Former North Carolinian Died in Texas

Many of our older readers remember pleasantly Mrs. Nan Brown formerly of Stokes county who moved to Texas about 15 years ago. Mrs. Brown died at Harlingen, Texas, Feb. 8, she is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Arthur Moore, and four sons all of Texas. Mrs. Brown is related to several of the leading families here.

X-Ray Revealed Broken Collar Bone

Dick Hall has returned to his home at Claudeville, Va., after having his collar bone re-set at the hospital in this city. The young man was the victim of an unusual accident; one evening last week he attempted to cross a wire fence and his clothing hung on the fence throwing him in a ditch in a way to jam his shoulder and break the collar bone.

Son and Mother Dead

Barney Cockerham, aged 18 years, son of W. R. Cockerham, died at his home on Taylor street Monday and was buried at Antioch Tuesday morning.

His mother, Mrs. Myrtle Cockerham, died Tuesday and was buried at Antioch Wednesday afternoon. Funeral services were conducted for each by Rev. E. G. Davis.

Miss Bailey Valentine Party Hostess

Miss Louise Bailey was hostess at a lovely Valentine party Saturday afternoon when bridge was played at three tables, the top score prize being won by Mrs. Fred Folger and the consolation being awarded Miss Lois Haymore.

Valentine score cards and decorations were used with baskets of red candy hearts and red candles. Snapping favors with fancy paper caps added spice to the refreshment hour when a delicious salad course with Russian tea was served.

Mrs. Fulton Hostess

Mrs. Winston Fulton was hostess to the members of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club and other friends at an unusually pretty party Wednesday afternoon of last week having as her guests of honor Mrs. Ed Rector, of Charlotte, Mrs. Randall Sparger and Mrs. Bruce Yokley of this city, blooming hyacinths furnishing the decorations.

Bridge was played and the top club score was held by Mrs. E. C. Bivens, the visitors' top score was held by Mrs. Raymond Smith, each received a deck of cards and a double deck of cards was presented to Mrs. Rector; to the other honorees, who were recent brides, the hostess presented attractive candy jars.

An elaborate and very appetizing salad course was served at the close of the game.

Visitor's Day

Monday, February the twenty second will be observed as Visitor's Day in the Mount Airy Schools. All patrons and friends of the schools are cordially invited to manifest their interest in the pupils by coming to see them in their class room.

Regular class work will be done for the greater portion of the day. The chapel exercises for the week will be given at both North Main and Rockford Schools in the afternoon.

Mrs. Inman Hostess to Young Matrons

Mrs. Ed Inman very delightfully entertained the members of the Young Matrons Book club and other friends Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. Rook was played at ten tables, bowls of narcissuses and hyacinths lending their beauty and fragrance to the happy scene.

A delicious fruit salad course and mints were served by the hostess assisted by Mesdames A. V. West, J. G. Powell, William Merritt, Carroll Hill, W. S. Wolfe, John Folger and Hugh Holcomb.

Billy Sunday Club at Haymore Memorial

"A season of wonderful religious enthusiasm, a great spiritual feast, an inspiration and blessing" are among the expressions used by those attending the two meetings conducted at Haymore Memorial Baptist church last Sunday afternoon and evenings by the Billy Sunday evangelistic club No. 15 of Winston-Salem. All seem agreed that the Winston-Salem boys are very happy in their religious experience and service.

Capt. J. H. Hamrick was in charge and there were a few women among the 46 visitors from the Twin City. There was something vital and gripping in their joyous testimonies as to what the religion of the Lord Jesus had meant in their lives and those who heard were moved and thrilled by the enthusiasm of the visitors. This church was particularly fortunate in its Sunday services, the pulpit being filled in the morning by the Rev. C. C. Haymore.

Birthday Celebration

Miss Kathleen Wyrick celebrated her 17th birthday Friday by entertaining about 25 friends with a party.

She was the recipient of a number of nice presents. The birthday cake was served as a part of the tempting course of refreshments.

Try this delightful drink—PEPSI-COLA—it's so different from any other.

The Topic of the Day in Mount Airy

We are to have a live

Chamber of Commerce that is going to tell the world that we are the Berries.

Southern Power Co. is coming. We need a cracker-jack hotel. If you don't believe a good hotel will make a hustling city, look at what the O. Henry did for Greensboro.

Let's Blow Our Horns Boost Mt. Airy and Trade at Home

In this connection we will mention that our buyers are back from New York with the most beautiful array of Hats, Coats and Dresses that has ever been our pleasure to show. Hundreds of Hats are here but it will probably be another week before all our Coats and Dresses are here.

However, we want you to come in when convenient and see the very latest styles. They are truly beautiful and the prices (we believe you will agree) are most reasonable.
