COLEMAN IN JAIL MAKING THREATS

British Captain Claims Much of Original Cargo of Liquor

Newbern, April 30 .- At the jail this afternoon, Arthur Coleman, captain and owner of the British schooner, Messenger of Peace, convicted of selling whiskey and sentenced to six months in jail by Judge H. G. Connor, said he expected to be released on bail Tuesday. His counsel, John D. and Emmett Bellamy, went to Wilmington this morning to attend to securing the bond which was fixed at Captain Coleman declared that he was far from being through with the case. He expects to sue for the recovery of his ship and its cargo of 1,036 cases of assorted whiskey and affidavits which his lawyers have and call him blessed." secured, he said, promise to start a commission when the time comes for prohibition officers to account for the original cargo. It is his intention, Captain Coleman said, to make the authorities who have been in custody of the rum show their hand.

The schooner's Captain is of the opinion that a considerable part of the Methodist church at Old Salem the whiskey has been removed from the customs house at Wilmington. It is a fact, he declared, that he has drunk his own liquor in homes at Wilmington, and right here in New Bern during the trial. He testified that on one occasion, the coast guard officers invited him to take a drink with them in his room at the hotel. It was some of the original cargo that he drank, he says.

The Orange vs. Booze

New and startling benefits of Prohibition are being brought to light frequently. One of the most significant of these benefits is reported by a New York city commission merchant. In a recent conversation with Mr. C. L. Waitman of Citra, Fla., this commission man declared that in his opinion Prohibition was directly responsible for the tremendously increased sale of Florida's citrus fruit on the New York market. Mr. Waitman is a large citrus fruit grower of Florida

Handled much of his product.

Mr. Waitman reminded the commission man that only a few years ago Florida was producing about five million boxes of citrus fruit while million boxes of citrus fruit while this year," said Mr. Waitman, "the state will ship around thirteen million boxes, yet the prices this year will range close around three times what they were when the production was scarcely more than one-half of what it is now. Can you give me any reason why this si so?"

The commission man replied: "I can answer you in a word-Prohibition. It is this way. Heretofore thousands of New Yorkers were suckthousands of New Yorkers were sucking bottles who have now gone to sucking oranges. They get up in the morning and wanting something to drink and unable to obtain liquor as they used to do, they take a orange instead and it satisfies them. There is your reason and there is no doubt truth accomplishes no victories without it."

BORO BURIED HERE

He Had Been Ill for Some Time A Native of Surry County Buried Here Saturday

The funeral of James H. Sparge was conducted from Central Metho-Dr. H. K. Boyer assisted by his pastor Dr. J. H. Barnhart of Greensboro.

The following tribute to Mr. Sparger was written by Dr. Boyer and read at the funeral.

"On April the 28th at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at his home in Greensboro after a long and distressing illness death came, as a release to our friend and brother James H. Sparger. Peaceful was his transition from a bed of suffering into the paradise of God-into the restful tranquility of the home which our Father prepares for his faithful children. In young manhood Brother Sparger was happi ly married to Miss L. D. Mitchell who with seven children survive him.

The children are Mrs. E. H. Koch titzky, Mrs. O. W. Kochtitzky, Mrs. Sam Steele, and Miss Alma Sparger, and three sons, S. W., Fred J. and Edwin M.

This was a delightful and devoted family circle, where good cheer and the finest hospitality abounded.

As the sons and daughters have gone out from the old home to make homes for themselves they have taken their places as useful citizens and reflect the honor due their parents in their careful training. Thus in the lives of his children are perpetuated those virtues for which stood, and truly "his children arise

Surviving him also are the following brothers and sisters: Jno. H. Sparger, Mrs. M. F. Patterson, Mrs. W. S. Creasy, Mrs. W. H. Boyles, B. F. Sparger, Sr.

Brother Sparger was 72 years age and his life has been a life of service. At an early age he joined and through the years he has stood as a tower of strength to the church. giving not only his moral support but giving generously of his means as well. We recall that in the crea-tion of this church building, of which he and his family were at the time prominent members, he was largest contributor. He was a progressive man and as such he was a factor in the development of movements looking toward the betterment of his community. Thus filling the large place which he did in his con munity, in the church, and in his home, he will be sadly missed, but by none so much as by his faithful and devoted wife, who through the long, weary months of his suffering, has been constantly by his side, ministering in every possible way to his com-fort. His children also, have spared no means nor themselves in giving attention and beautiful devotion to him and his wishes

So today, we fold away from among us, a friend who has walked and talked, loved, suffered, and rejoiced with us along life's way, and we shall miss him. But after all, that which we call death is not death, but "the shadow of the cloud passing over the pathway in the valley of life."

'Tis sweet, at the last, when God calls us,

To go to the city of slumber, Released from the ache, and the sor-

No slaving today, or tomorro Ah! call it not death that befalls us, But peace in the city of rest.'

Among those from a distance attending the funeral were the members of the family Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Steele, Rockingham, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Kochtitzky, Wilson, Miss Alma Sparger, and Messrs F. J. and E. M. Sparger of Greensboro and S. W. Sparger of Durham, and Mrs. J. W. Patterson, Mrs. Charles Lipscomb, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Patterson, and Dr. Barnhart of Greensboro and N. H. Wright of Win.tonSalem.
