KIWANIS PROGRAM

Friday Evening, Feb. 12.

Music.
 "Playgrounds," R. S. Ricker.
 Special Music.
 "The Greatest Task of Kiwanis", John Brown, of Winston-Salem, N. C. Music.
 The program for February 12th is in charge of the House Committee. Ed Dixon is chairman and he is importing John Brown from Winston-Salem to give us something to think about. If you know John you certainly will not want to miss this meeting. Then there will be some fine music that will be worth coming out to hear. Dan Hoffman may sing a solo, who knows?
 The attendance has been splendid this year. Let's keep this record up. On February 20th Ed Linville is planning a "Father and Son" night. Remember this and make your plans to be on hand at that time. This will prove to be one of the most interesting meetings of the whole year.

The Kiwanis Club of Mount Airy wants the citizenship of our community to know that we are interested in and ready to put our influence behind any forward movement that may be of advantage to our section of North Carolina and more especially to Surry County and to Mount Airy and vicinity. Our motto is "We Build," and that means we build along all progressive lines of endeavor. We realize the fact that we have the best place to live on the earth and we want to make it better and better as father time swings his scythe. To do this we need and solicit the co-operation and support of the citizenship. We want to see Mount Airy and Surry County with every citizen therein pulling together for the progress and upbuilding of our community. If you have ideas and plans for this kind of work and want to see them carried to fruition and thing this Club can aid in the work, then put them before the Club and help put it across. We are building for You as well as for ourselves.

MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION HAS LARGE MEMBERSHIP

Local Association is Member of North Carolina Merchants Association
 There is a list of all members of the Mount Airy Merchants association, listed in the advertisement in this issue of the Mount Airy News.
 Since the banquet held at the Blue Ridge hotel January 28, when Mr. Paul Leonard of Statesville met with our local association and delivered to them a very interesting address on what the State association was doing in North Carolina, the local association has joined the State association. This forward step means a great deal to the local merchants.
 A Merchants association is a great asset for any town and the merchants in a town cannot render as good service to the public without an association as they can with one.
 Through the magazines taken by members of the Merchants association, and the progressive ideas in business inculcated in each member, and the co-operative spirit obtained by being associated together in a Merchants association enables them to give to the public cheaper and better merchandise.
 A Merchants association is not only a great asset to the members and a great help to their customers in getting better merchandise, but it advertises our town in a way that means much to the general public, and in a way that will bring results.
 Our local association is devoting a great deal of time trying to interest manufacturing enterprises in Mount Airy and should they be successful in so doing it would not only help the merchants but would help Mount Airy as a whole.
 The public should stand behind the Merchants association and help them in every way possible to make Mount Airy a bigger and better town. The slogan of the association is "Publicity," and the citizens of Mount Airy should join with them in telling the public what Mount Airy has to offer factory builders and home seekers.
