Farmers Union Meeting.

On account of the weather, the regular meeting of the Surry Farmers Union, which was to have been held in Dabson last Friday night and Saturday, was postponed to Friday night, Jan. 5 and Saturday Jan. 6, 1912. All delegates elected to the prior meeting are authorized to act at the coming meeting. This is the annual election of officers and all delegates and Union men are requested to attend.

Fraternally,
J. Thomas Smith,
President.

Fatal Quarrel Over Ornament Christmas Tree.

New York, Dec. 22.—Joseph Cosgrove and his friend, John Graddle, while trimming a Christmas tree for Cosgrove's grandchildren, last night got into an argument over the artistic fitness of a certain ornament and, according to the police, Cosgrove knocked Graddle down and then, while the children looked on, cut Mrs. Graddle's throat with a carving knife.

Graddle died almost instantly. He was engaged to marry Cosgrove's daughter.

Trustees Sale.

By virtue of the authority conferred upon me by a deed of trust executed by S. G. Brim and wife on the 15th day of June, 1911, and recorded in Book 39, page 447 of the Record of Mortgages of Surry Co., I will sell to the highest bidder for cash in front of the First National Bank in the Town of Mt. Airy, on Monday the 29th day of January, 1912, at one o'clock P. M. the following described real estate to-wit: A lot in Mt. Airy Township adjoining the lands of Scott, Alken and others, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a planted rock on the North side of the Flat Rock Road, Scott's corner, North 13 degrees 30' 2" East 210 feet to a planted rock on the South side of a new street, thence South 72 1/2 degrees West with the said street, 210 feet to a planted rock, thence South about 12 degrees East 312 feet to a planted rock on the South side of a new street, thence North 19 degrees East 210 feet to the ...
