ACHING LIMBS
And Many Other Common Ills Relieved by Black-Draught.

Mrs. John Skaggs, residing near Lanes Prairie, Mo., on the Ozark Trail, says: "I have taken Black-Draught for a number of years, about fifteen, and it is about the only purgative medicine I ever take. It is the only kind that I've found that doesn't hurt me. I take Black-Draught for indigestion, for colds and headaches. I take it for aching in my limbs and shoulders. It helps this trouble. I take it for sour stomach."

"We think Black-Draught is splendid and never are without it in the house."

"I suffered with gas on my stomach that affected my breathing, and Black-Draught helped this trouble."

"For such common complaints, I think Black-Draught is the best medicine a person can use."

For millions of others, Black-Draught is their favorite liver and stomach medicine.

A. L. Brooks Gives Interesting High Lights On Europe Today

Recounts Fascinating Tales of Sights Viewed While on Two Months' Cruise of Mediterranean—Gives Brief Resume of Existing Conditions in Several Countries.

Greensboro Daily News.
Greensboro, May 9.—A. L. Brooks, who returned this morning with Mrs. Brooks from a two months' Mediterranean cruise, throw some interesting high lights on the present situation in the various countries of Europe that they visited and recounted many fascinating tales of the glories of the cradle of civilization in an interview with a Daily News reporter.

"We enjoyed the opportunity to view at first hand the places and things of interest that we had read and heard about," Mr. Brooks said, "but the outstanding, gratifying and satisfying fact that was brought home to us is this: Everywhere in Europe, Asia and Africa, the people discuss the United States of America incessantly and welcome the American tourists, many of whom spend money like drunken soldiers, with open arms—and hands. The American dollar is the most current and distinguished in every country."

"The old world remains the old world. In all lands, the citizens are accepting the fact that America is the new world of opportunity, hope and promise where one can achieve success unhampered by the traditions and shackling customs of the ancients."

"Conditions in Palestine are distressing," Mr. Brooks declared. "There has been no rain for months and there is scarcely any water to be had for any purpose."

"The outcome of the Zionist movement is very doubtful," he remarked. "A great deal of latent unrest and resentment is noticeable on the part of the Arabs toward the British for their apparent attitude. Many of the Jews who come to settle on the land purchased by the British are from Russia and Poland. They bring with them, in many instances, disturbing socialistic and anarchistic propaganda. Much criticism of the British as a nation was heard when Lord Balfour opened the new Jewish university and Arabs by the thousands prayed that the wrath of Allah might descend and destroy him."

In discussing Italy, Mr. Brooks made some startling statements. "Mussolini is tremendously in favor among all classes," he said. "They admit he is an unrestrained dictator who doesn't hesitate to use his power to perpetuate his political control. But he rose up in opposition to a growing socialistic power of which the people were afraid." And then came the striking statement.

"While in the vatican, a prominent Catholic of Rome said to me, 'Italy is on the high road to progress and prosperity. It has three great men—King Emanuel, the pope and Mussolini. And the greatest of these is Mussolini.'"

"In France we found that conditions have improved remarkably in the past two years. The agricultural parts of the country looked especially prosperous. A change of cabinet was effected while we were in Paris. Caillaux is back in power and even his personal enemies seem disposed to give him a chance to show what he can do to re-establish economic stability in the country."

"While in Paris we witnessed the ceremony that took place when King George placed a wreath on the monument to the unknown soldier. In Rome we attended the Easter services at St. Peter's and saw the opening of the holy door that is only thrown wide once every 25 years." Mr. Brooks said. "We saw a phenomenal sight—Vesuvius in eruption while covered with snow. The temple of Karnak, one of the most spectacular remains of all antiquity, built in 1,500 B. C., was visited in Egypt. We gazed upon the celebrated beauties of the bay of Naples—and they far surpassed our most ambitious expectations. The mummy of Ramses II, with hair, nails and all features in a marvelous state of preservation astounded us. And, to make another quick jump, one of the funniest and most significant things I saw and heard was this: An Arab mounted on a donkey persistently shouted 'Yankee Doodle' at the boat. It seems he had once heard the air of Yankee Doodle and with the faith that moves mountains believed it would work wonders in accelerating the donkey's languorous gait. Another had dubbed his mate 'George Washington.' When asked why he replied naively 'First in war, first in peace and first in the hearts of his countrymen.'"

Mr. Brooks had hundreds of interesting accounts of places visited. The party stopped at Gibraltar, points in Spain, Algiers, Morocco, the French Riviera, Monte Carlo, traveled on to Nice and Athens, through the Aegean sea to Constantinople, the straits of Dardanelles and left the ship at Haifa, Palestine. They motored to Nazareth and several historical spots, went to Jerusalem, thence via the Dead sea and Suez canal to Cairo, where they spent two weeks. A boat trip was taken up the Nile, the tombs of kings and queens of ancient times were inspected, the pyramids were duly admired and the group returned to embark on the homeward trip. "And it's mighty good to be home," Mr. Brooks concluded.

What are the Protestant Churches Coming to?

ARE YOU A PROTESTANT CHURCH MEMBER? Are you aware of the fact that American Protestantism is fast slipping from the rocky heights of true Bible faith? Do you know that scores of theological seminaries, where your future ministers are being trained, have ruled out an infallible Bible; that thousands of ministers are preaching a man-made gospel; and that literally hundreds of thousands of church members are being swept along by this ever-rising tide of "modernism?"

Do you know that this country today is thickly dotted with churches that are mere shells of their former selves? Do you know that a general collapse of American Protestantism was actually threatening some time ago; that a mighty counter-movement has started; and that we are in THE GREAT CRISIS right now?

We want to reach EVERYBODY that calls himself a church member—also those who do not read a church paper, and they are legion. Hence this general announcement in your secular paper. Men and women, are you in favor of retaining the Bible that your fathers believed in and that your mothers trusted in, that was their hope and stay in times of grief and sorrow, that gave them cheering visions of a heavenly rest—the rest that your liberals do not believe in because it belongs to the "supernatural" and, therefore, "unknowable"? Will you join us in saying "Whatever you do, or don't do, but HANDS OFF THE BIBLE?" Will you help save the Bible for America? Will you join in the fight for its integrity? Will you, too, deny modern scholarship the right to rob us of the only sure foundation upon which our feet can stand, in these shifting sands of time?

Then you are interested in the news that we are now able to convey to you—the greatest piece of news heralded for a long time. It is this, THAT A NEW REFORMATION IS COMING! There are rumblings everywhere of the approaching battle—the battle between faith and unbelief, between true religion and false science, between FUNDAMENTALISM and LIBERALISM. And there is yet more news. It is this—that A GREAT GENERAL MAGAZINE is now being published, for all the Protestant denominations, edited by the great leaders of conservative Protestantism, which is here to keep its readers promptly informed of every new development in the "new Reformation" movement, and which is blazing the way to a "new Protestantism" in America! The magazine is bigger than any denomination; it has nothing to do with this sect or that. It is interdenominational. It is here to fight, on a huge, nation-wide scale, for the sanctity of the Bible! It is here to place the Bible where our fathers placed it—far above all the thoughts, and philosophies, and imaginations, of mere men! And it is here to adore a DIVINE CHRIST in that DIVINELY INSPIRED BIBLE! That is the only Christ men and women would want for their Savior in the hour of death; that is the only Bible they would care to rely on when the chilly waves begin to strike their feet, weary of travel.

TO KNOW WHAT IS GOING ON IN THESE MOMENTOUS TIMES, READ

The New REFORMATION

A Monthly Magazine for All the Churches, Representing the Nation-Wide Movement against Modernism and for the Positive Recognition of the Sanctity of the Scriptures.

EDITORS: JOHN CLOVER MONSMA, editor-in-chief; WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN, former U. S. Secretary of State; HORACE M. DUBOSE, Bishop Methodist Episcopal Church, South; LEANDER S. KEYSER, Professor Lutheran Divinity School; CLARENCE EDWARD MACARTNEY, Moderator Presbyterian Church U. S. A.; MARK A. MATTHEWS, Minister of largest Presbyterian church in the world, Seattle, Wash.; GEORGE M'CREADY PRICE, expert Geologist, of England; L. R. SCARBOROUGH, President Southwestern Baptist Seminary; JOHN ROACH STRATON, Minister Calvary Baptist Church, New York; GEORGE WHEATON TAFT, President Northern Baptist Seminary, Chicago; MARTIN LUTHER THOMAS, Minister First Presbyterian Church, San Pedro, Cal.—and numerous contributors of note.

This is not a church paper! It is unlike anything you have ever seen. It is bold, but not radical. It is fearless, but not rude. It is powerful in its true, deep, clear faith, but not bigoted. It is conservative, and yet sanely progressive.

One of the paper's greatest features is the Practical Comment on the Sunday School lessons, by the editor-in-chief, Dr. Monsma. It's unlike anything else ever published in the Sunday School line—not an exposition (you will still need your lesson helps) and yet something that will enable you to grasp the lessons and to apply them practically like never before. "Practical Comment" is written in a snappy style, reads like a story, and goes right to the heart of every lesson.
