THE DEBT DODGERS ROASTED

At Central Methodist Church next Sunday morning the pastor will preach on Debt-Paying Honesty, and the debt-dodger will be roasted.

Some Things Debt Will do. It will shorten an honest man's life. It will destroy an honest man's courage. It will destroy an honest man's self-respect. It will make a man a helpless slave. It will diminish a man's chances for success. It will destroy a man's good influence.

German Demands That He be Interned.

Asheville, Aug. 28.—Declaring that he had been a sailor on the German steamship Vaterland, Herman Friesse appeared today at the office of the United States marshal and demanded that he be interned at the detention camp at Hot Springs. The case was referred to an immigration official who happened to be in Asheville, but the official said he could do nothing for Friesse. The German insisted that he be interned and seemed to regard it a privilege of which he was being deprived. He said he had been in Colorado and more recently had been at work at Lake Toxaway. He declared that his wages had been unsatisfactory and that his food was in no way equal to that served at the camp. At a later hour today, he had not succeeded in breaking into the camp.

Recital.

The pipe organ recital, given under the auspices of the Juvenile Missionary Society of Central M. E. Church on last Monday evening afforded an evening of unusual pleasure to music lovers.

Prof. H. G. Easley the talented blind musician has the soul of an artist, and through his well trained finger tips and masterly manipulation of the instrument he poured forth a flood of melody sometimes joyous and jubilant and again tender and sweet but always finding a responsive chord in the hearts of his hearers.

He was ably assisted by Miss Lola Woltz and Mrs. J. D. Jenkins, sopranos. Miss Woltz, who is this season's graduate, sang two short numbers the first being Oley Speaks, "Tis Maytime", which was followed immediately by "The Home of Memory", Humoresque,— both selections were faultlessly rendered in her clear sweet voice.

Mrs. Jenkins, who is always welcomed by an audience by her townspeople sang "The Holy City" by Steven Adams, a selection well suited to her voice which has wonderful depth and power.

The closing number was The Star Spangled Banner and the whole auditorium he poured forth a flood of patriotic hymn.

Dr. Taylor Moves to Farm.

Dr. W. S. Taylor has rented his home on Granite Street to Mr. W. H. Long and will move this week to the residence on his farm in the suburbs of North Mount Airy. The Doctor and his wife want to get out where they will have the benefit of the country and have a more quiet life. It is near enough to not interfere in the least with the Doctor's practice and he can be reached by phone or seen at his office in the future as in the past.

Opening of the Graded Schools

The schools of Mount Airy had a most auspicious opening on Monday September 3. In the white schools 820 pupils were enrolled the first day, an increase of 30 over the opening last year. This is especially encouraging, since there are fewer children than there were a year ago.

Members of the school Board, the ministers of the town, and many parents were present for the opening exercises. In compliance with the proclamation of Governor Bickett, the opening exercises were largely of a patriotic nature. The boys and girls were urged to train and prepare themselves for efficient service to their community and their state.

A fine school spirit is manifested in Mount Airy, and the fine attendance at the opening of the school indicates the beginning of a good year's work.
