

Mother of Mrs. Dixon Passes.

Winston-Salem, June 2.—Mrs. Ella Brown James, age fifty-eight years, died yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of her son, J. Allison James, after an illness of five weeks.

Mrs. James was born in South Carolina, the daughter of the late George Brown. Her husband died in 1918. She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church and active in both church and Sunday school.

She is survived by one son, J. Allison James, president of the Owen Drug Company, and two daughters, Mrs. Edward Dixon, of Mount Airy, and Mrs. E. P. Carson, of Gaffney, S. C.; one brother and three sisters also survive.

The funeral was conducted by Drs. Foster and Lilly at the home on Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock and the interment made in Salem Cemetery.

First Baptist Church.

The pastor will return from the Scout Camp on the Dan river to fill his pulpit next Sunday morning and evening.

The Surry Baptist Association will meet with the Lonomia Baptist Church on the Low Gap road on July 16, 17, and 18. It is hoped that a good delegation from our church will be present.

These hot days are the testing time of one's religion. Go to church somewhere next Sunday. You will find a welcome in some one of the churches in Mount Airy. Our church will be glad to welcome you if you have no church home.

Card of Thanks.

We are deeply grateful to our friends and neighbors for their many expressions of sympathy and for their kindness during the illness and death of our infant son John Sobotta Gardner.

Silcom News.

Silcom, July 5.—Rev. Mr. Crissman preached a forceful sermon at Pine Hill Friends Church Sunday at 11:00 o'clock. A large crowd was present. A severe wind and rain storm swept over this section Saturday afternoon. Some damage was done to the crops and timber.

Something like 500 people attended the ice cream supper at Moore & Jones Service Station, Saturday night. Good music was enjoyed. One of the main features was a quartette in which Mr. Brady Pilon was the leader. All seemed to enjoy the supper very much.

Mr. Clinton Brown, of High Point, spent the week end with relatives in and around Silcom.

Mr. Wesley Wood, of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday with Mr. John Wood.

The young people of the Hills Grove Church met Saturday night and organized a Christian Endeavor Society, which is to meet every Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock. The young people seem to be taking a great interest in the christian work. About 20 young people joined the Society and we are looking for many more to join in the near future.

There will be an ice cream supper at the Grassy Knob School House, Saturday, July 10, lasting from 12 to 12. Music will be rendered by the Miller and Jenkins band. Some features of the day are, horse shoe pitching and a baseball game Ararat vs. Copeland, and many other things will be rendered.

Mr. W. C. Moser, of Newton spent the week end with Mr. L. R. Key.

It has been reported that the Level Cross Sunday School has increased 75% since this time last year. We believe that it will continue to increase until they will have a large attendance.

Mrs. N. R. Reeves and daughter, Miss Frankie are spending a few days with relatives at Cameron.

The fishing game seems to be a special feature along the Ararat river.

It has been announced that the revival meeting will begin at Hills Grove Church on Sunday night July 25. The Billy Sunday Gospel Teams, of Winston-Salem, will assist the pastor Rev. Geo. Oakley, of Mount Airy in the meeting. We are expecting the greatest revival ever known in the history of the church. Everybody is cordially invited to attend the services.

Fogleman-Carter.

A marriage which came as a surprise to their friends took place in Stuart, Va., Saturday morning when Miss Carrie Fogleman became the bride of Mr. Ralph Carter.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter are at home to their friends at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hennis where they have secured rooms for light housekeeping.

Personal Mention Route 4 Residents.

Mount Airy, Route 4, July 5.—Little John S. the two months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Boss Gardner died July 2 and was buried at Pine Ridge the 3rd, funeral was conducted at the home of the parents by Rev. J. C. Grier and Mr. Jesse Dunbar.

Willie Simmons, of Richmond, Va., is spending the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilcher Simmons.

Roy L. Boyles, of Winston-Salem, spent the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Boyles.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Shelton and Mrs. Callie Jackson spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Maggie Jones.

The farmers are delighted with the good rains for the past week and crops look good now.

Sunday School Convention.

The Dan River District Sunday School Convention convened at Carter's Chapel on Saturday, July 3, 1926. The Convention was in charge of Mr. Glenn Jessup, the president, who had the matter well in hand. The most of the Presbyterian and the Methodist Churches were represented.

The program of the forenoon was as follows:

"Our Need of Religious Education" by Professor L. C. Fultz, substituted by Rev. Mr. Landrum.

"The Sunday School Equipment," by Miss Leta Hiner, State Superintendent of Young People's Work.

These were followed with songs from different schools. This with appointment of committees. This with explanation and a collection.

In an informal way Rev. J. J. Eads spoke earnestly of the need of reading the Bible, the Church paper, the agricultural paper, as well as the local papers, The Mount Airy News and The Mount Airy Star. After which he distributed sample copies, prize notices and etc. This was followed with brief remarks by Rev. Newton J. Smith in the interest of the Stuart Enterprise.

A splendid lunch was then served on the ground.

In the afternoon the following program was observed:

"The Relationship of the Home to the Sunday School," by Rev. J. J. Eads.

"Goals and Standards," by Miss Leta Hiner.

"How to Make the Lesson Interesting," by Rev. Newton J. Smith

After the business session the Convention adjourned, vowing to meet next year with Blue Ridge Academy.

Goard-Branscomb.

Miss Leta Goard became the bride of Mr. Eli Branscomb in a ceremony performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Goard on East Poplar street at high noon Wednesday, Elder J. S. Morrison officiating.

The bride was becomingly attired in white flat crane with accessories to match and wore a corsage of sweet-peas. A large number of friends were in attendance and a wedding dinner followed the ceremony. They will make their home near Hillsville, Va., where Mr. Branscomb owns and operates a large farm.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Keuben Hundley and Wade Branscomb, of Hillsville; Mr. and Mrs. C. Goard; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Semones, of Hillsville, W. Va.; Mrs. Nestor Laurel Fork; Roby Brintle, Cap. Va.; Miss Linda Sumner, Winston-Salem.
