the ceremony. Quite a company of invited friends witnessed the marriage, after which a bountiful repast was served. We extend congratulations to the happy couple and wish for them much happiness along life's journey.

If you will just quietly take the time to read over the advertisements in the NEWS you will find much valuable information. The NEWS permits no "dead" advertisements to appear in its columns, and has a number of live advertisers who know how to invite you to their stores, and they have the goods to supply your wants. Trade with them.

Miss Lillian Hoffman, daughter of Esq. J. H. Hoffman, returned home the first of the week from the State Normal School at Greensboro. She has about recovered from a recent case of sickness at Greensboro.

Miss Maud Sides, of Hilderbrand, Miss Dora Krider, of Salisbury and Mr. Clarence Whitener and sister, of Hickory, attended the Alexander-Mull wedding Wednesday evening.

Mr. Hardy Noland, of Haywood county, is visiting relatives in Burke. He is a brother of Mrs. W. M. Winters.

My son has been troubled for years with chronic diarrhoea. Sometime ago I persuaded him to take some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After using two bottles of the 25-cent size he was cured. I give this testimonial, hoping some one similarly afflicted may read it and be benefited.—Thomas C. Bower, Glencoe, O. For sale by W. A. Weslie, druggist.

The I. K. Ts., gave a delightful entertainment last Tuesday night, at the house of Mrs. Neilson Falls, complimentary to Miss Folsom, of New York. Those present considered themselves most fortunate.

Rheumacide is not recommended for the cure of every ill; it does not cure everything. But it is a certain cure for rheumatism, and is a fine blood purifier and laxative; try it.
