WONDERFUL GAIN IN WEIGHT REPORTED

Young Woman Only Weighed 76 Pounds—Now Weighs Over 100 And Is Gaining Every Day.

"Before I began taking Tanlac I only weighed 76 pounds, I now weigh over 100 and am gaining every day," said Miss LaRue Davis, of Chattanooga, Tenn.

"I bought my first bottle of Tanlac at Gas City, Ind., and it helped me so much that I continued using it. I have always been very delicate and suffered a great deal from stomach trouble and rheumatism. I rarely ever had any appetite and simply could not relish anything. I fell off until I only weighed 76 pounds and was so thin I looked perfectly awful. This is the condition I was in when I began taking Tanlac.

"Oh, I feel so different now. Even my complexion is improved. My appetite is good and I can hardly get enough to eat. Tanlac is simply grand, and I can truthfully say it is the only medicine that ever done me any good."
 Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

Hidden three months in an unfilled water tank of a steamship, 26 emaciated Chinese stowaways were recently removed to Ellis Island from a British steamship. The discovery was made by a customs official searching for contraband liquor and opium.

How Better Than Pills?

The question has been asked—In what way are Chamberlain's Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is, they are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then, they not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and straighten the digestion.

SHOULD HAVE SEARCH WARRANTS FOR HOUSES

But This Would Be Too Slow for Automobiles Says William J. Bryan.

William J. Bryan, who is now a citizen of Florida and will cast his vote in that State, was in Washington last week. There is always a muddle over some proposed whiskey or beer legislation and Mr. Bryan has this to say on the subject.

"The conference report on the anti-beer bill meets the situation. The supporters of enforcement do not desire to make the laws any more strict than necessary to compel obedience. A private residence is a permanent building and it is entirely proper to require a warrant for search. This might even be extended to permit any bona fide resident to protect his home from search without warrant by making affidavits that he has no liquor unlawfully concealed therein. But it is different with automobiles. To require a warrant before searching a suspected automobile would practically nullify the law. The automobile could go into another county before a warrant could be secured. It is inconceivable that any dry Senator could be deceived by the mock heroes of the wets. Liberty to disobey the law is not considered sacred by any large percentage of the American people. A filibuster by a majority to prevent the enforcement of a constitutional provision is about as undemocratic a procedure as could be imaginable, especially a constitutional provision which outlaws a criminal traffic."

Indian Woman Hopes to Win Suit For $1,000,000

Tulsa, Okla.—What would you do with $1,000,000 should you win that amount in a suit for title to land? Mrs. Rachel Perryman, 85, a Creek Indian and grandmother, who recently filed suit for real estate in Tulsa valued at $1,000,000, says she would buy a new buggy, a young horse and perhaps a few good cows.

"After that," she says, "I don't know. I don't like automobiles, though; they go too fast."

Forty years ago, Mrs. Perryman said, she used to follow the droves of cattle from the Perryman ranch, near Tulsa, to market at Coffeyville, Kan. In those days her husband, George Perryman, was still alive.

When the oil rush began, after she had become used to the cattle-raising business, a demand for vegetables started, and Mrs. Perryman started raising them. Her truck garden became famous, and her husband extended his holdings, she declares, until they included a vast amount of land where Tulsa now stands.

The Perryman home, she said, was built on the site of the present Tulsa country courthouse. As much as $10 and $12 advance was paid daily on calls for produce from her truck garden, Mrs. Perryman said, and she was known as the richest Indian woman in this part of the country.

"That was before Indians began to take an interest in oil," she said.

No Shortage of Babies in State This Year.

Cotton and tobacco may be short this year, and there may be a great scarcity of fruit in all parts of the State, but it is certain that there will be a bumper crop of babies in North Carolina in 1921. Records kept in Raleigh in the form of vital statistics show that 1921 will be probably the greatest year in a long time in the number of babies born in North Carolina. And not only have lots of babies been born this year, but people have been dying more slowly, and altogether the State is promised a big increase in inhabitants during 1921.

Birth and death statistics for the first six months of 1921 compiled by the Bureau of Vital Statistics of the State Board of Health, Dr. F. M. Register, director, indicate an increase of more than 3,000 births over the same period last year, and deaths have decreased by more than two thousand. The same ratio for the year will give the State a net gain in population of 57,816.

During the first six months there were 44,268 babies born in the State while 15,610 people were dying. During the same period last year there were 41,052 babies born, while 18,070 people were dying. The decreased death rate for the present year is attributed partly to the fact no influenza epidemic was abroad during the early months of the year as was the case in 1920.

June appears to be the month most favored for birthdays by the newly arriving babies this year, with a total of 6,100, but last year the new citizens preferred April, and in that month set up a yet unbroken record for births—5,638. February of last year so far holds the record for deaths, when 4,908 people died during the recurrent epidemic of influenza. Deaths this year reached their highest peak for the period to June, with a total of 2,114 reported.

Bishop Lambuth Passes in Japan

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 27.—News of the death yesterday of Bishop Walter Lambuth of the Southern Methodist church in a hospital at Yokohama, Japan, was received here today by relatives.

The death of Bishop Lambuth followed an operation performed a few weeks ago. News of his death, however, was a great shock to his numerous friends here. His father, James William Lambuth, was a missionary and is buried in Japan. It is not known whether the prelate's body will be returned to this country or be buried in the Orient, the scene of his life's work.

Bishop Lambuth was born in Shanghai, China, but educated in this country. His career began as a medical missionary from the Southern Methodist church in China, following his graduation from the Vanderbilt University school of medicine in 1877. Since then his life has been given to the missionary interests of his church. In 1910 he was elected a bishop and for years he has been recognized as one of the leading figures in the missionary movement of the Christian world. One of his recent achievements was the location of a Methodist mission in the Congo country, the first of his church in Africa.

THE FLAVOR LASTS

Chilly rooms made comfortable in a few minutes
 And you don't have to "drive" your coal heater

With delightful autumn days there always come chilly nights and frosty mornings. You dislike to start up the furnace or steam heater until it is actually necessary.

Next to the great convenience of the Perfection Oil Heater is its unusual economy. It burns for about 10 hours on a single gallon of kerosene which costs only about half what it did last year.

It is an expensive luxury to keep seldom-used rooms and hallways heated all the time. Hundreds of thousands of families will cut down their coal bills this fall and winter by using the Perfection as an auxiliary heater. Keep the house warm with the coal heater but use the Perfection to make the living rooms comfortable.

The Perfection Oil Heater placed in front of an exposed door or window will make drafts warm and healthful.

Your hardware, housefurnishing or department store probably carries Perfection Heaters. Ask the salesman to explain their simple, sturdy construction and the smokeless wick adjustment.
