The public is invited to attend these services.

A group of colored people from the colored Methodist church attended the services for white people at Central church last night and sang "I am Thine Oh Lord" for them. They sang with reverence and their rich, full voices blended in that harmony that is peculiar to the African race. It is a wonder that our churches don't use the gift of song of the colored people often. It might be helpful to both races.

C. W. Franklin's Home Burned

The home of Charles W. Franklin in Amelia county, Virginia, was recently burned to the ground, and it is reported here that there was little or no insurance. Mr. Franklin purchased the property a few months ago, the residence was an old three story Colonial mansion, with wide stairway of solid mahogany, we are told, and had mantels which were imported from France. Mr. Franklin had been offered fancy prices for the stairway and mantels by rich people of the north who wanted them for their modern dwellings. Mr. and Mrs. J. Franklin and Mrs. Boss McGee are with Mr. Franklin in Virginia.

Hen Lays Two Eggs in One.

J. A. Jackson sent a curiosity in the shape of an egg to The News office this morning. The egg was as large as a goose egg but was laid by a hen on Mr. Jackson's farm. Tom Williams who runs the farm brought the egg to town on account of it being a freak. The shell was broken at the end, and a complete egg poured out which left another egg with a hard shell. In other words there were two eggs one with and one without a shell, in the large egg.

Loving Cup Presented.

A gold lined silver loving cup of unusually lovely design, and having an ebony base, was presented to Central Methodist church Sunday morning. The pastor paying a beautiful tribute to motherhood in his presentation speech. The cup was inscribed as follows:

"To the glory of God, and in loving memory of Mrs. L. E. Banner. Her children rise up and call her blessed.

Presented by her daughters and granddaughters, Mothers Day, 1920."

Making Cigars in Mount Airy.

The new cigar factory is now a fact and they are rolling cigars in this city today. A force of hands came here from Greensboro this week and are now busy in the new factory on Willow street. A dozen or more of our citizens are in the employ of the new company and are taking their first lessons in making cigars. As fast as they are taught the first lessons in the trade other girls will be added to the force. The new factory is a clean, well lighted and well ventilated place to work and the business promises to be one of the large enterprises of our city.

A Runaway Match.

Miss Florence Stronach and Greely Jones both of this city stole a march on their parents Friday and motored to Hillsville where they were quickly made man and wife. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Stronach, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Jones. Both are very attractive and worthy young people.

JACKSON BROS.

It Adds a Wealth of Joy to Family Life

The Cleveland Six adds joy and recreation to the family life in a most unusual degree. It is such a comfortable car, so easy to drive, so distinguished in its refined appearance, that the mother and the children find real delight in it.

And the Man of the House, no matter how critically inclined he may be in mechanical matters, finds in the Cleveland Six a triumph in motor car construction, a car which he will drive with enthusiasm.

spring suspension, wipe out the road-bumps. The car is handsomely finished and the upholstery is of genuine hand-buffed leather.

And the motor! If you want to know what a motor it is come in and see the car. Ride in it. Drive it yourself. Then you will know. There are few motors indeed that can compare with it in actual performance.
