

State Library

The Burke County News.

FIRST OF ALL—THE NEWS.

VOL. II.

MORGANTON, N. C., FRIDAY, OCT. 5, 1900.

NO. 39.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. Horace Payne went down to Connelly Springs Sunday.

Mr. Paul Storer, of Asheville, spent a day in town this week.

Miss Mae Harlock, of Baltimore is with Mrs. A. E. Deane.

Mr. Frank Johnson, of Hickory, was here several days this week.

Miss Nellie Warlick is in town this week visiting her aunt, Mrs. Robert Goodson.

There will be a Bryan, Stevenson and Buxton Club tonight (Friday).

Mrs. J. E. Bechtler, who spent the summer in Morganton, left this week for Washington, D. C.

Capt. Ed Simpson and Mr. George Brown, two popular conductors on the Southern, spent Wednesday in town.

Mr. Love Pesperman, of the Southern, was here again Sunday. He seems to have business in Morganton on Sundays.

Hon. J. C. Buxton, Democratic candidate for Congress in this district will speak in Morganton, Saturday Oct. the 20th.

We call your attention to Mrs. A. E. Hick's Millinery opening next Monday and Tuesday. See ad in another column.

Mr. Pink Johnson, of Hartland, who has been an invalid for several years, was visiting his niece, Mrs. C. C. Cobb, this week.

Engineer Will Pitts came down from Asheville Wednesday to attend the marriage of Miss Claude Beck to Mr. R. J. Simpson.

We lack for mam, dad, all the children and dogs in town next Saturday to at least see the street parade of Buckskin in the great wild west show.

Local court for the western district is in session at Statesboro this week and will go on at Statesville on the 11th Monday in this month.

Our Hebrew merchants suspended business from 7 o'clock a. m. Tuesday to 7 o'clock a. m. Wednesday in observance of one of their ancient religious rights.

We admire the latest fashion for ladies dresses—short cut—especially during the dusty season. It saves holding up or fanning everything the tail comes in contact with.

Mr. F. M. Simmons, chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee, passed through Morganton last Tuesday, on the Southern on his way to Asheville and other western points.

Brother Sossaman of the People Paper, Charlotte, says he is a little short of funds but has raised enough to perfect arrangements to see all the street parade of the show. The same up here brother.

Simpson Beck.

Married at the residence of the late N. P. Beck, father of the bride, on Wednesday, the 3rd at 9 p. m. Mr. Robt. J. Simpson, of Glen Alpine, son of Joseph Simpson, to Miss Claud Beck, daughter of the late N. P. Beck. Mr. Ed Simpson acted as best man and Miss Bessie Beck as brides maid. Rev. R. H. Parker performed the marriage ceremony. The happy pair boarded the 11 o'clock vestibule for Asheville the same evening, where they will make their future home. Both the bride and groom are among the best families of this county and both full of life and energy and the way is now open for a successful future. May their shadows never grow less.

During the winter of 1897 Mr. James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay's Clay Co., W. Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that could he not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by W. A. Leslie druggist.

EVERYTHING THATS NEW

At the most attractive prices Morganton has ever known.

The Store is Now in Fall Attire,

Teeming with everything decreed by the world's dictators of fashions for the coming season, as well as with the hundred and one other lines of merchandise that go to make up the thoroughly equipped modern department store.

High art, novelty dress goods, new black and colored dress fabrics, new silks and satins, new velvets and gloves, new dress trimmings, new hosery and underwear, new neck wear and ribbons, new linens and flannels, new blankets and comforts, new bed spreads and lace curtains, new dress linings and notions, new coats, new capes, new furs, new coat, suits and new styles in shoes.

Novelties for fall in every department, naught but the new will meet the eye.

Bargains everywhere.

