Out of the number found to be suffering with this disease only three of them were so far advanced but what they can get well if only they had a chance. It has been well said that the next step in the fight against tuberculosis is finding it. It is easily cured if found in time. In the beginning. If you have it, it is your duty to know it. Remember you can get well if it is found in time and that you get busy and don't wait six months or until you are confined to your bed.

T. T. Barker Passes.
T. T. Barker was born Feb. 15, 1842, died March 15, 1923, aged 81 years and one month. He had been in seemingly good health until a week before his death he was taken with a serious kidney trouble, and gradually grew worse until the end.
He was one of our oldest citizens and often related the trials and hardships he endured during the Civil war. He had been a member of the Missionary Baptist church for over 50 years, and lived a straight-forward christian life all these many years. Always ready to lend a helping hand to those in need. His body was laid to rest Saturday at 2 o'clock at Hollow Springs beside his loving companion, who preceded him about two years ago.
Services were conducted by Rev. Willie Chilton. Two sons A. D. and S. C. Barker and eight grand-children survive him, also two brothers, Mr. J. E. Barker, Mt. Airy and Mr. D. F. Barker of Winston-Salem, and two sisters, Mrs. M. L. Owens, Mt. Airy, R. 1 and Mrs. Tempy Poore, of Dayton, Ohio.

Bride and Bride-to-Be Honored
The home of Mrs. E. W. Paddison was the scene of a pretty party Tuesday afternoon when the members of Mrs. Paddison's bridge club were entertained with Mrs. Oscar Yokley, a March bride, and Miss Jamie Hadley, an April bride-elect, as honorees.
A charming color scheme of yellow and white was carried out and bridge was played at five tables, the score being kept by Miss Eleanor Kirkman.
Miss Anna Rector made top score and received an enameled basket of flowers, and Mrs. Milton Cash, who held lowest score, was consoled with a set of hand-painted table numbers.
A cut glass comport was presented to Mrs. Yokley and a pair of silver candlesticks to Miss Hadley.
Refreshments, consisting of a salad course and an ice course, were served by Mesdames Winston Fulton, James Yokley, Graham Harrison, W. S. Wolfe and Robert Lovill.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE
Relieved of Nervousness and Other Distressing Ailments by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound
Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I first took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound four years ago, and am taking it now for the Change of Life and other troubles and I receive great benefit from it. I am willing to let you use my letter as a testimonial because it is the truth. I found your booklet in my letter-box and read it carefully, and that is how I came to take the Vegetable Compound myself. It has given me quiet nerves so that I sleep all night, and a better appetite. I have recommended it already to all my friends and relatives."—Mrs. ENGLEMAN, 2032 Palmetto St., Ridgewood, Brooklyn, N. Y.
For the woman suffering from nervous troubles causing sleeplessness, headache, hysteria, "the blues," Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will be found a splendid medicine. For the woman of middle age who is passing through the trials of that period, it can be depended upon to relieve the troubles common at that time.
Remember, the Vegetable Compound has a record of nearly fifty years of service and thousands of women praise its merit, as does Mrs. Englemann. You should give it a fair trial now.
