A Naval Party

A novel and interesting meeting of the T. E. L. class of the First Baptist church was held in the church Tuesday evening.

The class is composed of the younger married ladies and Messrs. J. C. Hill, J. S. Bray, L. P. Wynn, Bob Forrest and W. A. Jackson were hostesses.

It was their annual Christmas party but introduced an unusual feature in that all the members attended dressed as little girls with their hair in braids adorned with ribbons or flowing according to their taste.

A lovely Christmas tree delighted the "little girls" and a program of songs and recitations was given, and Santa Claus presented a gift to each member. After the program creamed chicken on toast, Russian tea and animal cakes were served the favors were stockings filled with candy and nuts.

Pre-Nuptial Events for Miss Yates

Miss Dorothy Yates, of Raleigh, bride elect of Mr. Bruce Yokley, of this city, has been honored at quite a number of lovely social affairs since the engagement was announced a few weeks ago; among these was a bridge-luncheon given on Tuesday morning of last week by Mrs. J. C. Bowman, of El Paso, Texas sister of the bride elect who is in Raleigh for the wedding, when covers were laid for 18 guests at the Raleigh Woman's club.

On Wednesday, of last week Miss Yates shared honors with another bride elect and a recent bride at a tea given by Miss Margaret Hunter.

A handkerchief shower on Saturday afternoon, given by Mrs. E. H. Garrison for Miss Yates, was another delightful affair.

On Monday Miss Yates shared honors with Mrs. Effie A. Hunter at a luncheon at 1 o'clock given by Mrs. M. T. Norris. Wednesday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock Miss Josephine Parker honored Miss Yates with a bridge party at her home on Forest Road. On Friday afternoon Miss Marjorie Yates sister of the bride-elect, will entertain at tea for Miss Dorothy Yates, Mrs. J. C. Bowman, of Texas, and Mrs. E. G. Smith, of this city.

Following the rehearsal Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Yates will give an informal reception at their home on Wilsforest street.

The wedding will take place Saturday evening at 8 P. M. at the First Baptist Church, of Raleigh. Mrs. E. G. Smith, sister of the bride-elect and Miss Alma Yokley, sister of the groom-elect both of this city, are already in Raleigh and other friends and relatives will go down for the marriage Saturday.

Notice of Sale of Real Estate Under Deed in Trust

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a deed of trust executed to me on the 2nd day of December, 1924, by J. S. Hollingsworth, Ada Hollingsworth and C. H. Hollingsworth, recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in book 89, page 306, Surry County, to which reference is hereunto made, to secure the payment of a note therein recited in the sum of $1,700.00 dollars to W. V. Joyce, default having been made in the payment of said note at maturity, and the holder thereof having applied to me to foreclose the trust deed for the satisfaction of the note, I will expose to public sale at the highest bidder for cash in front of the Post Office door, Westfield, Surry County, N. C., on Saturday, January 2nd, 1926 at one o'clock, P. M., the equity and redemption of J. S. Hollingsworth, Ada Hollingsworth and C. H. Christmas Musical Program

The Public is Invited—No Charge The music department of the Woman's club will render their annual program of Christmas music in the auditorium of Central Methodist Church Friday evening at 8 o'clock. No admission will be charged for those who will do so are asked to bring gifts for the poor to be turned over to the Salvation Army for distribution. It need not be money and it need not be new—a used garment, a glass of jelly, a can of fruit, a toy anything that will bring comfort or joy to some unfortunate one. The program will furnish a variety that is sure to please, solos, duets, chorus singing and readings, you will be sure to feel repaid for attending.

Parent Teacher Meeting

The December meeting Parent-Teacher association was held in the high school Monday evening with a program and splendid attendance. Almost the entire time was given over to a Christmas program by pupils of North Main and Rockford street schools and one of the 7th grades.

A number of new names were presented for membership which shows that this organization is growing.

Mrs. Gwyn Bridge Hostess

Mrs. J. H. Gwyn was hostess to the members of the Married Ladies Bridge club last Friday afternoon. Sprigs of holly furnished the decorations and top score was made by Mrs. John Sobotta.

Quail on toast, fruit salad, coffee and mints furnished an attractive course of refreshments after the game.

High School Grounds Made Beautiful

The Parent-Teacher association at a cost of more than two hundred fifty dollars is having shrubbery planted around the high school building and on the grounds.

Large nursery stock is being set out so that there will be no long wait for baby plants to grow, however each succeeding year will of course add to the beauty of the trees and shrubs being used.

The association hopes to have the grounds at the grade schools planted later on but felt that the high school should come first as the children now in high school can enjoy it and it will be the school home, a few years from now, for the pupils now in the grade schools.
