

Mount Airy News.

MT. AIRY, N. C., July 22, 1920.

C. D. Prather, now of Washington, D. C. is spending a few days here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Fawcett are at Asheville spending a few days vacation.

Lawrence Banner is here visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. McCrary left Sunday to visit relatives and friends in Amelia County, Va.

Miss Virginia Banner has returned from a visit to relatives in Galax, Va.

Earl Herman has returned from a business trip to Charlotte.

Mrs. J. L. Harrison left last week for a business trip to Baltimore.

Miss Delia Banner has returned from a visit to relatives in Asheville.

Dr. Roy Mitchell, intern in a hospital in Philadelphia, is spending a vacation with his mother in this city.

R. D. Critz and two sons of Kannapolis arrived Monday to spend a week here visiting relatives.

S. M. Hale left the first of the week for a business trip to New York.

Mrs. C. Witherspoon, of Kernersville, is the guest of Mrs. E. M. Linville.

Dr. S. T. Flippin, of Siloam, was a business visitor in the city Saturday.

Judge A. E. Tilley and family returned Sunday from a two weeks visit in Ashe county.

F. G. Tilley, of Wilson, N. C., spent Sunday here with relatives.

Dr. C. A. Baird left Monday to visit a friend who is ill in Madison.

Miss Inez Paisley left Tuesday to visit relatives near Greensboro.

Little Miss Katherine Moore has returned to her home in this city after spending the winter with her cousin Mrs. T. B. Bledsoe in Baltimore, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Harman and daughter Miss Stella Harman, of Bramwell, W. Va., spent the past week end with relatives in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Barber left by automobile for McCall, S. C. last Friday where they go to visit Mrs. Barber's people.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Steele and guest Miss Edna Parks, of Appalachia, Va., motored to Winston-Salem Tuesday.

J. S. Bray attended the funeral of his 11 year old nephew in Raleigh last Friday. The boy was the son of J. D. Berry.

Mrs. George O. Fowler and little daughter left Tuesday for their home in Greensboro after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Smith.

Dick Nut, of Monroe, Miss Elizabeth Hunter, of Raleigh, and Robert Gallaway, of Florence, S. C., are guests of R. J. Gallaway.

Kent Harman, who has been quite sick leaves this week to spend a few weeks recuperating in Altavista, Va. His mother who was called here by his illness will accompany him home.

Dr. and Mrs. Moir Martin left the first of the week for Rochester, Minn., where Dr. Martin will spend some time at the Mayo Brothers hospital.

Bobby, Paul and little Miss Leah Worth have returned from a visit to their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Transou at Pfafftown.

Mrs. Cora Martin and her sisters the Misses Poindexter who have been here on a visit went to Elkin Monday to visit their cousin Mrs. Lucy Cundiff.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Early and a party of friends stopped over night Tuesday with Rev. C. C. Haymore on their way to the mountains on a pleasure trip, making the journey by automobile.

E. L. Brown prominent tobacco man and fruit grower and all-round good fellow made a warm place in the hearts of the News force one day this week when he came in with a smile and a big basket of fancy peaches, which were presented to the bunch with his compliments.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Rothrock entertained at dinner last Sunday their house guests Misses Lummie Poindexter of Winston, N. C., and Loula Poindexter of Spartanburg, S. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Will Herring, of Mt. Airy R. F. D.

Martin Memorial hospital offers a splendid opportunity to girls who wish to train for the degree of graduate nurse. The work is more pleasant and surroundings more home like than in large hospitals. See their ad in this issue.

C. J. Ring and C. E. Lawrence, of the Brim section, spent last week in the state of Georgia where they went to visit friends who live in that part of the country. They bring back glowing accounts of the wonderful crops that are now maturing in that state.

Little Miss Kathleen King is recovering from a recent operation for tonsils, she is able to be out again.

Mrs. E. M. Stanley and children left last week to visit relatives at Peters Creek, Stokes county.

Miss Sadie Martin, of Winston, is the guest of Mrs. D. E. Hoffman.

Mrs. Childress, of Hillville, Va., is the guest of her daughter Mrs. J. D. Jenkins.

A. Goldsmith left Monday for the tobacco market at Timmonsville, S. C.

Mrs. A. G. Trotter has returned from a visit to her son P. L. Trotter in Pilot Mountain.

Charles Satterfield of Winston, is visiting relatives in this city.

Mrs. Byron Inman, of Baltimore, Md., is visiting relatives in this city.

Mrs. Hugh Young and two children, of Salisbury, are the guests of Mrs. A. F. Lowry and Miss Connie Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Dickson, of Greensboro, are guests of Mrs. Dickson's mother Mrs. George Sparger.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Kochtitzky and children, of Wilson, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kochtitzky.

Miss Lavinia Powell is visiting relatives near Farmington.

Miss Sallie Lee Oaks, of Salisbury, is the guest of her sister Mrs. Geo. Sparger, Jr.

Misses Louise and Elizabeth Rothrock are guests of their uncle E. R. Martin in Winston.

Mesdames George Prince, of Dunn, and R. T. Spence, of Kipling, visited their sisters, Mesdames F. L. Smith and J. W. Frank last week.

Miss Margaret Sparger has returned to her home in this city after spending several weeks in Philadelphia, Pa. she visited in Asheboro en route home.

Miss Stella Lamb, of Winston, spent the past week end with relatives here en route to the home of her parents in Lumburg, Va.

C. R. Case and family motored to this city to spend the past week end with Mr. Case's sisters Mesdames F. L. Smith and J. W. Frank.

Charles Smith left several days ago to assist his father, F. L. Smith, who conducts a tobacco warehouse in Aynor, S. C. during the tobacco season.

Miss Margaret Ashby will return the last of the week from a visit to Walkertown and Winston. Misses Lucy and Lizzie Booe, of Walkertown, will accompany her home.

Edwin Haymore, who plays with the orchestra at White Sulphur Springs, is quite proficient with the saxophone. He recently assisted in furnishing music for a dance at the Alexander apartment in Winston-Salem.

J. H. McSween has returned to his home in Timmonsville, S. C. after visiting Atty W. F. Carter in this city. Mrs. McSween will spend the summer with her parents here.

Mrs. Mary Tarpenning, formerly Miss Mary Strickland, of this city, now of Indianapolis, Indiana, is visiting friends and relatives in this section.

Cecil Hennis and little son Cecil, Jr. left Monday for Speedwell, Va. to spend a week with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Saunders, grandparents of the little boy.

Miss Lois Spough returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Reeves, in Sanford, she was accompanied home by her little nephews, Coke and Johnnie Reeves.

Fourteen young people and their chaperones from Hillville, Va. motored to White Sulphur Springs Thursday night for the dance, returning to Hillville after the dance.

Rev. and Mrs. Zeb Vance Robinson will occupy the Lewis home on Cherry street while Mr. and Mrs. Lewis are at Vineland where Mr. Lewis will buy tobacco.

The Ladies Aid society of the First Baptist church will meet Monday, July 26th, at the home of Mrs. A. E. Steele on South Main street. Mrs. Bray will act as joint hostess with Mrs. Steele. It is necessary that every member be present. Sec'y.

Rev. T. H. King preached at his prospective new field of lab. in Gastonia last Sunday. His pulpit at the First Baptist church was filled by Rev. J. W. Frank in the morning and Rev. Joe Snow at night.

Mrs. J. S. Smith and baby daughter Elizabeth arrived Sunday from the Panama Canal Zone to visit her mother Mrs. W. A. Campbell. Mr. Smith who is in the U. S. secret service has gone to New Zealand and Australia on business to be gone two months and Mrs. Smith will spend the time here with relatives.

J. H. Prather, Mr. and Mrs. Winston Fulton, Misses Sallie Hadley, Marlon Prather, Anna Bector, Margaret Sydnor, Mary Thompson and Mary Hannah and L. H. Swain spent several days of last week at Hiddenite Springs where they attended a dance and enjoyed the swimming. They also visited Statesville en route.

Mrs. E. E. Lee, of Georgia, will arrive Thursday night to visit her sister Mrs. Eugene Paddison.

Master William Barnard is visiting his grandfather I. N. T. Barnard in Mayberry, Va.

Prof. J. H. Allen, of Elkin, was a business visitor here Friday.

Miss Lela Hayworth, of Asheboro, spent the past week end here the guest of Miss Ethel Brim.

Attorney W. F. Carter made a business trip to Greensboro and other points the first of the week.

Hariston Williamson has returned from a business trip to Grand Rapids, Michigan.

A. E. Smith has returned from Grand Rapids, Mich., where he attended the furniture exposition.

Misses Lucy and Elizabeth Kittrell are guests of their brother G. A. Kittrell on Rockford street.

Mrs. W. B. Haymore and daughter, Miss Lois left last week to spend ten days at Moore's Springs.

G. O. Graves has returned from a business trip to Grand Rapids, Mich.

A. L. Schluder, of South Carolina, spent last week with Oslar Woltz, The young men were chums at Trinity college.

W. C. Woodruff, of this city, has sold his interest in the South Main Motor company in exchange for a farm near Washington, D. C.

Miss May Lawson has returned from a month's stay with the family of her nephew P. L. Trotter at Pilot Mountain.

Mr. Conrad Inman and wife and Mr. Byron Inman, of Baltimore, Md., are visiting relatives here this week. They made the trip through the country in Dr. Inman's car.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Barber, of Pinnacle, spent several days here last week visiting their two sons I. W. and T. C. Barber.

W. E. Jones of this city has the contract for painting the outside walls of the Blue-Ridge Inn and is now doing the work using a rope and tackle to support the men who do the painting.

Major Lyons, of Wilkes county, is in the city assisting J. J. Wallace in making new additions to the Granite City Mills. Mr. Lyons is a mill-wright by trade and one of the finest workmen and best citizens in the country.

Mrs. Lummie Poindexter, of Winston; Miss Lou Poindexter, of Spartanburg, S. C.; and Misses Minnie and Nora Jones, of Fairview, have returned to their homes after visiting Mrs. J. W. Herring on Route 3, and the family of P. S. Rothrock in this city.

Little Miss Eula Vaughn entertained her small friends from 10 to 12 o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vaughn on Pine street last Friday morning, the occasion being her 10th birthday. Games were played and dainty refreshments were served.

Prompt action of the fire company prevented a serious fire Monday morning about 8 o'clock when the kitchen of J. C. Hill's residence caught fire from the oil stove. A hole was burnt in the floor, the wood work burned around a window and considerable damage done by smoke, before the blaze could be extinguished.

The publishers of The News are this week making an attempt to show their appreciation of the efficient services of Miss Cora Earp as local editor by sending her as representative of the paper to the North Carolina Press Association which meets this year at Waynesville. Miss Earp left Wednesday morning and will be away for several days. She has well earned the vacation.

W. E. and H. G. Nichols, publishers of the Elkin Tribune, came over Friday to see the ball game and while here made The News office a call. These gentlemen are making good with their newspaper and publishing business. They are both practical printers and hard workers. They now own their own printing outfit and the building they occupy and have a patronage among the business men of their town that any publisher would be proud to own.

In Honor of Miss Oakes. Mrs. George Sparger, Jr., delightfully entertained at four tables of rook Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock in honor of her house guest Miss Sallie Lee Oakes, of Salisbury. After a number of progressions, Mrs. J. Drew Martin and Miss Elizabeth Sparger assisted the hostess in serving a delicious ice course.

Reynolds Company to Pay a Large Dividend.

Winston-Salem, July 19.—The R. J. Reynolds Tobacco company this afternoon, by action of the board of directors, issued a letter to holders of common and common B stock that a dividend of 200 per cent would be issued to those holding stock of this class on August 16. The letter explains that the dividend will be paid in class B common stock of par value of $25 per share.

Shoe Sale

Come On And Get These Low Cut Shoes We Are Going To Sell.

We Are Putting This Sale On In Order To Have Room For Our Fall Shipment Of Goods.

You will get a good discount from now, for the rest of the season.

HURRY UP AND COME

A. E. Steele Shoe Company

Big Reduction On Men's Women's and Childrens Summer Footwear

In order to make room for our fall shoes we have decided to put the following reduced prices on all low shoes.

- 10.00 Ladies Pumps & Oxfords at 7.75
- 9.00 Ladies Pumps & Oxfords at 7.00
- 8.50 Ladies Pumps & Oxfords at 6.75
- $12.75 Men's Oxfords at $9.50
- 10.00 Men's Oxfords at 7.75
- 8.50 Men's Oxfords at 6.75

At the prices we are making on low shoes it will be to your interest to come and see for yourself the good values we are offering.

Jackson Brothers