Congressman Babcock's Purpose.

"The letter of Congressman Babcock, of Wisconsin, explaining the purpose of his Tariff Amendment bill, is distinct and vigorous," says the Boston Herald.

"Mr. Babcock recalls what a lot of sordid capitalists and cheap states men would like to have forgotten now, that the professed aim of the Republican tariff legislation was to protect labor and material. That aim has been accomplished in respect of certain kinds of production, so that the industries have become giants such as the world has never before known, and the productions are exported like cotton, corn and wheat.
