Mrs. Jay Franklin Fell Asleep.

The remains of Mrs. Jay Franklin, of Sunnyside, Va., who died Sunday in a hospital in Richmond, Va., following an operation on Tuesday for chronic appendicitis, were brought to the home of her mother Mrs. B. M. McGee on route 4, Monday night and the funeral took place Tuesday at 10:30 A. M. at the home after which the body was laid to rest in the family burying ground.

Mrs. Franklin was before her marriage Miss Alice McGee and was well known and loved in this her native section.

Two children aged eight and five with the husband survive her as well as her mother five brothers and three sisters.

The operation was successful and for a few days her condition was all that could be expected but a weak heart caused the attendants to summons her relatives and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hennis, Mrs. Walter Welch and Mrs. Jess McKinney left Sunday for Richmond but reached there after the end came.

She faced death bravely making request to be buried at home and her funeral conducted by Rev. J. H. Carter who officiated paying one of the most beautiful tributes to her life and character that his hearers ever listened to.

A large number of friends gathered for the services and the floral offerings were unusually numerous and beautiful.
