MACHINE GUN MOWS DOWN CITY OFFICIALS

Star Prosecuting Attorney and Two Friends Victims of Vicious Gunmen.

Chicago, April 28.—William H. McSwiggan, star prosecutor on the staff of State's Attorney Crowe, and two other men lay dead here today, victims of a band of assassins.

A machine gun mounted in an automobile poured its deadly volley into a group of four men who shortly before midnight stood in front of a saloon on West Roosevelt road, Cicero. Two of the men were McSwiggan and James J. Doherty, leader of Cicero beer running gang. Both were killed instantly. Thomas Duffy fell, mortally wounded. He died an hour later in a hospital. A fourth man, unidentified, escaped.

The murder car, heavily curtained, moved down the street slowly. When directly in front of where McSwiggan and the three others were standing, a machine gun mounted in the front seat began spitting fire. Three of the men dropped in their tracks. The gangster car then speeded on and was lost in the darkness.

Conflicting stories of witnesses only serve to intensify the mystery surrounding the tragic affair. According to one witness two men in a parked automobile across the street immediately gathered up the bodies of McSwiggan and Doherty and drove away in their car. Another witness says the fourth man who survived the deadly machine gun fire dragged the two bodies out on the prairie toward Berwyn.

Both bodies were found in a field in Berwyn an hour after the shooting.

State's Attorney Crowe was dumbfounded when awakened in his home and told of the death of young McSwiggan. He immediately called a conference of all his detectives and assistant state's attorneys and a vigorous drive was started within an hour to round up all suspicious characters in Chicago and suburbs. The raiding order said: "Get every beer runner, every gunman, every bootlegger and every other kind of racketeer in reach."

Young McSwiggan was only 27 years old. Because of his fearless prosecutions and the high average of convictions obtain he had come to be called the "hanging prosecutor." He has sent five men to the gallows during the past year.

He had many and powerful enemies among the criminal element. His latest important case was the prosecution of the Genna gangsters, Albert Anselmi and John Scalise, charged with killing two police officers. The case was stubbornly fought and McSwiggan obtained a conviction, but the men escaped the noose.

Another theory, and one given credence, is that friends of the notorious bandit killer, Martin Durkin, who is scheduled to come to trial early next month with McSwiggan in the role of chief prosecutor, conspired to get him out of the way.

Uncle Sam's Condor Lays 'Golden Egg.'

Washington, May 3.—The goose that laid the golden egg is working for Uncle Sam, only the goose is a California condor, one of the four birds of this almost extinct species known to be in captivity.

For the second time this year, a condor at the national zoo here has laid an egg, valued at $750. It will be entrusted to an ordinary barnyard hen of domestic instincts in the hope that a condor chick will be hatched.

The condor is a near relation of the turkey buzzard, averaging four feet in length and weighing 20 to 25 pounds. It usually has a nine foot wing spread and is marked by black plumage and brilliant orange and red tinted skin on the bald head and upper neck.

The trio at the national zoo have been there more than 20 years and this is the fifth egg produced in that time. A hen gets the hatching job this time because the condor broke the other's eggs. The egg is a four inch affair, and the usual laying rate is one a year.

Formerly the condor swarmed along the Pacific coast and miners used their quills to carry cold dust. Scientists believe that not more than 100 birds survive in their wild state in Southern and Lower California and the only other condor in captivity is a young one at the Los Angeles zoo.

THE AZAX MAN IS Looking for You

ATTRACTIVE WOMEN

If You Would Be Attractive You Must Be Healthy

A beautiful woman is always admired. There are many types of beauty. But no woman can be truly beautiful unless she is healthy. Radiant vitality is always attractive however plain a woman's features may be.

Many a woman has found her health improved thru the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Weakness, loss of weight, and a pale complexion were a few of the things of which Mrs. J. C. Taylor of Box 211, Tallahassee, Florida, complained before she started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. "I could not even sit down and talk to a friend for any length of time," she states, "I would forget what I was talking about and felt so blue." Mrs. Taylor is so pleased with the work of the Vegetable Compound that she keeps a bottle of it in the house at all times—and when it is empty, her husband makes sure that she has a new bottle. "I have regained my strength," Mrs. Taylor writes. "I can do all my household work and I feel just fine."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made from roots and herbs and has been growing in popularity among women for over fifty years.

BACKACHE

Mississippi Lady Benefited by Taking Cardui.

"I took Cardui for backache and a weakened, run-down condition, and it strengthened and helped me," says Mrs. Mattie Hurt, of Colquhoun, Miss.

"Before the birth of my children, when weak and nauseated, I took Cardui. After the birth of my children, when just getting up to do my work, I took a couple of bottles of Cardui and it never failed to strengthen and help me when taking it."

"I seemed to enjoy my food and my back would feel stronger. I don't believe I could have kept going had it not been for Cardui and the strength it gave me."

"When change of life came on I . . . got down in bed. Life seemed to be just a terrible drag. I did not have strength for anything. My back hurt. My limbs hurt. I was so nervous I couldn't rest."

"I knew what Cardui had done, so sent straight for it, and it did just as it had done before—strengthened and built me up."
