Aged Mother at Rest

Annie Elizabeth Hatcher Robertson was born in Bedford County, Va., in Aug. 1845 and departed this life Feb. 27 aged 82 1-2 years. She was converted and joined the Missionary Baptist Church in her girlhood and lived faithful to her Master to the end.

She was married to Thomas B. Robertson in 1859, unto this union were born nine children five of whom with the father and husband preceded here to the beyond, they are John C., Charlie L. and Willie F. Robertson, Mrs. Anna B. White and Minnie Robertson, the latter died in childhood. Surviving her are Mrs. Patra Sanders, J. P. Robertson, D. A. Robertson and Mrs. Lula Creed. She was the eldest of a family of nine children and the last of the group to be called.

"Grandma" was a loving companion and a devoted mother always eager to serve, encouraging the distressed or discouraged to look farther on, for she was a firm believer in the scripture and oft repeated "All things work together for good to them that love the Lord."

Funeral services were conducted at the Missionary Baptist Church at White Plains Sunday afternoon by Rev. Ben Millikan and Mrs. Lottie Robertson a large crowd of relatives and friends attending. The flower girls were Christina, Virginia, and Lorena Robertson and Nine Robertson Miller, granddaughters of the deceased and the pall bearers were her grandsons Roosevelt, Harry, Walter, Van and Howard Robertson and William Saunders.

Service Wednesday 7.00 P. M.

The pastor preaches next Sunday morning and evening on the following themes, "A Never Dying Fire," and "Certain Sins of the Granite City." Need the spiritual, dynamic life of the church ever wane or wax dim? Does keeping up a form of religion make for security? How can a church always be on fire for Christ? These and more questions of live importance will be discussed Sunday morning. The Sunday evening message is the fourth in a series of practical Sunday evening messages the pastor is preaching. What is the preacher's one supreme task? What are some of Mt. Airy's failings? How can we best help make the Granite City the city it should be? These questions will be answered in the message Sunday evening. You and your friends are cordially invited. There is not a sermon you shall hear that shall not in some way find itself related to Christ and His cross.
