WHAT WE DO AT BANNER WAREHOUSE.

We sell all of your tobacco high. Have averaged over 20 cents per lb., for all tobacco sold since we opened on the 22nd of August, which is going some for the class of primings we have been selling. Nobody can sell tobacco higher and very few will sell it as high. The reason: "WE WORK HARDER." So when you load don't forget Mount Airy is the market and Banner's the place. You will meet most of your friends there. That is the place they sell.

Below is a few sales for parties we have made the past few days:

- Deatherage and Pike, 26 lbs at 33c, 26 at 27c, 16 at 12 1/2c.

BANNER & LOVILL.

Refused to Support His Wife.

A strange case was disposed of this week in the Recorder's Court here when a young man of this section, Joe Bill Chandler, was sent to the roads for a term of six months for refusing to support his wife.

On last February he was married to the daughter of Mr. M. V. Hiatt, of Patrick County, Va., and carried her to the home of his father who lives a short distance from this city. Months passed by and the young wife and her husband's people were not as happy living together as they might have been, and the trouble was supposed to be due to a division of the house work. Anyway the young wife was not happy in the home of her mother-in-law and went back to her father's house.

After going back home her young husband paid no more attention to her, and made no attempt to get her a home or to furnish her with amney or the necessities of life. Months passed by and it appeared that young Chandler was again living a free and easy life and was visiting around in the neighborhood as a young and care free man. After due consideration it was decided to have papers issued for him charging non-support of his family. The case came up to be heard this week and there was almost no defense. The young husband seemed to think that when his wife went back to her father's house he was relieved of all further responsibility for her care. After hearing the case Judge Tilley decided that the young man must either support his wife or serve a term on the roads. Mr. Chandler was allowed to give bond for a few days, every one expecting that when he saw a road sentence before him he would get busy and make up his mind to support his family. But the few days went by and he chose the road sentence to the life of a married man. And so he was carried to Rockingham to begin his sentence Thursday of this week.

One interesting fact about this case is that the wife is yet on his hands, and when he gets through with the present sentence if he is not able to give to the State of North Carolina a good and valid reason for not supporting his wife, he will again be subject to arrest and conviction for non-support. The hearing of the case did not develop any facts that would lead one to think that there was any cause for separation between the two young people. And so after six months Mr. Chandler will be back in the same box he found himself at the time he was arrested last week.

Labor Day at Central Methodist Church.

Next Sunday morning, September 2nd, Labor Day will be observed at Central Church. There will be special music for the occasion, and the pastor will discuss the labor problem from the standpoint of God's word. All honor to the faithful laborer. A first class shoemaker is more value to the race than an idle king or a loafing millionaire.

You are most cordially invited to come to Central Methodist Church next Sunday morning. We are laborers; We are laborers together; and We are laborers together with God.

Thomas-Booker.

Mr. James Booker and Miss Effie Thomas both of this city motored to the residence of Rev. D. Vance Price on Orchard Street Saturday evening accompanied by a few friends, and were quietly married. The marriage came as a surprise to the families of both young people. Mr. Booker holds a position in the post office at this place and both bride and groom have a host of friends whose best wishes follow them. After a honeymoon spent in the western part of the state they will be at home in this city.

Patriotic Notice.

The plan to give the soldier boys a banquet Friday evening, or a luncheon on Saturday has been submitted to the commanding officer of Company I, which is to entrain at 3.30 Saturday afternoon for Camp Sevier, Greenville, S. C., and he suggests that his company would most appreciate one hundred and sixteen boxes of lunch to be eaten on the trip to Greenville. The boys will doubtless not reach Greenville until late Sunday morning, and the furnishing of a box of GOOD OLD SURREY COUNTY GRUB will be considered as a patriotic service. A committee will make a canvass of the town in the morning, but the time is short, and whether you are seen or not, you are asked to bring whatever you wish to furnish (already prepared) to the Red Cross Headquarters not later than 11 o'clock Saturday morning.

After everything has been sent in the boxes will then be filled.

Call up Red Cross Headquarters tomorrow afternoon and inform someone what you will furnish.

For Better Water Supply.

Miss Margaret McLucas, county canning club agent, has recently gone over the county giving illustrated lectures on the water supply of the country home. She induced Dr. Martin, of this city, to assist her and lecture in connection with the pictures. Evidently this work will be the means of many citizens seeing the importance of care in the management of wells and springs. The pictures shown are from the department of Agriculture and show how many wells and springs are improperly kept and how others are cared for in a sensible way.

At many points in the county large numbers of citizens attended the lectures and showed much interest in the work.

Pipe Organ Recital.

Prof. H. G. Easley, the blind musician, will give a pipe organ recital at Central Methodist church next Monday evening at 8 o'clock, assisted by local talent. A silver offering will be taken at the door for the benefit of the Junivile Missionary Society.
