Many Suffer With Catarrh and Don't Know It.

The Phase of Catarrh Most Prevalent in Summer is a Run Down, Worn Out Condition Known as Systemic Catarrh.

"Pe-ru-na is the Medicine for the Poor Man."

Mr. Geo. A. Hughes, 808 Mass. Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "Pe-ru-na has done me more good than anything I have ever taken. I am forty-five years old now, and feel as good as I did at 20. I was very thin and run down, but Pe-ru-na acted just right in my case. I am a carpenter and sometimes need a tonic. Pe-ru-na is the medicine for a poor man."

A Congressman Uses Pe-ru-na in His Family.

Hon. Thos. J. Henderson, Member of Congress from Illinois, and Lieutenant in the Union Army for eight years, writes from the Lemon building, Washington, D. C., as follows: "Pe-ru-na has been used in my family with the very best results and I take pleasure in recommending your valuable remedy to my friends as a tonic and an effective cure for catarrh."

Catarrh assumes different phases in different seasons of the year. In the early summer systemic catarrh is most prevalent. That tired, all worn out feeling in nine cases out of ten is due to a catarrhal condition of the mucous membrane. Pe-ru-na cleans the mucous membrane and cures the catarrh wherever located. There are no remedies for catarrh just as good as Pe-ru-na. Accept no substitutes. If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Pe-ru-na, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis. An Interesting Romance.

A LEAP YEAR ELOPEMENT.

Charlotte Observer. One of the most interesting and prettiest romances that ever took place in the Old North State was culminated last night at Gaffney, S. C., when Miss Gladys Elizabeth Benbow, of Wilkesboro, and Mr. Herman Caviness Mills, of Raleigh, were married—that is, if they were married. The couple spent a fidgety half-hour in Charlotte last night and did not hesitate to tell an Observer reporter the entire story, from the time Cupid began to play with their hearts. Both of the young people belong to the best families in the State. Miss Benbow, a decidedly pretty girl of nineteen summers, is the oldest daughter of Mr. L. S. Benbow, who is a well known citizen of Wilkesboro. Mr. Mills is a son of Mr. Walter Mills, of Raleigh, president of the Carolina Trust Company. He is only 20 years old and his parents objected to his marriage because of his youth. The parents of Miss Benbow did not object to the match, and knew that the elopement would occur.

It is the old story. The young people met at Guilford College, near Greensboro, where both finished school last year, and it was a case of love at first sight. The year at school was a happy one. Miss Benbow retired in disorder and Cupid, the conqueror, kept almost undisputed charge of the field. Text-books were not entirely thrown aside, but Shakespeare was preferred before trigonometry and Homer's Iliad before the orations of Cicero.

Long after the college term expired the couple decided that co-educational colleges are a success and that they would never be parted. After school was out the parents were approached. As mentioned above, there was no objection on the part of Mr. and Mrs. Benbow, but the parents of the young man said that he was too young. The young man thought not. Two weeks ago he went to Wilkesboro and lived at the hotel there until yesterday morning, when the trip to South Carolina was begun.

The young lady had few preparations to make. She had several gowns which had been made for her graduation at college a few weeks previous, and only one more was added to the list. This was a very becoming dress of silver gray peau de sole silk, with hat and gloves to match, which were the costume of the bride-elect last night. The young woman is a handsome brunette, with the dash and nerve of the well bred mountain lass. Mr. Mills is handsome also, and has determined, through pleasing features.

Mr. Mills and Miss Benbow left Wilkesboro yesterday morning, arriving at Taylorsville in the afternoon. At Statesville telegrams were sent to Rock Hill, S. C., making arrangements for the wedding and engaging a suite of rooms at the hotel. The couple arrived here on the Statesville train too late for No. 29, upon which they were to have gone to Rock Hill. Undaunted, they tried to engage a private conveyance to take them to Rock Hill through the country. No carriage that would take the trip could be found. The only recourse was to go to some other South Carolina town on the Atlanta & Charlotte Air Line or remain in Charlotte until this morning and then go to Rock Hill. The couple decided upon the former course, and boarded No. 35, which was ready to pull out of the Southern yards. They said that they would go to Gaffney and be married within twenty minutes after the train arrived there. And all who saw them wished them God-speed.

It is a rather interesting coincidence that Miss Nellie Benbow, the 16 year old sister of Miss Benbow, eloped with Mr. J. Talmage Privette, also of Wilkesboro, about ten months ago, and spent awhile in the Queen City en route to Rock Hill, where the knot was tied. The objection then was on the part of the girl's parents. Miss Benbow laughingly remarked last night that she had one other sister, who is now aged 15, but that she had not yet fully decided to elope.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills will spend this evening in Charlotte en route to Raleigh, where they will make their home.

Brutally Tortured. A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Golobich of Colusa, Calif., writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried every-thing known. I came across Eberle's Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." Sent as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by C. E. Galloway Drug Store.

Night Was Her Terror. "I would caught nearly all night long," writes Mr. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 lbs." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. E. Galloway Drug Store.

WELL KNOWN DEVINE IN A STREET FIGHT.

Albany, G., June 27.—Chief of Police R. N. Westbrook this afternoon assaulted Dr. Len G. Broughton, of Atlanta, with a rawhide whip. The attack was made in a Broad street barber shop. The encounter caused wild excitement. The trouble started yesterday afternoon when Dr. Broughton, who is leader of a series of meetings at the Auditorium, stated in the presence of a large congregation that rottenness pervaded the city government of Albany. He specifically charged that Chief of Police R. N. Westbrook had been taken from a house of questionable resort in a state of intoxication. He promised to produce affidavits to sustain his charge if they were desired. Chief Westbrook denied the charges. His friends confidently stated that he would personally resent what they deemed an unprovoked insult and their confidence proved to be well founded. The hall opened this afternoon when State Senator-elect Croger Westbrook, a son of the chief of police, made a personal attack on R. W. Jordan, who has been taking a prominent part in the revival meetings and who, it was alleged, had furnished Dr. Broughton with information which had been used in the sensational charges made. This afternoon just before six o'clock Dr. Broughton went into a Broad street barber shop, accompanied by several of his friends. In a few minutes he was followed by Chief Westbrook. Dr. Broughton was in a barber's chair. Chief Westbrook made several inquiries as to which of the several gentlemen who were being shaved was the Atlanta divine. As soon as he identified Dr. Broughton the chief produced a heavy rawhide whip and struck him three or four times, but owing to the interference of a dozen persons the blows did not take full effect. There were several side fights precipitated in the excitement. It is charged by a number of persons who were present that Dr. Broughton had a pistol and threatened to use it. He assumed the defensive with a heavy iron cap, held tightly in one hand, the other hand being thrust deep into one of his coat pockets. Chief Westbrook used some unprintable language in denouncing Dr. Broughton, who did not reply. The chief said: "I will beat you to a frazzle if I have to follow you to Atlanta." The affair has created intense excitement and further sensational developments are predicted.

Blackburn Would Take Stump. Salisbury, June 28.—H. E. Spencer Blackburn, the Republican nominee for Congress in this, the eighth congressional district, was in Salisbury to day. Mr. Blackburn was in good humor and wants the Democrats to put up a man who will meet him on the stump. He declared that he will challenge his opponent to a joint discussion. This move will be a delight to the Democrats who have heretofore had trouble in getting Blackburn on the stump. Congressman Klutz ran him off it two years ago, and spent much of his time in trying to arrange a second meeting with the good looking young fellow. Blackburn will fight the Watts law hard.

Newton Man Falls Into a Well. Newton, June 28.—A large well is being dug to furnish a water supply for the Clyde Cotton Mill. It is now a little over forty feet deep, and in order that the work may go on it is necessary to keep the water pumped out. Last night Mr. Sid Setzer was looking after the pump, and about 12 o'clock he took a lantern and attempted to look to see if water was rising, when a plank broke and he fell to the bottom of the well. He was not rescued until this morning, when he was unable to walk. During the night water rose in the well several feet, but Setzer managed to get on some timber above the water.
