

The only cap that's right for rainy-day wear—"SURE-FIT"

THE ONLY cap, we repeat. A statement, that—but see the facts: Suppose it's blowing like all sixty. You take hold of the little strap on your "SURE-FIT", snug it in a bit as you would your belt—and that cap'll sit right till your head blows off. Suppose you're out for some time in the rain. Any cap'll shrink then. You'd be darned uncomfortable in an ordinary cap. But you just ease out the strap in your "SURE-FIT" and go on smilingly. Tight or loose, or in-between, your "SURE-FIT" always fits comfortably, perfectly. And, if you get one of the show-approved "SURE-FIT" you'll be cock of the walk so far as head-gear is concerned. The show-proving process keeps the cap in shape, improves its finish, makes it last longer, and sheds showers like a duck. See the new Fifth Avenue style and pattern that have just come in. Prices the same as you'd pay for any stylish cap—and you get "SURE-FIT" unparalleled comfort.

"Built Me Up"

"I USED Cardui for years and it did me more good than any medicine I ever used," writes Mrs. M. C. Ragdale, of Fort Towson, Okla. "I used to suffer with womanly trouble that weakened me until I was a mere shadow, nervous, and could not sleep. I did not feel like I could live.

strengthened me and, as 'twas recommended to do, it regulated and built me up till I was like another woman." If you are weak, run-down and feel that you need a tonic, take Cardui, the woman's tonic, the tonic about which you have always heard, the tonic that helps weak women regain their strength.

Cardui acts on the womanly system and helps relieve pain and discomfort due to female ailments.

Try Cardui, today, for your trouble.

Former Surry Resident Honored

A recent issue of The Asheville Citizen carried a front page story about the appointment of Dr. Charles S. Norburn, U. S. N. as surgeon to the President of the United States for his Alaskan trip.

Dr. Norburn sailed on the Henderson via the Panama Canal leaving Norfolk June 1st.

The vessel will touch the Pacific Coast at San Francisco where President Harding and party will go aboard.

This announcement will be of local interest inasmuch as he spent part of his childhood in this county, his mother being Mrs. Susan L. Strickland daughter of Mathew W. Strickland of the Westfield section. Dr. Norburn's mother was educated at Miss Lizzie Gilmer's school for girls and will be remembered by the older residents.

Dr. Norburn's rise to prominence in the navy started in 1917, when he volunteered for service at the outbreak of the World War. He was graduated a few weeks ahead of time from the University of Virginia in order to enter the United States Navy and left immediately after his graduation for Philadelphia where he took a course in general surgery at Dr. DuCosta's clinics. Following this Dr. Norburn served upon the "Connecticut," the flagship of the Atlantic fleet, but did his greatest share of war work aboard the hospital ship, "Comfort," where his surgery first attracted particular attention.

His war record was such that a number of honors have been conferred upon him, one of which was that he was one of the first two men selected through the Naval Medical school in Washington, D. C. for a course at the well-known Mayo clinic Rochester Minn., another an appointment as X-ray instructor at the Naval Medical school, Washington.

After his return from Alaska he will visit his parents in Asheville.

HAD SURPRISE OF HER WHOLE LIFE

Mrs. Manning, Enjoying Health Strength She Never Expected, Thanks Tanlac

"My stubborn case of stomach trouble is completely gone, but if I had not taken Tanlac when I did I believe I would have become a nervous wreck," recently affirmed Mrs. Laura Manning, Osceola Mills, Gastonia, N. C. "For about ten years, I had drifted from bad to worse, and finally reached the point where I could hardly get about. Every bite I ate hurt me. Gas would form on my stomach, and my heart palpitated until it alarmed me. I was so nervous the children playing around the house almost distracted me, and I simply felt miserable all the time. "I improved so quickly when I got Tanlac that it was the surprise of my life. I have only been taking the treatment for a few weeks now, but already it has me feeling fine in every way. Tanlac certainly is the right medicine for troubles like I had."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37-million bottles sold. Tanlac Vegetable Pills are Nature's own remedy for constipation. For sale everywhere.

Martin-Stone

Roanoke, Va., June 8.—One of the attractive home weddings of the season was that of Miss Thelma Louise Martin, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Martin, to Mr. James Love Stone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Stone, which was solemnized on last evening in the presence of relatives and immediate friends of the couple.

The bridal party entered the drawing room which was artistically decorated in cut roses and palms, to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March. The music was rendered by Miss Eleanor Stone, sister of the groom. She was very becomingly gowned in white silk crepe and was wearing a corsage of pink rosebuds.

The ribbon bearers, Blanche Lindsey and Walter Martin, Jr., made an aisle through the reception hall and drawing room, down which the bridal party passed. First in order was the bridegroom, accompanied by his best man, Mr. James Bruner, attired in the conventional dark suits. Next followed the little ring bearer, Lora Lindsey, dressed as a miniature bride and carrying the ring in a lovely white lily. She was followed by the little flower girl, Ruth Lindsey, carrying a pink and white basket filled with rose pedals which she strewed in the path of the bride as she descended the rose-latticed stairway on the arm of her maid of honor, Miss Reba Moomaw, who wore a gown of pale blue georgette over silver and carried Killarney roses.

The bride was beautifully attired in a handsome suit of fawn pointed twill with corresponding accessories and was wearing a corsage of bridal roses and valley lilies.

At the close of the ceremony an elaborate reception was given by the parents of the bride at which more than a hundred guests were served. The receiving line consisted of the bride and groom, parents of bride and groom, maid of honor and best man.

The guests were ushered into the dining room by Mrs. C. G. Lindsey, where the color scheme of pink and white was carried out. Here the guests participated in the cutting of the beautiful wedding cake, and were served a delicious ice course.

The bride is one of Roanoke's most attractive and talented young ladies, while the groom is a promising young banker.

Mr. and Mrs. Stone, after an extended northern tour, will be at home at 412 Woods avenue, S. W., this city.
