Get Rid of Wrinkles

In an address on "Brotherhood Through Business," Mr. Basil Thompson of the Winnipeg Kiwanis Club, said the present-day business man needs such clubs as the Kiwanis to erase the wrinkles and to keep him youthful. The world waits for the brotherly spirit of a Golden Rule heart. "Present-day business methods make a community serve a corporation, but we business men are coming back to the aid of the Kiwanians and other clubs, and will make business serve the world," he said.—Selected.

Secret of Success

Be kind. Kindness is the noblest weapon to conquer with. If one does kind acts, thinks kind thoughts, and brightens the pathways of his fellows with kindly smiles, he is almost certain to find his kindness reflected into his own life. On the other hand, if one is gruff and unthinking of the happiness of others, his face is usually hard, his thoughts selfish, and his own pathway bare of the flowers of beauty which are necessary if it is to be a pleasant path to tread. The person who is unkind is not likely to find a welcome anywhere. Even one's own baby quickly recognizes whether he is kind of unkind. Gruff words never bring smiles from baby's lips; and the happiness of rosy, outstretched arm of children never is, experienced by those who treat their little ones harshly. "Spare the rod and spoil the child" used to be the proverb quoted most frequently by parents who gave advice on bringing up the young. But, fortunately, the day when that proverb flourished, is past. There are some, however, who imagine that the only way to rear children properly is by beating the bad out of them. And in consequence, one finds little cheerfulness in certain homes. And we do not think it would wide of the mark to charge much of the lawlessness of the present to the harsh methods used by parents in rearing their little ones. Respect for parents and respect for the right are the two things essential to make a good man and woman out of a boy and girl. The same rule applies in every pathway through life. Business men who rule with the iron hand, who try to keep their employees efficient by ill treatment and "mule-driving," get nowhere in the long run. Life is too short, and the biggest worldly accomplishments are entirely too small to make it worth while for one to spoil others' pleasure by his own selfishness. Kindness is the one sure producer of success and smiles.—Selected.

TERRIBLE CONDITIONS IN SMYRNA

Dr. Esther Lovejoy Tells Of Horror Through Which The Christians Are Passing

Constantinople, Oct. 2.—"The cries of the Christian refugees of Smyrna for water and food are met by a Turkish lash," said Dr. Esther Lovejoy, of New York, president of the women's hospital, who has just returned here after a week's survey in the stricken city. Dr. Lovejoy declared that the world has not been told of the real story of fire and horror.

"There are still several hundred thousand Christians in Smyrna and the interior, whose lives are in peril, for the time limit of their evacuation has expired," said she. "Only Providence knows what their fate will be. The crowds on the quay are so great that some of them are pushed into the sea. Women stand waist deep in the water, holding their babies aloft in their arms to save them from drowning."

"Turkish soldiers are systematically robbing the men and wrenching rings from women's fingers. The wretched sufferers are willing to be robbed, if the robbing can purchase life."

"At night, the Turkish soldiers commit excesses against women and girls. Only when searchlights from the ships in the harbor are turned on them do they desist. In terror of Turks, the refugees are packed in thousands in front of the American consulate."

"There are more than 100 mothers who gave birth to babies. Some were delivered while standing. I attended many. Some of the infants died within a few hours from exposure, but the mothers clung pitifully to the bodies of the little things."

Dr. Lovejoy said that a Turkish soldier, mistaking her for a Greek woman, struck her heavily with the butt end of a rifle and left a mark. This soldier was about to strike her again when an American officer intervened. She declared she saw two men attempting to escape by swimming out to a boat. They were discovered by Turkish soldiers who fired on them. The shots went wild and American bluejackets in a motorboat were able to pick up the two men.

One of the doctors, asserted Dr. Lovejoy, witnessed a Greek woman cut her throat and then hurl herself into the water and drown. Americans at home could not begin to visualize the terrible anguish of the refugees as their loved ones were torn from them—children being separated from their mothers and the fathers sent into the interior, declared the relief worker.

Dr. Lovejoy described the sanitary conditions in Smyrna as unspeakable. The whole city, she said, was befouled. She thought that the Turkish officers were doubtless unaware of the misbehavior of their soldiers. In many cases officers showed real compassion for the refugees, she said. She mentioned one instance in which a Turk threw himself across the body of a child in order to save it from being trampled to death.

Mr. Clemmer had suffered much annoyance from rheumatism for a year or more, and not being able to find relief from other sources he finally resorted to Tanlac. But let him tell his own story. Here is his statement.

"I was suffering from rheumatism so badly in my arm and shoulder that I could hardly move. I was in such pain that it was almost impossible for me to get anything done. It had rendered me almost helpless and, as nothing did me any good, I became very much depressed."

"My wife kept insisting that I give Tanlac a trial and I have been thankful a thousand times that finally I took her advice. After I finished my third bottle the rheumatism was gone and while that has been a year ago now I've never had the least trouble since. I don't know what Tanlac will do for others, but it certainly did the work for me."

Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

The World's Greatest Needs

What the world sadly needs today is more religion, and less of the material views of life. We are all striving for peace, happiness, and contentment. That can only come when we are ready to help others and assist the weak and unfortunate. The selfish life is a sad and gloomy one. Sunshine and smiles can only come to those who love to help others. The greatest satisfaction that can come to any individual is the knowledge that he has assisted the needy and unfortunate. When we reach the stage where we can treat all men as brothers, there will be no war.—Selected.
