

Pulliam-Jones

The home of Mrs. V. Kale Sinclair, of Hillsville, Va. was the scene of a beautiful but simple wedding Wednesday morning of last week at 11 o'clock when her niece Miss Nannie May Pulliam became the bride of Dr. R. L. Jones, of Galax, Va. The entire lower floor was tastefully decorated with ferns and cut flowers carrying out a color scheme of green and pink. Miss Mayella Wilkinson presided at the piano, the bridal party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, first came the ring bearer, lit the Miss Matilda Shelton cousin of the bride, as ring bearer, she wore white organdie and carried the ring in a bouquet of sweet peas, then came Miss Alice Shelton, also cousin of the bride and wearing white organdie, she carried a basket of flowers which she strewed in the path of the bride, the bride and groom entered together followed by the matron of honor Mrs. M. J. Goad and best man R. Roosevelt Goad, the ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Naff, of Galax. The bride was tastefully gowned in a going away suit of blue tricotine with accessories to match and carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and valley lilies.

An informal reception followed the ceremony during which the brides cake was cut and an ice course served.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left for a trip to Washington and other points. The bride is an accomplished young lady and is well known here having visited in the home of Dr. Banks. The groom is a popular young dentist of Galax. The numerous and beautiful wedding gifts were displayed in the living room.

The out of town guests were the father of and mother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Jones, Galax, Va.; Mrs. Dunnigan, Winston, Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Banks, Mt. Airy; Mrs. M. E. Shelton and children, of Roanoke, Va. and Miss Doris Allred, Mount Airy.

Miss Wilson Borrows Dime To Pay Car Fare

New York, June 21.—Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the President, discovered she was "broke" while riding on a Fifth avenue bus recently and borrowed ten cents from a conductor to pay her fare, according to the current issue of the Bus Line, the bus company's periodical.

She mounted the bus at 34th street and Fifth avenue and proffered a coin to G. P. Lynch, the conductor. He looked at it and remarked:

"I am sorry, miss, but this is a penny, not a dime."

The young woman searched her purse and then, embarrassed, said, "I'm afraid I must get off, that penny is all I have."

"Remain where you are," replied the conductor, who was unaware of her identity. "I will be glad to lend you ten cents."

She accepted his offer and took his name. A few days later he was surprised to receive a note written on White House stationery and signed "Margaret Woodrow Wilson," thanking him for his courtesy and enclosing a dime.

High Point Man Is Another North Carolinian Who Declares He Feels Much Improved After Taking Re-Cu-Ma

Mr. C. S. Wilson Is Glad To Recommend It

Mr. C. S. Wilson, aged 36, and who resides at 500 Mangum Avenue, High Point, is glad indeed to add a word of praise for the good that Re-Cu-Ma has done him. Mr. Wilson, who is employed in clerical capacity, was bothered for a long period with stomach trouble and suffered in every way imaginable. He, of course, consulted physicians, tried many preparations without encouragement and did not receive any help or relief until he was induced to try Re-Cu-Ma. He gave it a thorough trial with the result that today he is feeling fine and enjoying the best of health; is never bothered with his stomach in any way and can eat what he pleases. Don't despair—no matter what you have tried you have not used the best until you get Re-Cu-Ma, which is sold with the guarantee that your money will be refunded if you are not benefited after taking it four days. Re-Cu-Ma sells for $1.50 plus war tax, and can be had at Mount Airy Drug Co. and all druggists.

—like oranges? drink ORANGE-CRUSH

AS A DRINK in itself, Ward's Orange-Crush is irresistibly delicious—an ideal thirst-quencher. But that is not all. Did you ever try an Orange-Crush ice-cream soda? Here, indeed, is a treat of surpassing delightfulness!

Simply put a portion of ice-cream in a glass and pour a bottle of golden, sparkling Orange-Crush over it—or ask for an Orange-Crush ice-cream soda at any soda-fountain.

Two more happy suggestions: Orange-Crush malted-milk or Orange-Crush sundae!

Ward's Lemon-Crush—the companion drink to Orange-Crush—is equally delicious.

The tempting flavor and fragrance of these drinks come from the delicate oil pressed from the fruit itself, combined by the exclusive Ward process with purest sugar and citric acid—the natural acid of citrus fruits.
